JOHN AS EXAMPLE

"Sleepy" Church Folk Asked

to "About Face."

AUDIENCE IS RESPONSIVE

to Co-operate.

Baby Clinics," Dr. C. Ulysses Moore.
3:30 P. M.-Health play.

City's Youngest Elopers Caught By Police.

ardson, 3, run away from home. DORTLAND'S youngest elopers came gated chap who sings nicely. Silver, as an old hotel keeper, has good comto grief yesterday noon, when a

George Land, 4, and Edna Rich-

BY LEONE CASS BAER. A s far spart as the well-known A CHARACTER nicely fitted to Sel-poles, are Josephine Victor and A mer Jackson's gift for comedy Dainty Marie insofar as their art and is that of Sam Harrington, a luckless U. S. Service and State Board achievements are concerned. Jo- wight created by William Collier a season or so ago in New York. Col-Hungarian actress who has won re- lier has not taken any of his plays cognition and a big following in east- on the road in a long time, and when ern productions, but who is known he does go a-touring he somehow to us on this coast through her one misses this coast. His play. "Th "CANCER" TOPIC TONIGHT "Chanticler." That was a delightful piece of acting and is remembered Miss Victor returns in a most inter-esting playlet, one with more plot and combining to put in the construction of the part mainly because he has a droll, sober way of band, who arrives late in the hap-penings; Irving Kennedy is a groom, and Leo Lindhard is the nearest apand Leo Lindhard is the nearest ap-proach to a villain the play affords, inasmuch as he, too, loves the pretty girl. The pretty girl is Leona Powers, and she is sweet and charming in the role. Rankin Mansfield is her brother, and a new girl, Patsey Grey, is a French maid. The play is well staged and the costuming is hand-some.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

of Passion, or Holy, week. Ch choirs and soloists had prepared cial programmes of music suitable to the day. "The Palms," by Faure, was sung in many leading churches. Many pastors devoted their sermons to a discussion of the significance of Palm Sunday. The baptism of infants and the reception of members from the Sunday school took place in the churches, in which this is the custom churches, in which this is the custom on Palm Sunday. Pre-Easter services will be held every night this week in a number of churches. At the East Side Baptist church, Dr. W. B. Hinson, the pastor, will speak every night this week on "This Day as Christ Spent It." On Friday afternoon a service for prayer and meditation will be conducted by and meditation will be conducted by the associate pastor, Dr. Daniel Bryant, from 2 to 4 o'clock. Rev. Joseph D. Boyd will hold services each night, except Saturday, at the Christian church at Rodney ave-nue and Knott street, assisted by a

"Is your life a voice introducing live up to their golden rides. They Jesus to your friends and has your do not walk in the seven golden high-conduct been such that you have made ways leading to world peace and

Captain Abel Gets Assignment.

CHEHALIS, Wash., April 9 .- (Spe

Save Time . . . Save Labor ... Save Worry . . Save Money ...

meshes of the fabrics; loosen the clinging dirt and dissolve all greasy matter. The filmiest chiffons and georgettes and coarse, heavy blan-

"UNIVERSAL" Electric Clothes Washer -- the Washer for YOU

It is the washer for every woman who wants a washing machine that: Cleanses thoroughly. Needs no watching. Saves the housewife's time and labor. Saves its cost in practically costless washing.

Clothes placed in the smoothly fin-ished perforated cylinder are gently lifted and dipped into the water. The cylinder revolves twice one way, then reverses, making 18 complete revolutions per minute.

kets are revealed to you spotlessly laundered. The Universal treats The rich, bubbly suds slosh, delicate fabrics as gently as it washes heavy linens thoroughly. spray and surge through the

Once the Universal enters your home the terrors of "Blue Monday" vanish never to return. Come in and let us show you the Universal in operation

MAKE YOUR OWN TERMS IN REASON

Headquarters for Many Leading Brands of Electrical Equipment for the Home

CONVENE are: Lloyd L. Scott of Portland, dep-uty grand master: Olaf A. Olson of of Portland.

Iain

is a plano solo, a medley of varia-tions of "The Mocking Bird," played by a negro man planist. There are six negro men in the jazz orchestra against which Miss Hunter shimmles, sings and otherwise disports herself.

The orchestra plays jazz for the most part and the antics of the men seemed to interest the matinee crowd yesterday

A diverting trio are Silver, Helen Duval and Kirby, the latter an elon-

Selmer Jackson William A. Lee

Lyric.

The runaways were George Land, aged 4, of 326½ First street and Edna Richardson, aged 3, of 570 First Hand in hand they left their homes in South Portland to see the world. They left home without food or money, but by the time Patrolman Stone found them nearly three hours  $\mathbf{E}$  gay and as charmingly rowdyish later at Twenty-third and Washing-ton streets, they had each gathered quite a collection of mementoes of eir wondrous journey. Each had a pocketful of pennies and nickels which pedestrians had presented as they toddled up the streets. Besides the money, they had prankis recaived many pieces of candy, several sticks of gum and a doughnut.

orge was in charge of the doughnut, but at frequent intervals they would stop and he would hold it patiently while Edna took a generous their pockets at police headquarters, it was seen that Edna had only pen-It was seen that Laha had only pear mony and humor are exceedingly good. nles, while George possessed a gen-trous sprinkling of nickels and dimes. The police suspected that George figured like a Scotchman in the second dimension of the second second second second second mony and humor are exceedingly good. They sing half a dozen songs, several of which are solos. Manning and Hall's "I Got a Lot" means that little Mr. Manning has a he started to put up a battle when the separation came. "Goo' byc, Edna," lisped George. "Goo' byo, Georgie." she answered. And there they steod in the corri-dor of the police station, arms en-twined about the other, bidding each witting him in a stock deal. other farewell. Their Sunday me

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> with a hammer.

policeman intercepted them just to a juggling genius like Alex Patty, The world is an upside when they were in a fair way to finance an extensive journey with both cash and food. who plants his dome in the middle of a bouquet on a table and remains bal-anced upside down for half his act

it's easy try it some 'Tuesday.

Hippodrome.

as ever, delighted a capacity audience at the Hippodrome yesterday when she made her first appearance opened at the Lyric theater yester-today will be this noon pefore the opened at the Lyric theater yesterof a week's engagement at that play of a week's engagement at that play-house. There is no denying that Eva is inclining to embonpoint, but it hasn't begun to interfere with her prankish acting a whit. She is the ski, played by Ben T. Dillon and Al same nice little rowdy she always Franks, respectively, as a penalty for has been. Miss Tanguay's act is divided into breaking some valuable statues are compelled to dress up like statues themselves and be sold. Just after four parts, four costumes-beads, feathers, furs and flowers-and four nuc, out at frequent intervals they would stop and he would hold it patiently while Edna took a generous bite. And George, like a true Lothario, also watched out for her interests in the disposition of the ownly and gum.

But when it came to the money. George's instincts as a business man overcame his devotion to the little lass at his side. When they emptied their pockets at police headquarters, it was seen that Edna had only pennies, while George possessed a gennies, while George possessed a gennies.
four parts, four costumes—beads, feathers, These are about Eva herself and are anusing and entertaining. Between selections, while she is bening redraped for the next, the accompanies that Edna had only pennies.
four parts, four costumes—beads, feathers, These are about Eva herself and are anusing and entertaining. Between selections, while she is bening redraped for the next, the accompanies that Edna had only pennies.
four parts, four costumes—beads, feathers, These are about Eva herself and are anusing and entertaining. Between selections, while she is bening redraped for the next, the accompanies that Edna had only pennies.
four parts, four costumes—beads, feathers, These are about Eva herself and are anusing and entertaining. Between selections, while she is bening redraped for the next, the accompanies that Edna had only pennies.
four parts, four costumes—beads, feathers, These are and the selections. There at the feminine purchaser has agreed to take them, however, they walk away, to the great consternation of the out of the ing redraped for the next, the accompanies of the selections. But bestdes the Tanguay act there at the fourts. Accoupte of big striped sticks of candy which develop feet and insist on dancing to the fusic are a facture of this scene. Another attractive feature is when the selection of the selection.

Another attractive feature is when Another attractive feature is when a big post card addressed "To Any Boy, Portland, Or.," is lowered onto the stage and a lot of pretty girls come forth. In this scene Violet Woods sings "To Any Boy." Other song hits include "Stealing." by Dorothy Raymond and chorus

George figured like a Scotchman in the division of the money spoils. Frantic parents, aided by scores of neighbors, scoured the South Port-land district without success for the runaway youngsters, and its mothers of both children were on the verge of a breakdown before the police notified them that the elopers had been found. When Edna's father arrived at police headquarters to take charge of he, George wanted to go too. And he started to put up a battle when by Dorothy Raymond and chorus; "I've Got My Habits On," by Howard Evans and chorus; "If My Dreams of You, Dear," by Jewel LaVelle and chorus, and numbers by the mal trie. There is the moving picture pro in addition to the musical and exciting. Doris May stars in the photoplay, "Eden and Return," in which she out-wits her father in choosing a husband MUSICIAN for herself and the new husband then makes a fortune off father by out-

A. E. Braymer of Seattle Inhale

Gas in Lodgings. A. E. Braymer, 45, a Seattle musician living at 5157 Mead street in not the Christ of the river bank, but the Christ of Calvary and that first of a Divine Redeemer providing par religion, as it contains the revelations Easter morning. We have the ascend-ed Christ and the blessed Holy Spirit to aid us in the lives we live. Then don and regeneration, together with Spirit revelations of pure ethics founded in Then wisdom and justice, truth and love."

KILLS

SELF

FRENCH waiter posing as a A count, who is knocked down to let us examine ourselves. Let us take the highest bidder, a breezy tale of our stand beside John and measure life in "Gay Paree," coupled with our lives by his,"

Jonah.

There will be no services today at the tabernacle, this being rest day for the crusade party. The only appearsome well-rendered songs and catchy steps feature the musical comedy at-today will be this noon pefore the Chamber of Commerce forum. The rusader has announced that he will reach Tuesday night on "The Empty bair. and next Saturday night on

PALM SUNDAY IS OBSERVED

Special Services Are Held in Portland Churches.

esterday, which marked the opening

LUDGEINIEN

MASONIC GRAND COUNCIL TO MEET IN ALBANY.

Committees of Royal and Select Masters Chosen to Handle

Work of Annual Session.

cial.)-Captain Don G. Abel of Che-halls, who served in France, has reeived word of his assignment as cap tain of company K with headquarters at Centralia in the infantry reserve. ALBANY, Or., April 9 -- (Special.) In its 37th annual assembly, the Doings of grand officers-Milton L Grand Council of Royal and Select Meyers of Salem, Sam R. Mosher of Masters of the Masonic fraternity of Eugene and John B. Patterson of Eu-The appointment comes from headquarters 283d infantry, 96th division, Seattle, Wash, Captain Walter L. Doty, formerly of Chehalis, has been Palm Sunday was observed with secial services in Portland churches Phone your want ads to The Ore-sterday, which marked the opening gonian. Main 7070. Automatic 560-95.

Finance and returns-Dan John-ston of Albany, A. H. S. Haffenden of Portland and O. O. Hodson, who re-sides in McMinnville, but who is a Salem, grand principal conductor of the work; Horatio H. Parker of Port-land, grand treasurer; James H. Rich-mond of Portland, grand recorder; Carl W. Evertsen of Marshfield, grand control of the grand James E. Marmember of the Salem council

Carl W. Evertsen of Marshfield, grand captain of the guard; James E. Mar-tin of Portiand, grand conductor of the council; John K. Kollock of Port-land, grand marshai; John R. Penland of Albany, grand steward; E. F. Carle-ton of Salem, grand sentine), and Fred S. Dunn of Eugene, grand chap-

Grand Master Taylor has appointed the following committees to handle the work of the session:

Judiciary, appeals and grievances F. M. Patterson of Portland, George

GILBERT SAYS: We Specialize in To reach my store when the Telegram b a se b a 11 seoreboard is operating, use Washington-street en-trance of Pittock block. Teeth Extracted Crown and Bridge COMING Rubber Plates Big cargo of highest quality pianos, shipped March 23 by steamer Minnesotan from the Port of New York Restoring Teeth to the Port of Portland. Fhat Are Decayed Buy at the Economy Store and All Work Guaranteed! Ivory keys, not celluloid Charges Average About (ivorene). . 7 One-Half! Copper bass strings, not copper washed. A veneered case, not : H painted one. The best material and workmanship; not the cheapest. Satisfaction, not trouble. Your Rasorite Organization Contest 1000 Victor Records, 2 for 75¢, Cafeteria Style HAROLDSGILBERT 107 WEST PARK

Between 14th and 15th. Open Evenings.

By Gas

Work

More than your money's worth gonlan. Main 7070. Automatic 560-95. into a big item.

The indefinable aroma so fa-

Everything that's best in coffee is imprisoned in the vacuum tin-and there awaits your pleasure!

The delicious breakfast beverage

That Dependable Flavor!

The rich fragrance of the blend.

Tastes better-goes further miliar to those who know and

POET ACCUSED OF FRAUD ROBBER SUSPECT HELD Alleged Cousin of Famous English that city, committed suicide in his hotel room at Third and Taylor