THE OREGONIAN TEST
OF RADIO MAKES HIT

Congratulations Pour In at First of Broadcasting.

ANOTHER TRIAL TONIGHT

Please to Re-installated Today and Medical Sections Next One
for Street Radio.

"We tell you we are going to install a street radio today, and that is because we are going to install a street radio
today."

Mary Tyler, a secretary in the office of the Oregon State Capitol, was among the first to hear the news.

CONCERT BUREAU IS SUED

Orchestra of Los Angeles Sues
for Breach of Contract

A suit was filed in court today
by the Orchestra of Los Angeles
against the Concert Bureau,
charging breach of contract.

Cupid suffers delay

Mixed couple gets license at Valentine's day ceremony

A court in New York City has delayed the ceremony
in the marriage of
a couple who had been scheduled to marry on Valentine's Day.

10,000 RUBLES ON LETTER

If Exchange News Wire
of Mail Will Be $5140.

According to reports from St. Petersburg, Russia, a letter worth $5,000
has been stolen.

"Red" Rupert pardoned

A pardon has been granted to "Red" Rupert,
the well-known
anarchist.

Changes in Trains

Spokane, Portland & Seattle Ry.

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

On and after the date named above the changes outlined below will be in effect on the Spokane line of the North Pacific.

Local Trains:
No. 8 arriving Portland 7:10 A. M., and
No. 7 arriving Portland 8:45 A. M., in and out from Spokane, will be discontinued.

Spokane trains:
No. 4 leaving Portland 5:10 A. M., and No. 1 arriving Portland 6:30 A. M., in and out from Spokane, will make additional stops as noted at Washougal, St. Helens, Wash., and other points.

No. 1 continues connection for Goldsboro.

Spokane, Portland & Seattle Ry.