

RICKARD TO TESTIFY IN HIS OWN BEHALF

Attempt to Be Made to Refute Charges of Girls.

WIFE WILL TAKE STAND

Mate to Seek to Prove Husband Was at Home Night Alleged Assault Took Place.

NEW YORK, March 26.—(Special.)—Tex Rickard will take the witness stand in his own behalf to refute the charges made by young girls either tomorrow afternoon, if his character witnesses have their testimony by that time, or the next day.

"Certainly I will testify," he said this afternoon when interviewed in the sheriff's quarters at the criminal courts building, where he had been taken from the toms for a conference with his lawyers, Max Steuer and Hyman Bushel. "I have nothing to conceal and am perfectly willing to answer any questions the district attorney may ask.

"I have been on the point of making statements about my case at various times since the charges have been brought against me," Rickard went on, "setting forth my innocence, but Mr. Steuer decided against this, preferring to try the case in court. But I will have something to say when I take the chair and face jury. I am not worrying about the outcome."

Spirits Appear Excellent.

He didn't appear to be worrying either. He was in excellent spirits following a long talk with his lawyers and then a visit from Mrs. Rickard, her mother and his sister, who called upon him in the sheriff's office.

Mrs. Rickard, while prohibited by Mr. Steuer from making any comment about the case or about the accusations against her husband, so wholeheartedly with him, as she has been since the day of his arrest back in January, when she laughed at the stories told by the children.

Wife Will Testify.

The promoter's wife will testify tomorrow not only as a character witness, but also as an alibi witness, to prove that on the evening of November 12 last, when Rickard is charged with having been at 29 West Forty-seventh street with 16-year-old Nellie Schoenfeld and 13-year-old Nellie Gasko, he was in reality at his home, 80 Madison avenue, with Mrs. Rickard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Floury, Miss Helen Tilton at dinner and later consulted with Dr. John H. Richards, the famous physician, who called to prescribe for Mrs. Rickard. This alibi was testified to on Friday by all the witnesses named here except Mrs. Rickard, who was to have been on the stand when adjournment was taken. It was preceded by an alibi for the afternoon of November 12, when Rickard, according to several other witnesses, was at the Polo grounds watching the Pennsylvania-Dartmouth football game, and not, as the girls had sworn, in front of the garden making an appointment with them.

Reckless Witness.

There will be several character witnesses this morning, the most noted among them being Rex Beach, novelist, who had been in Alameda in the old Klondike days, when Beach was getting the material for books on Alaskan life.

Assistant District Attorney Pecora, of course, will devote much time to cross-examining the promoter, and doubtless will make an attack upon his alibi. What other plans the prosecutor has, or what he may offer in the way of rebuttal, are not known yet. He is said to have remarked he did not think the case would reach the jury until Wednesday.

Whole Party at Luncheon.

Rickard was away from the toms for a considerable time yesterday. He was technically a prisoner in custody of Deputy Sheriffs Burke and Gillette, but he was not strictly speaking, in confinement. At 11 o'clock he was taken from the toms to the sheriff's office, where he consulted with his lawyers for about three hours. Then the whole party went to luncheon at a restaurant, after which they returned to the criminal courts building.

His Women Relatives Visited Rickard late in the afternoon, and it was well toward evening before the promoter went back to his cell. Such confinement of a prisoner able to provide his own means for food and clothing is unusual, but was ordered by Justice Wasservogel because of the importance of the case.

CONCERT GIVEN BY RADIO

some music, but because of the novelty of it. "I am having a fine time out here," said G. W. Keating of Maplewood, seven miles from Portland. "I am having some friends come in tonight to enjoy the evening with me and I can assure you that this service. The Oregonian is giving is mighty good and that we like it; we want all we can get of it."

Dozens of letters are pouring in from every part of Oregon and Washington indicating the wide area covered by the radio station. Every letter is written in an enthusiastic manner, congratulating The Oregonian on its successful innovation.

The following letter was received yesterday from W. E. McCarthy, a radio fan of Battle Ground, Wash., who heard Miss Mason sing Saturday noon:

"I was listening in today noon," he wrote, "and heard your concert and selection from 'Madame Butterfly' sung by Miss Edith Mason. It was surely fine. It came in very plain here. I hope you will continue broadcasting."

H. B. Churchill, writing from Salem, said: "Just had nine friends in to hear Miss Edith Mason sing. We could hear the music 30 feet away from the phones."

From Woodburn, Or., Arthur Chapelle wrote as follows: "I am just writing this to let you know how your radiophone came in here. The song by Edith Mason came in very good, also the photograph records and speech. It came in better at noon today than last night. Today noon it was audible three feet from the headset on detector alone."

Dean Brooks, living in Washington, Wash., reported that he was hearing stronger and better than from any other station. His folks have enjoyed The Oregonian concerts very much, he said.

LIQUOR DUMPING HALTED

"NEEDLESS AND HARMFUL POLICY" FORBIDDEN.

Chicago Officials Get Orders Just Before 350,000 Gallons Were to Go Into River.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Ten minutes before 350,000 gallons of beer, wine and whisky were to be dumped into the Chicago river Saturday by federal prohibition agents, Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes at Washington ordered the wholesale unloading stopped on the ground that it was needless and harmful publicly and that it "incites the onlooker to both regret and anger."

The original plan of dumping liquor concealed in federal raids was made to make more room in the warehouses for the results of a heavy drive which is being made and for the entertainment of J. E. Jones, an assistant federal prohibition agent from Washington.

A few minutes before the party proceeded to the scene of the overflow Commissioner Haynes was called and his advice as to the appropriateness of the move was solicited. He replied that the move was ostentatious in the extreme and said that the work of the agents "should not be flaunted before the eyes of the public in such a manner as to arouse contempt."

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—All federal prohibition agents have been ordered to avoid unnecessary display in the destruction of seized liquors, Commissioner Haynes said Saturday. Such instructions, he added, were issued with a view to preventing needless irritation through public destruction of alcoholic beverages.

Officials at the prohibition bureau said it had never been the policy of the prohibition bureau to destroy seized liquors which had a commercial value, except upon order of a court.

Moonshine liquors, however, officials said, are not regarded as having any commercial value.

American ex-Minister Declares Incursion Into Latin Countries More Feared Than Ever.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Horace G. Knowlton, American minister to the Dominican republic and also Rumania, Serbia and Bolivia, reiterated charges that the United States was pursuing an "imperialistic" course in its administration of Dominican affairs in an address tonight. Mr. Knowlton is now counsel for the Dominican nation.

The incursion of the United States into the Latin-American countries is more feared now than ever before, he said, after summing up the events in Santo Domingo since American occupation in 1916. Not only have we violated the Monroe doctrine, but now the practical working of that doctrine is to prevent the victim country from receiving help and assistance from other European countries.

STATE BUDGET UP SOON

WORK LIKELY TO BE STARTED WITHIN TWO WEEKS.

Commission to Go Over Requests After All Have Been Compiled by Departments.

SALEM, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—With the organization of the state budget commission here yesterday through the election of Frank Meredith as executive officer and statistician, the work of compiling the state budget for the period January 1, 1923, to January 1, 1925, will get under way within the next two weeks.

Blanks have been prepared by the commission and those will be sent to the heads of all state institutions and departments. Upon these blanks the superintendents will designate their estimated expenditures for the biennium. These estimates will be classified, including maintenance, new buildings and other expenditures that may be contemplated.

These blanks will then be returned to the secretary of the budget commission, who will later refer them to the members of the commission. Each item of expense set out in the budgets of the various institutions and departments will be considered closely, comparisons with previous years will be made and every effort will be made to eliminate all improvements that are not necessary.

After passing on the various budgets of the various institutions and departments, the commission will make a recommendation for consideration of the legislature. The budget, together with this recommendation, then will be referred to the ways and means committee for final approval or rejection. If approved by the ways and means committee, the bill authorizing the appropriations, together with the system of handling appropriations through the budget commission, they ways and means committee probably will be relieved of considerable work.

BUYING ROADWAY IS UP

Marion County Likely to Purchase Pacific Highway Route.

SALEM, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—As a result of recommendations made by the state highway commission at its recent meeting in Portland, the Marion county court probably will be asked to institute condemnation proceedings to purchase a right of way for the Pacific highway at Jefferson.

At present the Jefferson portion of the Pacific highway is the only unopened section of the route between Portland and Albany. The recommendation of the state highway commission, if carried out, will eliminate four right-angled turns in the present route through Jefferson.

The Jefferson city council, it was reported here today, has failed to obtain the right of way, and action to this end is now up to Marion county and the state. In case the proposed right of way is obtained without any material delay, paving of the section will be completed this year.

Hauling Contracts Let.

SALEM, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—

The Marion county court last night awarded gravel and sand hauling contracts aggregating approximately $8000. The sand and gravel to be moved by the successful bidders will be used in the improvement of Marion county highways. Bidders receiving the contracts are D. R. Reasoner & Sons of Hillsboro, W. D. Bowman of Portland and Tweedle & Chase of Woodburn.

Kiwanians Attend Church.

About 30 members of the Kiwanis club and their wives attended services at First Methodist Episcopal church last night, in honor of the Kiwanian guests, Dr. B. E. Parker, pastor, a member of the club, preached a special sermon, S. W. Lawrence, district vice-governor of the Kiwanis club, spoke on the ideals and purposes of the organization.
