NEWMAN'S BOAT WAS OF GREAT VALUE TO THE FIRST-YEAR TEAM.

The spring training period, according to Coach Kelley, will continue until school is out.

SAILOR FRIEDMAN IN JAIL

Pugilist and Four Companions Implicated in Murder.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Sailor Friedman, widely known lightweight prizefighter, and four companions were placed in the county jail today in connection with the murder Sunday of Abe Rubin in a saloon shooting affair.

The five men were refused bail and must remain in their cells until April 15, when their cases will be called.

Freighter Carries Team.

Time to begin thinking about the opening game, Mayor Baker set the wheels going yesterday by officially proclaiming next Tuesday afternoon, from noon to 6 o'clock, a half holiday. The welcome to Iron Duke Kenworthy and the revamped Beaver ball club will be a civic event of note.

The mayor's proclamation will release hundreds of city employes from their duties for the afternoon so they can join in the celebration and attend the game.

Also, it opens the way for business offices to close. Several of them have announced already that they will do that, thus beating the mayor to it.

For instance, the Hart, Schaffner & Marx store not only will be closed, but also will shut up its offices for the day.

That's a civic pride for you.

The Union Pacific offices will be closed and 1500 employes turned loose for the day.

The Standard Oil office also will shut up shop for the afternoon's doings.

Those are just a few of the many sure to follow suit in view of the half-holiday proclamation.

Whether the Beavers come home in last place or out of it, they will get a welcome that ought to convince them that the city is with them and pulling for a big season.

Opening Day, as everybody ought to know, is next Tuesday. The game will start at 2:45 o'clock sharp.

Note the new hour for ball games, which will be observed here throughout the season—last year it was 3 o'clock, but this year 2:45, the time of the Howard brothers—Del and Ivan—will be the opening day in athletics at the city.

A pretty good start this season. Some folks didn't figure them as much with Hack Miller, Pinelli, Gulsto and Allen among the missing, but those players have been replaced by good men, and with the further advantage of having their home games at Oakland instead of San Francisco as in the past.

They have been making the fur fly. Looks like a scrappy ball game, but the biggest crowd held in Ivan Howard. Win, lose or draw they will make it an argument.

Parade Is Certain.

That's traditional as an opening day feature in Portland. This year, especially, the boys in charge will cut loose with an extra special effort.

Goodness knows how many organizations and personages will be invited to the parade, but there will be plenty.

The parade will get under way at 12:30 o'clock in front of the city hall.

It will proceed to the city hall, where it will be held for a while.

At the rate reservations are coming in for grandstand seats, it looks like a whooper of a crowd.

The Portland club has organized a ninety-seat circus tent for the occasion.

That's a whooper of a crowd.

The seating capacity at the ball park is approximately 15,000, and one memorable opening day many years ago.

The day is good there is a mighty good prospect that there will be 21,000 folks out to fill the 21,000 seats.

The Portland boxing commission has arranged what ought to be a pleasant little surprise for the ball players Tuesday night.

The commission will put on a boxing card that night in the armory and Duke Kenworthy and all his players will be special guests of honor.

So will Del Howard and all the Oaks. Then before the fights the members of both ball clubs will be called into the ring and special guests of honor.

Good chance to get a closeup of your favorite ball player.

VAN HEUSEN the World's Smartest COLLAR

THE difference between the VAN HEUSEN Collar and ordinary collars is not merely that one is soft and the others stiff.

THE VAN HEUSEN Collar is as stylish as it is soft, and as comfortable as it is correct.

Ordinary collars depend upon stiffness for their style, and upon crispness for their comfort.

THE VAN HEUSEN Collar tempers its style to the soft neck.

Ordinary collars have as little consideration for a neck's curves as a round hole has for a square peg.

If your dealer cannot supply you with the VAN HEUSEN Collar and the VAN CRAFT Shirt (a soft white shirt with the VAN HEUSEN Collar attached) write us for address of one that can.

Game Develops Early Into Sharp Conflict Between Rival South-paws, Reuther and Nehf.

TACOMA, Wash., April 12.—(Special.)—Jimmy Rivers, the "Dixie Panther" and "Buckhorn" Bud Fitzgerald, Tacoma lightweights, have been signed for the four-round special event of the all-star Eagles' boxing card, April 20, George T. Shanklin, promoter, announced today.

Frank Farmer, Tacoma heavy, and Big Bill Bethel of Seattle have been booked for the second main event of six rounds, and Oakland Frankie Burns, San Francisco lightweight, and Bobby Michaels, sensational New Yorker, will top the card.

Lacking in experience, Jimmy Rivers was pitted against the veteran Frank Burns in the top event of the last card, and was knocked out in one round, but the knockout did not lose Jimmy any friends among the fans, who rather sympathized with the youngster. Now Jimmy is showing the spirit to delight the hearts of the fans in signing to meet Fitzgerald on the next show and in the special four-rounder.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGUN

Fifty Men Turn Out for Tryout on Washington Campus.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, April 12.—(Special.)—Spring football practice is well under way at the University of Washington.

About 50 men are turning out every day and Coach Bagshaw is giving them workouts in line work, tackling and passing the ball.

Five varsity men and a host of this year's freshmen are giving the pre-season practice. Coach Bagshaw has said that he wants every man out who possibly can get out, and that it will be hard for him to see any who come out next fall who failed to come out or have a good reason for not coming out this spring.
