THYE PINS BUTLER; ONE FALL FORFEITED

First Decision After 38 Minutes of Grappling.

LOSER IS BADLY HURT

Continuation of Bout Is Left to Crowd After Injury to Arm Is Announced.

Ted Thye, wrestling instructor at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club and rated among the leading middleweights of the country, last night defeated Oscar Butler, Portland

Multnomah club instructor.

The two men had wrestled for 38 minutes 39 seconds before Thye tossed Butler for the first fall. It was one of Thye's famous wristlocks that started the trouble. The two grapplers were on their feet at the when Thye clasped on the ock. They fell to the mat and from the wristlock Thye worked to an arm scissors. Butler was not on his back, but the limb-twisting hold which Thye had on him forced him

This is one of t to pound the mat.

Following a ten-minute rest Thye was back in his corner ready to try for the second fall, but the announcer said that Butler's arm was injured too badly. Butler, however, put in his appearance and said he was ready to go on if the crowd wanted him to, but there was no desire to see an uneven match, so Butler forfeited the Butler throughout was aggressive and displayed plenty of endurance, but he was lacking in experience. Thye simply waited for an opening and when he saw his chance, took it. In the preliminaries Paul Kenney threw Ernest Olson with a toe hold in 13 minutes, and Fred Reidlinger threw Fred Fish in eight minutes. The matches, which were at the Woodmen of the World hall, were witnessed by a received beauty witnessed by a packed house.

setback when the Aberdeen team fin-ished the first three games 258 pins in the lead. Clayton Fry refereed all of the bouts. The judges were Dr. Ran-dall White and Dean Donosan.

Next Sunday the Klines will have to overcome this lead of 258 pins in order to nose out the visitors. This is a big handicap to overcome, but on is confident that it can pull out of the

In the doubles Tom Perry and George Henry are leading their Aber-deen rivals by 104 pins. The complete scores of the matches rolled Multnomah Club to Be Host to ex-Heavyweight Champion.

The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club will be host this afternoon to James J. Corbett, ex-champion heavyweight boxer of the world. There will be a reception at the clubbouse this afternoon to be followed by a banquet

Corbett has a warm spot in his heart for all amateur athletic clubs, for it was at the Olympic club of San Francisco that he first took up boxing, later going into the professional game after he had defeated all the amateurs around San Francisco and then crowning his professional endeavors by knocking out John L. Sullivan for the world's title. Corbett will be taken through the Multnomah club building this after-moon and shown the various club activities. His chief interest, how-ever, will be displayed in the Winged M boxing and wrestling classes, which are going through a strenuous train-ing season in preparation for the Pacific coast amateur meet, which wil he held tomorrow and Friday at the Hellig theater under the auspices of Caddles Help Players.

The had agreed to throw Butler twice in an hour. The gained but to one fall, but that one fall was enough. Butler's arm, according to the referee, was injured to such an extent that it would have been folly for him to continue. Butler therefore forfeited the second fall and match to the Multnomah club instructor.

Caddles Help Players.

It is every caddle's business to know the course and judgment in distances is of the greatest importance. It is the caddle's business to know each player's game, and if not acquainted with it, to pick up the information on the first hole or two.

that face a good golfer. No matter how well one plays he never becomes so proficient that he can get through even a single round without having to make some important decision on a play that affects the scoring.

The chief causes for worry for the star usually come from the selecting of the proper clubs, a most important part of the game of golf.

In Scotland and throughout the British isless the caddle is a much more necessary adjunct to the game than he is in this country. The caddle considers himself accountable for the loss of a match just as much as if he had handled the clubs himself, and feels that when a player refuses to use the club that he hands to him the loss of the considers himself accountable for the loss of a match just as much as the considers himself accountable for making the putt cannot help but feel chagrin that the
