USE of Mails to Defraud Investors

Out of $1,000,000 Alleged.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Alleged to have used the mails to defraud investors out of $1,000,000 by the sale of worthless oil stocks, Seymour J. Cox, promoter, was arrested tonight in the Broadway theatrical district.

The warrant for Cox's arrest was issued by United States Commissioner Douglas of Houston, Tex., where the promoter operated as head of the Cox Realization corporation—a concern capitalized at $20,000,000.

Postoffice Inspector Weldon, who accompanied police in search for Cox, said he had been sought since February 28, the trail leading first to Michigan, then through several south-he said "all prominent business men" of Houston affected.

MURDER CLEWS DUG UP

MYSTERY OF CIRCUS OWNER'S KILLING YET UNSOLVED.

Vengeance Sworn by Relatives of Man Whom John T. Bruen Shot Several Years Ago.

RIVERSIDE, N. J. March 15 .- A number of possible clews were un carthed today by detectives trying t solve the mystery surrounding the death of John T. Bruen, a circu owner, slain with a shotgun at his home Friday. Some of these clues, Prosecutor Jonathan Kelsey of Bur-Prosecutor Kelsey said that he had learned that an oath of vengeance had been made by relatives of a man Bruen was reported to have shot and killed at Mount Carmel, Pa., several years ago. Bruen was acquitted on a plea of self-defense.

"Often he has expressed to me," the prosecutor said, "that certain people were trying to 'get' him.'

Authorities were investigating the report from Hammonton, N. J., that a touring car bearing license tags stolen from a garage in Philadelphia had been found there Saturday. The car had been abandoned by three young men, who were seen to climb aboard a truck headed for Philadelphia, the reports stated. The car had been abandoned after it crashed through a
