CLUB DINNER ANNOUNCED.—Interesting features have been provided for the programme at the monthly dinner of the East Side Business Men's club next Thursday evening at the club rooms, 11 1/2 Grand avenue. Women of the Central Presbyterian church will serve dinner at 6:30 o'clock and club members are invited to bring their wives. John M. Jones, Portland postmaster, will speak on 'Mail Early and Often' and will tell how to expedite mail deliveries. George W.

ODDFELLOWS TO CELEBRATE.—Extensive preparations are being made by the Oddfellows of Villa lodge at Mon-tavilla, and the Rebekahs, for the public celebration tomorrow night of the completion of the new Oddfellows' building at East Eighteenth and East Chisham streets. It is expected that delegations from many of the Oddfellow organizations of Portland will be present. The arrangements are in charge of the Villa Entertainment club, of which E. P. Mertz is the chairman. Sunshine circle of the Rebekahs will serve a supper. There will be a musical programme, dancing and cards until midnight.

TRAILS CLUB TO HIRE.—The Trails club will leave the union station at 7:15 A. M. Sunday, buying round-trip tickets to Multnomah Falls and determining at Bridal Veil. The members will hike up Angel's Rest trail to Palmer road, making a side trip to Devil's rest, and continuing on to Multnomah basin. Descent to Multi-nomah falls will be made by way of Larch or Waukeena trails, according to time. This is not a hard trip and no winter gear need be taken, although plenty of snow will be seen.
The distance is from eight to nine miles.

PORTLANDER KILLED IN SOUTH.— Lewis A. Grite, ex-Portland man, was killed at Los Angeles Wednesday night when struck by a Santa Fe train, according to word received here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George 1523 Alameda drive. The parents left for Los Angeles yesterday. He was 33 years old and had lived here since 1914, having come to Portland from Idaho. At the time of the fatal accident he was employed as an engineer for the Standard Oil company.
He served in the recent war with an engineering regiment.

SEWER COST CALCULATED.—The total cost of the East Seventeenth street and East Irving street sewer system is $244,300, and the cost of the sewer in front of East Thirtieth street is $440,400, according to notification given yesterday to property owners in the respective assessment districts.

BURGLAR ALARM INSTALLED.—Work has just been completed on the installation of a complete burglar alarm system in the Milwaukee State bank, the Ankin system being used.
The old walls of the bank vault were torn out and steel walls erected, with interwall carrying the wires that give the alarm, when there is the slightest tampering with any portion of the structure.

IN PORTLAND.—Military Order of the Serpent meeting postponed from Friday night to Saturday night, April 27, room 376 courthouse. Signed, Jose

LUMBER ORDERS GROW
NEW BUSINESS AT HIGHEST
TIDE OF YEAR.
West Coast Association Reports Output for Week Only Four Per Cent Below Normal.

Continued improvement in the lumber industry of the northwest in the past week is shown by the report of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, issued yesterday. During the week new business was 22 per cent above production, reaching the highest tide of the year. Production was only 4 per cent below normal and shipments were 11 per cent below new business.

Butte Falls Road to Be Improved.
MIDFORD, Or., April 20.—(Special).— The county commissioners have decided to spend $50,000 of the county market road fund on the Butte Falls road and will advertise for bids soon. The commissioners will grade and macadamize the road and expect the $50,000 will be sufficient to complete the road from Butte Falls to the top of Rocky hill, about four miles, and from the Crater Lake highway to the junction of Crater road and the Butte Falls road, about seven miles. Tomorrow the federal road department at Portland will open bids probably for grading and macadamizing the Crater Lake road from Trail to Prospect and may let the contract then.

REED PLAY IS TONIGHT
'Milestones' Said to Be Most Pretentious Effort This Year.
With the final dress rehearsal held last night, the Reed college drama club is ready to present 'Milestones,' by Arnold Bennett, in the college chapel at 8 o'clock tonight. The play is the most pretentious to be given by the club this season and is in three acts, each act representing a different period in the history of England in the past 50 years.
The most important characters are:
Opal Weimar, William Scott, Howard Smyth, Margaret Westgate, Margaret

WOULD YOU BE CONVINCED?
—beyond the shadow of a doubt; that I cure piles and other rectal conditions without an operation, if I furnished you with the names and addresses of scores of prominent men and women of Oregon and the Northwest that I have absolutely cured of long-standing cases of Piles and other Rectal conditions?
My methods are painless—do not confine you to bed; do not require an anesthetic and are permanent.
I eliminate all doubt as to results by agreeing to refund your fee, if I fail to cure your piles.
