

ORANGES ON MARKET ARE DECLARED GOOD

But Little Slightly Frosted Fruit Held Accepted.

GOOD FRUIT PLENTIFUL

Eggs Are Quoted at 25 Cents Dozen and Price Is Expected to Remain Firm Week or Two.

Reports of a large supply of frost-bitten oranges from California orchards are somewhat exaggerated, according to market officials. All oranges imported here are inspected carefully by government inspectors and fruit unfit to eat is denied entrance to local markets.

A few slightly frosted oranges are passed, but these are sold at a reduction. These oranges are not as juicy as those of first quality, but are good in every other respect. Consumers using ordinary care in buying oranges need have little fear of getting bad fruit.

Plenty of good oranges are available in Portland markets. Prices range from 20 to 40 cents, according to size and quality.

Eggs 25 Cents Dozen.
Eggs were quoted at 25 cents a dozen yesterday in the public market, an advance of 1 cent a dozen over last week's quotation. The price is expected to remain firm for a week or two more, for storage activities have not started on a large scale yet.

A marked rise in price will naturally follow when a large portion of the egg supply is diverted to storage. Apples are holding out well in supply and quality. A fair supply of the best fruit of the far-famed Hood River orchards is available at reasonable prices. Newtowns at 40 cents a dozen are recommended as the best eating apples at hand. Spitzenberg may be had at 25 cents a dozen and Orneys at 40 cents. Yellow pippins at 30 cents a dozen are an attractive offering in the fruit market.

Practically the only other products available in the fruit line are grapefruit, lemons and bananas. California grapefruit are 5 cents each and the Florida variety brings 10 to 15 cents. Florida grapefruit of extra large size are displayed at 15 cents. Lemons and bananas maintain the regular price of 40 cents a dozen.

Some Spinach Available.
A small supply of new spinach is available. The spinach is tender, but the best grade will not appear here for two or three weeks. Green onions of excellent quality are due in local markets in about a month. Variety is still lacking in the vegetable market, but there is a good supply of winter vegetables at hand.

Broccoli and cauliflower from Roseburg and other southern Oregon points is at hand in small supply. The quality is good, but prices are somewhat high for the average consumer. This is quoted at 15 to 40 cents a head, according to size. A new supply of California cabbage is available at 4 cents a pound.

Green Onions Scarce.
Green onions are scarce, but may be had at 5 cents for a small bunch. The large onions sell at 10 cents a pound. Green peppers are displayed at 25 cents a pound, lettuce at 10 and 15 cents a head and celery at 10 cents a bunch. Celery hearts are 15 cents a bunch and parsley 5 cents a bunch. Sweet potatoes are slightly higher this week with the price four pounds for 25 cents, instead of five pounds for a quarter, the cost which has prevailed for many weeks. Other vegetable offerings are tomatoes at 10 cents a pound, carrots at 2 cents, squash at 4 cents and turnips at 3 cents. Prices of potatoes remain at 2 and 3 cents a pound.

Spring chinook salmon is high, selling at 40 cents a pound. As a fresh salmon substitute, kippered salmon may be had at 25 cents a pound. Smelt are 5 cents a pound.

Two delicacies, delicious but expensive, are found in the fish market in the form of shrimp meat at 40 cents a pound and lobsters from southern California at 45 cents a pound. These lobsters weigh two to three pounds each.

Chickens may be had at 25 cents a pound. Broilers have started to make an appearance in small quantities. Belgian hares are 25 cents a pound.

RARE MUSIC IS ASSURED

Finnish Composer - Pianist and Prima Donna in Portland.

"When one hears Selim Palmgren play his own compositions one thinks of lonely moors and swamps fringed with reeds. Palmgren is an ingenious soul, a maker of gracious if melancholy song in which one would not be surprised to find the literary analogue to the 'Kalevala.'"

Thus writes Redfern Mason, the San Francisco critic, after attending a concert given by the distinguished Finnish composer-pianist, and Maikki Jaernefelt, dramatic soprano, who is recognized throughout Europe as the greatest prima donna that Finland ever produced.

Portland music lovers and musicians will have an opportunity to hear Mme. Jaernefelt and Mr. Palmgren, for tomorrow night they appear in concert at the Pythian temple.

SECRET PARTY RAPPED

Political Clique Trying to Dominate State, Says Louis E. Bean.

EUGENE, Or., March 17.—(Special.)—Louis E. Bean of Eugene, in a brief talk at the Eugene chamber of commerce luncheon yesterday, took occasion to rap the so-called "secret political party," which, he says, is attempting to dominate the politics of this state. Mr. Bean said:

"In 1820 the Pilgrim fathers landed at Plymouth Rock with their families in search of a home where they might educate their children and worship God as they pleased."

"In the preamble of the constitution of the state of Oregon we find written these words: 'We, the people of the state of Oregon, to the end that justice may be established, order maintained and liberty perpetuated, do ordain this constitution.'"

CLUB WILL ASSIST BOYS

Training School to Be Supplied With Athletic Outfit.

The boys' work committee of the City club was instructed to raise funds from club members to buy an adequate supply of athletic goods for the boys at the Oregon state training school, following an address on the needs of the school by W. L. Kuser, superintendent, at the weekly luncheon meeting of the club yesterday.

The club voted to take no action at present in expressing the sentiment of the organization regarding the proposed inclusion of the Diamond lake area in Crater Lake national park.

Worker Found Exhausted in Woods

RAYMOND, Wash., March 17.—(Special.)—A peculiar case of mental derangement was presented at Camp Bradford last week. Gust Kauger, a logger, went out to the camp and worked a day and a half and then failed to show up for meals. A search was made and he was found in an exhausted condition in the woods about a mile away. It required 10 men to carry him back to camp on a stretcher. He was sent to the Riverview hospital here.

Two Wives of One Man Ask Divorce.

TACOMA, Wash., March 17.—(Special.)—When Ethel Paquette married Charles F. Flisk at Olympia on December 24, 1915, she did not know that her husband had ever been married before. But on February 26, 1922, she received a letter from Mrs. Charles F. Flisk at Goodwin, Kan.
