Conditions Among Sheep and Livestock Men Are Much Better, Declares Visitor.

On a Chautauqua tour, D. W. Davis, governor of Idaho, arrived in Portland yesterday and registered at the Multnomah, He speaks tonight at Oregon City and will speak in Portland Saturday night.

This is Governor Davis' second term and he says he will not seek re-elec-tion, nor has he any intention of being a candidate for any office in the coming election. The governor is more interested in the material prosperity over matters political and he is not discussing the recent agitation over the Idaho land bill, which measure has been put to sleep. Governor Davis is taking a little journey on the Icc.

Lately Isadora Duncan, after a public performance of her dances, asked the audience to join her in singing the "Internationale." This seemed a the "Internationale." This seemed a signal for the audience to leave. Everybody began going out, as the orchestra played, and Miss Duncan was left to sing alone.

One of the reasons for the lack of enthusiasm for the song is that it has been sung too much. People are tired of it, here, just as British soldiers got tired of "Tipperary."
