

TRAID AND COUGARS TO MIX THIS WEEK Hoop Games End Season for Conference Leaders. VIKINGS TAKE BIG FALL Aggies Trim Northerners in Two Contests and Go Into Second Place; Bears in Third.

Coast Conference Basketball Standings. Idaho, Oregon Aggies, California, Washington, Washington State, Southern California, Oregon.

This Week's Schedule. February 27 and 28—Oregon Aggies vs. Washington State at Pullman. March 4—Idaho vs. Washington State at Pullman.

Idaho will wind up its coast conference basketball schedule in a two-game series with Washington State Friday and Saturday. The first game will be played at Pullman.

Idaho is the only undefeated team in the conference, all other five having lost at least two games.

The scheduled games of California and southern California will be completed with the game of March 10, when the two teams play at Los Angeles.

Idaho has practically clinched the Northwest conference championship. Although it lost to Montana, the Vandals will win the title even if they lose one game to Washington.

Oregon made its best showing in years. Although it won the Northwest conference championship last year, the university five lost 16 consecutive games this year.

University of Washington. Washington, Oregon Aggies, Stanford, Southern California, Oregon Agricultural College, Southern California, Washington State College.

ALL-LOCAL SMOKER IS NEW PROPOSAL Portland Commission to Act on Plan Today. HANSEN BACK OF PROJECT Paying High to Get Easterners Out Here to Flyover Against Matchmaker's Grain.

If the Portland boxing commission adopts the plan of Matchmaker Hansen at its meeting today, the next card at the armory will feature all Portland boxers. At past meetings the card has been built around some eastern boxer with a big reputation but who usually proves a disappointment.

Hansen's plan is to use three six-round and three four-round bouts. There are plenty of good boys now making their home in Portland who could be matched in the six bouts and make a rugged card. There would be no main event, the plan of Hansen being to have the boxers draw for positions.
