FIRE CHIEF YOUNG

Charges Will Be Aired in Council Chambers.

WITNESSES CALLED

Later Investigation Expected to Weed Out Trouble Makers and Strengthen Discipline.

Attention Centers on Bureau

While the hearing will be before City Commissioner Bigolow, all other members of the council will attend to gain first-hand knowledge of conditions in the fire department.

It is freely predicted that regardless of the outcome of the hearing the charges are but the preliminary to a general investigation of the entire department to be carried on to weed out the trouble-makers and to bring about discipline once more in the ranks of the department.

DOUBLE-HEAD feature bilis selformed for the hearing of charges which have been filed against John E. Toung, chief of the Portland fire department, which is scheduled to open in the city council chambers at 3:20 o'clock this morning.

The charges were first filed by C. C. Brown, an apartment house manager, who shortly after filing the charges repudiated them as untrue, and in a public statement named A. L. Pullen and Frank J. McFarland two inspectors of the fire marshal's office, as the men who induced him to sign and file the charges.

As soon as Mr. Brown withdrew from the case inspector Pullen reflied the charges and the hearing was set. The charges include alleged intoxication while on duty, disorderly and immeral conduct and general insefficiency.

Due to the general knowledge that members of the fire marshal's office have been active for months in an effort to oust Fire Chief Young, the attention of the public is turned to this bureau, as well as to the charges brought against Chief Young.

Demand has been made for thorough hearing to show the condition of the fire bureau, and the cause for the dissension which is crippling the entire bureau.
