BRIDGE is in high favor with society. And after the afternoon has been passed at cards additional friends drop in for tea while over the tea cups plans for the opera are discussed, and so Lent isn't such a dull time after all.

Yesterday many of the most prominent society women assembled in the season hotel for the bridge party given by the League of Women Voters. The affair was quite smart in point of attendance and from the standpoint of bowling.

Mrs. Charles F. Berg was hostess at a luncheon and bridge on Saturday in her home on Willamette Heights.

For Miss Julia Chisholm, Miss Nettie Rotan and Mrs. Harry Clarke, who will leave on March 31 for Europe, several bridge parties are being given. Yesterday Mrs. Thomas Britton Foster was hostess at an afternoon for the members of the bridge club of which the honored guests are members.

On Saturday Mrs. William M. Calk, Mrs. H. V. McClean and Mrs. E. W. Fish dispensed hospitality at a bridge luncheon at the Nortonia, honoring the Misses Chemin and Rotan and Mrs. Clarke. The rooms were artistically decorated in daisies and white flowers. Ten tables were arranged for the main diversion of the afternoon and about 15 other friends came in for tea to join the bridge devotees and pay their respects to the honored guests. Out-of-town women entertained were Mrs. May Chadwick, Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. Marjorie Lovelace, all of Salem. Miss McElroy played piano selections and Mrs. Muller sang.

On Friday Mrs. Thomas McCusker gave a tea and bridge and had red and white as table decorations. Mrs. W. O. Fouch poured and Mrs. William Calk cut tea.

Mrs. H. A. Peoples was hostess on Thursday at five tables of bridge at her home on Stout street, entertaining for the same trio for whom so many other parties are planned.

On next Thursday Mrs. D. Leonard will be hostess for Mrs. Clarke and the Misses Chemin and Rotan and on Friday Miss Murphy of Alexandria court will entertain in their honor. On Friday afternoon Mrs. Richard Everding will be a bridge hostess for Miss Chemin.

Mrs. Stanley Smith will entertain at bridge on Monday and on Tuesday of next week Miss Pauline and Miss Ella Hummel will be hostesses for the same three for whom the other parties are scheduled.

Miss Chemin, Miss Rotan and Mrs. Calk will leave for New York for Italy and to remain abroad for about six months.

Several luncheons were given yesterday preceding the bridge party at the Benson. Mrs. J. E. Montague was hostess at a small luncheon in the Meier & Frank terrace, for a few friends who later attended the card party.

Mrs. Nellie Gates Williams will have as her guest for the week her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin L. Burroughs (Miss Edith Magoon), of Pendleton, who will be here for the season of grand opera and who will be entertained extensively. Mrs. Burroughs is prominent in social and musical circles. She has many friends in Portland, and good friends elsewhere.

Mrs. James B. Kerr will leave this week for the West Coast on a vacation with her daughter, Miss Polly Kerr, who is attending Columbia university, New York, where she is taking a post-graduate course.

Miss Ida Boyd, guest of the C. S. Jacksons, will leave on Thursday for her home in Pendleton, after a delightful visit.

Mrs. Lee Hoffman has returned from a visit of several months in the east and is being welcomed by society.

Mrs. Daniel Dalton Madden (Rhoda Hummel) will visit Portland next month and will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ashley recently visited California and were entertained by Mrs. Madden.

Mrs. J. B. Robinson has as her guest her nephew, F. C. Charman, purser of the steamer Keystone State, plying between Seattle and the Orient. Mr. Charman's home is in Seattle, but he has many friends here.

The many friends of Mrs. E. B. Gaze will be sorry to know that she is at her home suffering from the effects of a fall from the train steps at Brlarwood station.

Mr. and Mrs. Dent Mowrey were hosts at an artistic tea-musical Sunday afternoon. The honor guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Zimmerman, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Scholz and Avard Fairbanks, sculptor. Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Henry Olson for the opera season, Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. Fairbanks will lecture at the arts and crafts tea next Friday.

Miss Marguerite Gleeson of Salem was a visitor in Portland and was guest at an informal luncheon given in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mulchay and children, Ruth, May and James, have returned from California to make their home in Portland. The older son, Roland, is a student at the University of California, and is general freight agent for the Southern Pacific and Mrs. Mulchay is socially popular.

Mrs. Alfred E. Zimmern will lecture Friday morning for the Junior League. Her subject will be "The Music That France Has Given to the World." This will be one of the series of lectures given for the league's charity fund. The lecture will be held in the First Presbyterian church house at 10:30 A. M.

Mrs. John Parks will return the latter part of the week from Washington, where she spent several months with her daughter, Miss Genevieve Parks.

James A. Pennie of Salem, Alberta, is passing a few days in the city as the guest of relatives. He is being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Bracy of 81 East Thirtieth street North.

Mrs. Charles Heinline of Roseburg will be the guest of Mrs. Fred L. Oalk who will attend grand opera. Salem has quite a long list among whom are:

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. E. Household Problems

PORTLAND, March 12.—Dear Madam Richet: I come again thanking you for the helpful suggestions which were very good, though you did not state what fashion magazine the model was to be found in. You said on page 28, dress 3566, I am 49 years, weigh 100 and do not want the low neck, as I do not wear them, nor a vest or a wide one for everything I have in vest, which is a problem. I enjoy reading your dressmaking page, and hoping for an early reply. Thanking you kindly.

MRS. M. N.

Mrs. M. N.—How very stupid of me to overlook such an important factor as the bust of the blouse. If you will kindly turn to the Designer Quarterly, page 28, No. 3566, you will find there the dress referred to. I am truly sorry and trust that others have not suffered the same loss of time.

PORTLAND, March 12.—Dear Madam Richet: I would like to know how to make Maraschino cherries, and thank you for helping me in making them. If you will address and stamped envelope. Thanking you very kindly for a reply, I am very truly yours, M. S.

O F COURSE it is not possible to make real maraschino cherries in a prohibition country. Various kinds of imitation maraschino cherries are made commercially or at home. Many commercial processes are unsuitable for home use.

At this season the easiest way of making imitation maraschino cherries at home is to dye (with fruit coloring) any firm, white, canned, pitted cherries and flavor to taste with almond extract or a mixture of almond extract and vanilla or almond and rose, as preferred.

When the cherry season is nearer and more readers are likely to be interested, I will print other suggestions for making various kinds of imitation maraschino cherries from the fresh fruit. In the meantime, if you are interested in commercial canning methods you can obtain some technical books on this subject from the Portland public library. It is never possible for me to make personal replies.

Women's Activities

A MEETING of the travelers' aid committee will be held Thursday at 11 A. M. at the Y. W. C. A. There will be a discussion of the transportation agreement and a full attendance of members is requested.

A new feature of the work is the movement toward inter-city co-operation and to this end clubwomen in the various towns and cities of the state are being asked to co-operate in meetings and assisting girls going to distant towns to live, also in some cases to make investigation in home towns of girls coming to the city.

One case of recent occurrence was that of a young woman who came from a distant city who, after a test was made at the city health department, was found to have the mentality of a 10-year-old child, though she is 30 years of age, and at present is being cared for in an institution here.

The Woman's Psychic club will meet in the church parlor, East seventh and Hassalo streets, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hill will give messages and members and others interested are invited.

About 140 Rehearsal attended the 14th annual convention of district No. 18, which was held at Cascade Locks. Annual reports read showed the lodges have been most prosperous.

Members of the Tuesday Afternoon club will be entertained this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Cavanaugh, 1627 Westover road.

Problems of Dressmaking
by Madam Richet

ATHENA, Or.—Dear Madam Richet: I am a constant reader of your columns of "Dressmaking Problems" and have received a great deal of help from them, but am writing to you for help myself now. Will you please help me plan my summer wardrobe without too great an expense?

I have a plain cloth coat for spring and fall, but it is a little too heavy for summer. Could you suggest something in a wrap style for me?

I have dark brown hair and eyes, weigh 100 pounds, height 5 feet 4 inches and am 35 years old. I have a long pongee dress trimmed in blue for street wear? What kind of a good dress would you suggest? I would like to spring suit, or tricotone. What kind of a blouse would be good with it, also shoes and hat?

Thanking you in advance.

A READER.

A READER—Why not have the one-piece dress with the cape to match? The tricotone, serge, Canton crepe or the tweed are good fabrics for such an outfit. The March Designer shows a smart combination of page 77, Nos. 3654, 3677. The blue with the scallops of the geranium, fuchsia or the fade would be effective and should be lined in the same shade. The pongee trimmed as you state will make a nice spring dress but be sure that you have the heavy quality of pongee. For the "good dress" I wonder if you would not like the foulard or the taffeta. See the sketch on page 12, No. 3453. On page 33, No. 3547 is a pretty blouse to wear with your suit. A tullea smocked in the silver or a fade in the gold. Make up in a crepe de chine.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 13.—Dear Madam Richet: Please suggest a way to make over an dress like sample inclosed. Waist is made like picture. Skirt has pleated down center front seam and center of back; length 38 inches; width at bottom 20 yards 23 inches; belt, with gathers let out, 37 inches; have several large pieces. Another dress made of material and like sketch No. 2, which I never liked and never wore but few times. Material is 36 inches wide; skirt has three widths, 36 inches long; center front of waist 20 inches; center back 24 inches; two quarter-inch tucks on shoulder front, shoulder and under arm opening; loose sleeves. Kindly suggest a way to make up 64 yards of 33-inch material like black and white sample.

What is the name of trimming like samples inclosed, and what could they be used for? I have 4 1/2 yards width of tan sample and two yards of same three inches wide, one like sample.

I weigh 100 pounds, am 5 feet 3 inches tall, waist 30 inches, bust 40 inches, hips

The Triumph of Tasty Toast

WHETHER for an appealing breakfast or for dainty luncheons or suppers, good toast is a refinement of good bread—the one food of which 90 per cent is quickly and easily absorbed as nourishment.

One reason why users of Butter-Nut bread insist on getting it at their grocer's is because they have found Butter-Nut makes the most perfect toast.

Because it is appetizing, while losing none of the nourishment in the bread, toast is the physician's favorite prescription for delicate stomachs.

When ordering bread, be sure to ask for the loaf of fine flavor and high food value—the genuine ALWAYS in its sanitary wrapper.
