Other nations find an advantage after all in meeting the bolshevist statesmen face to face at conference and talking with them. When Mr Tchitcherin utters some fiction, which has already been extensively used for propaganda purposes, he receives the retort direct, and both go out to the world together. Important points have already been gained, which put a thin silver lining on the cloud of gloomy forebodings that hung over the opening of the conference. Though there is danger of a break-up in the probability that discussion of reparations, recognition of Russia, the no-aggression pledge and disarmament may be attempted and forced against objections from France or Russia, dire necessity is driving the nations into Even the fanatical communists of Russia begin to talk reasonably. France has learned, from the criticism to which its delegates at Washington were subject in this country, to be careful not to set the opinion of the world against it. Germany, when confronted with the whole body of former enemy and neutral nations, may be led to see violation of treaties and financial juggling as others see them and to realize that the good opinion of the world is an asset that cannot be gained by such methods. Engle Creek Trail Dangerous PORTLAND, April 12-(To the Editor.)-Could you advise me whether or not the mountain trail to Whatum lake, that is the Eagle creek trall, is open yet this year for hikers? This trall is further identified by my saying that it is the one which leaves the highway at a real table. which will probably bear the title of the canonized saint, which she proposes to do following the closing of "Lillom" in Philadelphia.
