Hundlers and seconds of fighters will have to be good at future boxing cards in Portland. Some drastic rules to curb the activities of the seconds Score 36 to 0—Washingtonians were adopted by unanimous vote at a meeting of the Portland boxing commission yesterday. Every member of the commission agreed that the seconds have been altogether too obstreperous lately, that there have been too many of them behind some of the fighters and that coaching, talking and yelling by the seconds during rounds and trampling over the feet of speciators must fire them out of the fighter's corner or recommend their suspension, in which case the commission will act on the recommendation. It was made plain that it will go hard with any second or handler who shouts advice to his own fighter, or yells disparagion to the first time this and suit for the varsity in the 145-pound class for the first time this pound class for the first time this year, lost a decision and a fall to form which is now standing at

Frank Lonergan, the lawyer member of the commission, was assigned the job of drawing up the rules in code form. A copy of the code will be given to every fighter, fight manager and second.
