

DOCTOR SAYS LIFE CAN LAST FOREVER

Mechanical Heart Would Remove Cause of Death.

NEGROES MAY BE WHITE

Cure-All Machine That Is Said to Have Worked in 1000 Cases Is Reported by Inventor.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(Special.)

Dr. Octavio Pedroso, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, a very young man, who described himself on his visiting cards as "scientist-medico-inventor," today received a reporter for a second time and continued his explanation of the inventions by which he expects to revolutionize medical science.

Dr. Pedroso recently took exception to the accounts recently given in some newspapers of his inventions, and to set the public straight read aloud from a long letter which he had prepared.

Another paragraph was headed "Resuscitation of the dead by mechanical heart." Under this heading he wrote:

"I invented an apparatus with the same function as the heart, to work an artificial circulation until the cause of death has been removed and until the nervous system is supplied with enough energy from the blood (mechanically) forced to the lungs and the rest of the body to retake its normal function."

"This nervous system will set the human machine doing all its previous work and the apparatus may be removed from the body."

In reply to a question Dr. Pedroso said that he called this machine "the kinetic cardio-electro-thermo-mechanic."

"Have you built one of them?" he was asked.

"No," said Dr. Pedroso.

He added that the machine would contain more than 300 separate parts of crystal and platinum and that it would probably be very expensive.

He then described another of his inventions—an apparatus to draw out the white cells from the blood, to reduce to a loss to the person from whose blood they were taken. By this means it will, he said, change the color of the skin from white to black, to change the shape of the body, and even to effect changes in the intelligence.

"Have you built one of them?" he was asked.

"No," said Dr. Pedroso.

The only thing which Dr. Pedroso has actually made and operated so far is a little tube of nickel to which is attached a rubber suction bulb and which he calls a "gono-extractor."

With it, he said, cure skin diseases which flesh is hair, excepting only those of infective origin, can be cured, and cured in less than one day.

It will, he said, cure appendicitis, even in its acute and chronic forms; rheumatism, diabetes, arthritis, asthma and other diseases of the heart, stomach, kidneys and intestines, and will remove fatigue and lassitude and all symptoms of old age. It will do almost anything.

Dr. Pedroso stated that he had treated and cured more than 1000 patients at his medical institute in Sao Paulo, which he founded in 1929. He repeated that he stands ready to demonstrate his apparatus at any clinic in New York City, and in making his headquarters at the McAlpin hotel, but gave out his interview today in the law offices of Joseph Treanor McWater, in the Woolworth building.

At the Theaters.

Pantages.

ALEXANDER PANTAGES sponsors the remarkable interesting act which headlines Pantages at the McAlpin. The act is a miniature musical comedy of pretentious size and consequence.

Nothing so elaborate, scenically and in costume, has been seen in Pantages theater in many a day. Every detail of the act is artistic and of pronounced beauty in color and design. The kimono worn by the six charming girls who constitute the chorus are so lovely that the women in the audience discuss them in admiration. A huge Buddha idol occupies the center of the stage and plays an innocent but important role in the romance. A keen young hero manipulates the mechanism inside Buddha's head that the replies he is supposed to give to anxious beseechings divert the trend of happenings nicely and allow the dainty Japanese heroine to wed the hero, instead of the son of the mikado as had been planned by her scheming foster father.

The music is beautiful and incorporates little oriental melodies in its theme. An excellent company dances and sings its way through the piece, with a clever fatter, Nance Murray, at head of other clever folk in the cast include Oliver Reese, George Gould and the charming Lillian Barton in the role of the heroine. She has a sweet soprano voice.

The Original Bison City Four is the vocal riot on the bill. They have gauged the turn cleverly, with one as a policeman, a bartender, an Italian fruit peddler and a weary Willie bum, who chase each other in a row of street scenes, coming together at times to mingle their voices in real harmony. The men are Mike Girard, Hughes and Roscoe, and each has a fine voice. Blended they produce delightful melody. Their selections are well chosen and their comedy is very amusing.

Klass and Brilliant have an act which elicits rounds of applause and brings them out time and again for response. One is an accordionist and the other is a trombonist. Both are past masters in getting all the harmony possible out of their instruments.

Mr. J. A. McCrea, a well-known resident of California, who was called Daddy and Grandpa on account of his white hair and who darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair and make it soft and glossy. To this mix of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/2 ounce of glycerine."

"These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

production of nitrates and fertilizer compounds.

It was the opinion of the witness that no individual or company would ever attempt fertilizer production on a commercial scale by leasing plant No. 2. He urged the committee to "make sure" that Mr. Ford would produce cheap fertilizer for the farmers before congress accepted the proposal for purchase and lease of the Muscle Shoals properties or that of any other bidder.

Chairman Kahn announced at the conclusion of the investigation today that the committee would adjourn subject to call for its next meeting on the Muscle Shoals question. He expected the hearing to be more witnesses, he said, before the hearings were closed and the committee began preparation of its report on the proposals it had been studying.

"Renewed hopes for 10-cent shoe shines were knocked sky-high last night at a second meeting of the local bootblacks' union, attended by every member and held in the Panama building. The meeting was called to hear the reports of a committee appointed at the previous session to investigate the possibility of a 10-cent shine."

The result was virtually the same as that of last Friday night. Rents are too high, wages too high, materials too high, the committee said. When the costs of these things come down, they said, the price of shoe shines will come down to 10 cents. At the meeting the committee introduced the 10-cent shine and they had to come down to stay in business, but said that they were willing to keep their prices up as a result of the two-day trial.

The report current yesterday that the union would inaugurate a five-cent shine to combat the 10-cent fac-tion was both denied and laughed at by the reports of the committee.

The decision of the American Federation of Labor to stand firmly behind the striking textile workers of Rhode Island, announced by Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, in speeches yesterday here, will result in the American Federation will be asked to refuse to sell goods manufactured in Rhode Island mills where wage reductions have been made. It was further stated by strike leaders that workers in union textile finishing plants in other states will be requested to refuse to handle the products of such mills.

The beginning of the eighth week of the strike today found the situation unchanged from last week. No further attempt was made to reopen mills closed by the strike.
