

CAVALRY OCCUPIES PAWTUCKET VALLEY

Rhode Island Strike Sympathizers Cause Trouble.

REINFORCEMENTS ARE DUE

State Troops Are Dispatched to Quell Disturbances—Machine Gun Men Under Orders.

PROVIDENCE, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two troops of state cavalry were dispatched to the Pawtucket valley tonight to quell disturbances that arose late today when strike sympathizers stormed the office of the B. E. & R. Knight company at Pontiac, in an effort to prevent the removal of a quantity of cotton cloth.

The troops were to be reinforced later tonight by a contingent with machine guns. In addition, four companies of coast artillery were ordered mobilized at the Cranston-street armory, where they were being held in anticipation of duty in the valley tomorrow. One of these companies expects to move to Pontiac in the morning.

A disturbance at the Pawtucket plant of the Jenness Spinning company late this afternoon led to the mobilization of the 8th company, coast artillery, which tonight was being held in readiness for possible trouble tomorrow.

After four young women operatives had been intercepted by strike breakers, police drew clubs and drove back a crowd that was setting in toward the mill gates. When the crowd pressed in again, the officers were commanded to discharge their guns. The crowd fell back and did not threaten again.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY AIDED

ALUMNI TAKE STEPS TO FINANCE INSTITUTION.

Hillsboro Meeting Pledges $1800 of Needed $20,000 for 1922 and 1923 Budgets.

HILLSBORO, Or., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—At a meeting here tonight of alumni of Pacific university at Forest Grove, steps were taken in cooperation with the board of trustees to save the university from being closed. As a result of aid that was pledged by the alumni, the university will reopen as usual for the next semester.

The immediate problem to be met is the raising of $20,000 to care for the 1922 and 1923 budgets. Within 30 minutes tonight more than $1800 was raised at the meeting.

Although no definite plan was adopted to raise the rest of the funds, it was proposed that alumni who have subscribed to the $2,000,000 endowment fund be asked to move forward their donations to the university from being closed. As a result of aid that was pledged by the alumni, the university will reopen as usual for the next semester.

At the Theaters.

A WELL-BALANCED bill went on the boards yesterday at Pantheaters with a youthful and interesting Portland girl named Evelyn Drewery, in a good spot on the list. Evelyn is very pretty, of an engaging, appealing youthfulness and she has a beautiful voice, soprano in sweetness and wide range. She has repertoire of three songs, one of them a pretentious aria that brings out the high notes and another upon her appearance, and all of her songs won applause.

A comedian of the droll, quiet type, who comes onto the stage in request for assistants in an electrical demonstration, is the funniest person on the whole bill. He has an original method of assuming stupidity and an embarrassed smile, which sends the audience into laughter. The act is called "Current of Fun," and is a scientific enigma filled with refreshing comedy. Madame Burnell demonstrates the flow of electricity through her fingers and the experiment, along with the comedy of the assistant, provide a clever act.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Luster With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage, brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

DOG TEAM STILL MISSING

NO TRACE OF SMOKEY GASTON FOUND IN IDAHO.

All Other Contenders in Ashton and Ready for Start of Annual Snow Classic.

ASHTON, Idaho, Feb. 20.—Smoky Gaston, American dog derby contender, who failed to reach here yesterday because of the blizzard which raged over this section, was still missing tonight. Drivers of dog teams, in from the trails they covered in search of him, said they were certain he had not pushed within 25 miles of Ashton. All other teams were in Ashton and ready for the start of the annual snow classic to take place Washington's birthday.

Miss Lydia Hutchison, driving her team of malamutes along the Union Pacific right of way, arrived this morning. She said no dog team and sled had preceded her over that trail unless all marks had been buried under deep snow. The Union Pacific line from West Yellowstone, where Gaston started, was the route he was supposed to have taken. It is now covered with snow from 6 to 20 feet in depth.

Tud Kent, American champion, is again a favorite in the big race. He is promised keen competition, however, from the dog teams of William Trude, George Pilcher and William Koeh. The four, together with Gaston, comprise the backbone of the trail battle. Gaston's backers still are hoping that the man who won national fame last year by his spectacular race behind Kent into second place will arrive in time. They insist that if he arrives only five minutes before the start he will be ready to go in and win. This town is prepared to entertain more than 5000 strangers Wednesday.
