

SLAYER OF SISTER FREED

WIFE WHO SHOT HUSBAND'S AFFINITY ACQUITTED.

Jury After Half Hour of Deliberation Returns Verdict in Favor of Abandoned Woman.

FREERHOLD, N. J., April 19.—A jury of men Tuesday night acquitted Mrs. Hermina Renszelman, 31, who shot and killed her young sister, Cosine Westra, on January 15, because of alleged intimacy with her husband in their home at West Long Branch.

The trial began in the morning before Supreme Court Justice Kalisch. The jurors were chosen in three hours and at 6 o'clock, after deliberating a half-hour, they returned a verdict. Courtroom spectators applauded the verdict.

Mrs. Renszelman related on the witness stand that she had sent money to her sister in Germany last August to enable her to come to America and, on her arrival here the latter had been met by her husband and taken to their home in West Long Branch.

"For five weeks I noticed an apparent attachment between my sister and my husband," she told the jury. "On two occasions I caught my sister kissing my husband. Later he took my sister to New York, saying he had found her a position, leaving me in my lonely country home."

"My sister came down the Saturday before Christmas and remained two weeks with me. She admitted living with my husband and when he came down the last day of my sister's stay, he took my sister back with him."

"I was left alone for two months and could stand it no longer."

She then told of going to a friend in New York the Friday before the murder and telephoning her husband's place of business. They met that evening.

"I asked him where my sister was," she testified. "He said he would meet me the next day and take me to her. We went to an apartment where my husband introduced me to the lady of the house as his wife's sister."

"I upbraided my sister for living there with my husband. I asked why she didn't go to work. She said she wouldn't, but would continue to live with Fred."

"I induced my sister to accompany me home on Saturday. From that time my mind was a blank."

The sister was killed the next day.

CHARTER IS RECEIVED

Tacoma Advertising Club Becomes Full-Fledged Organization.

TACOMA, Wash., April 19.—(Special.)—The Tacoma Advertising club received its charter yesterday, after long waiting from the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, delivered in person by William P. Strandberg of Portland, Or., vice-president of the association.

"The Tacoma club ranks high as a well-balanced advertising club," asserted Vice-President Strandberg. "Don't let the big word with the advertising club thus far. It has urged 'Don't misrepresent goods in advertisements.' Now a work of equal importance to the vigilance work has been undertaken by the international organization, that of education. The Tacoma club, by its aggressive action, has taken forward place in this new work. The international association has set aside $50,000 to push the educational work."

"The educational work is the 'do' part, as the vigilance work was the 'don't.' We aim at standardizing education in advertising by all the clubs."

AGED RAILROADER QUILTS

Service of 69 Years With Burlington System Terminated.

CHICAGO, April 19.—After working on one organization continuously for 69 years, Frank Knight retired from the service of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad today at the age of 84 years.

Mr. Knight ran the first train from Chicago to Ancona and recently has been in charge of the Hawthorne yard of the company.

More than 60 other Burlington employees were retired yesterday, among them being Sheldon Ayres, known as "Shell," one of the most widely known passenger conductors in the central west. He is 86 years old.

Search Begun for Moclips Man.

MONTESANO, Wash., April 19.—(Special.)—A statewide search has been instituted for Joe H. Walker of Moclips, who has been missing from his home since April 4. On that date he went to Tacoma and received from the claim agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad company a draft for $125. The claim agent went to the bank with Mr. Walker and indorsed the draft for collection. Mr. Walker said he intended to return to Moclips on the night train. One theory is that he has gone north with the cod fishing fleet, as he followed this occupation seven years. He is described as six feet tall, heavy set, and having black curly hair and a slight limp.

Portlander Gets Marriage Permit.

TACOMA, Wash., April 19.—(Special.)—Joe Gray, Portland, Or., and Winifred McCuen, San Francisco, have been granted a marriage license in Tacoma.
