

ALLEGED VENDORS OF NARCOTICS HELD

Man and Woman Bound Over to U. S. Grand Jury.

BIG DEALS SUSPECTED

Police Say Pair Operated for Year and Half, Introducing Unusual Drug to Portland.

Hans Larson, alias H. Price, alias C. Olson, and a woman known at different times as Mrs. Hans Larson, May Gibson, Ethel Price or Evelyn Olson, were bound over to the federal grand jury yesterday afternoon for violation of the Harrison act, following a preliminary hearing before District Judge Martin Hawkins, acting United States commissioner.

Expressing himself as astounded at the activities of the pair, as outlined in testimony produced by Austin E. legal deputy United States attorney, Judge Hawkins refused to allow a preliminary hearing, which remained at $5000 for Larson and $1000 for the woman.

In a safe deposit box in the vaults of the Union Safe Deposit & Trust company Larson had narcotics having a retail value of $35,000, when arrested March 29 by Patrolmen Eurdick and Shafer and federal operatives. The woman attempted to destroy some drugs in her possession by throwing them into a sink and turning on the water after she was arrested, but some of the narcotics were rescued, according to the officers.

Drugs Found in Vault.
The pair have been operating the Madison rooming house, Front and Madison streets, for the past year and a half, and were suspected of having carried on one of the largest and most profitable businesses in illicit drugs in the city. Records of visits show that Larson went to his safe deposit box almost every day, and when it was opened it was crammed full of drugs—heroin, cocaine and morphine.

Both declared that they did not use the "dope" themselves.

Such a tremendous business apparently was operated by them that investigators found that instead of makeshift "blinds" or colored wrappers, cut out of scrap paper, special paper had been ordered and machine cut for the purpose, the colors differentiating the kinds of drugs sold, according to testimony produced.

Woman Takes Stand.
Though the woman took the stand to deny that she had any part in drug peddling or that she had attempted to destroy the drugs, she was taken into custody, Larson did not testify in his own defense.

With the arrest of the couple, the first seizure of heroin in the city of Portland in more than two years was made, said Deputy United States Attorney Ege.

"We have been fortunate in having but few heroin addicts in this city," he said. "For the drug is more deadly and body-wrecking in its effects than either cocaine or morphine, and possibly the two combined. There has not been much market for it and we had made no seizure in a long while."

There were 5000 tablets of heroin confiscated, each of which sold for $1. The morphine and cocaine were in original packages and were imported to this country from Holland and Belgium. There was no indication as to the place of manufacture of the heroin, but operatives believed that it was compounded in America.

NEW VENIRE IS DRAWN

Time of Jury Service Split in Half for Farm Work Season.

A new venire of jurymen for the United States district court was drawn yesterday, containing 60 names. It is customary during the spring and summer seasons when farm work is urgent to cut jury service to half the usual time and that is being done in this instance. The jurors are to report on May 2.

These Portland men were drawn for service: William J. Hawkins, Forrest C. Haworth, Henry Henderson, Arthur K. Hill, Walter Hinman, Alfred W. Horn, Lee P. Hoskins, George H. Howell, Joseph W. Howell, W. R. Kaser, Harry O. Long, Lee R. Marvin, Hugh B. Maxwell, McKinley Mitchell, Thomas C. Niner, Charles S. Palmer, Joseph P. Parker, John M. Payne, Arthur E. Peake, Sidney C. Rasmussen, Charles Ringler, Donald H. Rowe, Edward C. Sammons, Charles Sand, Thomas E. Satterwhite, Robert A. Sawyer, Claude L. Scoffins and Jessie R. Sharp.

FLOWER PICKERS JAILED

University of California Students Take Posies for Best Girls.

BERKELEY, Cal., April 20.—Because their springtime fancy lightly turned to thoughts of "Irish" flowers for their respective best girls, so it was alleged, Stanley Westcott and Glenn C. Robinson, students of the University of California, were under arrest today.

They were tripping along with said girls, so the story goes, when they saw the flowers. It was no trick at all to snap them off, but an amromantic policeman hove into sight.

Chamness, Miss Morrow and Mrs. Klatt, fainted in rapid succession after the police arrived and had to be carried out and revived.

Mrs. Chamness said that after she was married her husband refused to work, and lived over his father's grocery store at Third and Jefferson streets, helping in the store occasionally but idling away most of his time. He never came home before 2 o'clock in the morning and when she coaxed him to brace up he would abuse her, beat her and taunt her with lies about the girl he left in Liverpool, she said.

After she left him, she said he had finally found a job with the Eastern-Western Lumber company and had been working up to the time he ended his life.

Heilig.

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

A SUPERIOR musical production is "Irene," and on this, its second visit to us, it brings a cast whose personnel is even more distinguished than its initial presentation out here. Possibly it is the music—that and Patti Harrold—that is "Irene's" chief charm. The ingeniousness of orchestration, the wealth of melody and the lulling charm of the music in this production has not been surpassed in any similar piece of recent years. Tierney displays a variety of mood, a humorous understanding of tonal effects, and gaiety, color and imagination commensurate with his melodies.

There are occasional sentimental duets and there are deep choruses of swinging joyful refrains, there is syncope and plenty and one or two pretentious themes. Out of them all fingers "Irene, You Are a Little Bunch of Sweetness" and "My Alice Blue Gown" for sheer lovely melodies and their haunting quality. To hear these alone and to see the gay little dances that illustrate them is worth a trip to the Heilig.

Henry Coote received an ovation upon his entrance and was in splendid voice. He has two duets with Irene and a solo which he did so effectively that he was recalled.

Teddy McNamara, remembered from the Heilig Lisipitan Opera company, brings a wealth of comedy to the role of "Madame Lucy," the man whose wife plots to murder him. "Madame Lucy" at moments when his most exquisite creations stretched to its bursting seams over the ample figure of Irene's mother, the last woman in the world who should have attempted to struggle into it. McNamara's pantomime is amusing and his dance steps, particularly bits of travesty on esthetic dancing, bring shrieks of delight.

Low Ripley, the mother of Irene contributes, with McNamara, what- ever comedy there is in the piece, that is, apart from Irene's delightful comedy when she is a shop girl.

Miss Ripley's brogue, and her characterization of the old Irish woman who waited for Irene at night, and dropped in at the ball to take her daughter home, was one of the great moments in the evening.

A delightful singing staff has been assembled in this company, and it is costumed and staged up to every mark of splendor. The orchestra, too, is a straggled one minus a pianist, is a revelation and a constant joy.

Ship Board Hearing Friday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—Hearings on section 28 of the merchant marine act of 1920, permitting railroads to make preferential rates with American ships at seaports of the United States to and from foreign ports, will open in Boston next Friday, the shipping board announced yesterday.

Increases the action of the intestines

Hundreds of men and women have already found freedom from laxatives by eating Fleischmann's fresh yeast.

Doctors are now agreed that proper elimination of waste matter should be brought about by food. One doctor comes right out and states plainly that the indiscriminate use of cathartics is one of the causes of constipation.

Physicians all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast because it is a fresh food, rich in those elements which keep the intestines healthy. In one series of tested cases, normal functions were restored in from 3 days to 3 weeks.

Try it out for yourself. Begin today by adding 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your everyday diet. Keep it up and see how normally and regularly your intestines act. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

STATE ROAD BOARD SETS TRUCK HEARING

Evidence Wanted at Session of May 10.

ALL INTERESTED INVITED

Highway Commission to Formulate Definite Policy Regarding Use of Highways.

Everyone interested in the operation of trucks and other heavy vehicles on the highways is invited to attend a hearing to be held by the state highway commission May 10 at 2 P. M. There are so many angles to be considered before the commission adopts a policy on this subject that Commissioners Booth, Yeon and Barratt want the views of all concerned.

Macadam Different Problem.

On macadam roads, which can be maintained easily, some arrangement may be made by which logs can be hauled, for instance the white cedar logs of Curry county, which must move to Port Orford or Bandon over the coast highway, the only road which serves that section. A bond may be required of loggers requiring them to pay for damage above the normal cost of maintenance.

As the commission is running against a snag in the matter of grade separations at Salem, Albany and Eugene, the highway body yesterday held a conference with representatives of railroads to see what can be done about a danger signal system where there are no overhead or underground crossings. This matter of warning signals consumed the major part of the session yesterday afternoon.

Wallowa Request Up.

The request of Wallowa county for improvement of the highway between Lostine and Enterprise; the request of Deschutes county for surfacing the grade between Cline Falls and Redmond, and the request of Jefferson county for further construction of the Dallas-California highway in that county, have been postponed until after contract awards have been made at the May meeting. When the awards are made the commission will know how the financial balance is and their attitude toward these requests will be governed accordingly.

Boundaries of the Lebanon-Cascadia road district were approved by the commission, as provided by law, and this proposed highway improvement district will next be submitted to the voters of the district. The plan, if the voters favor the project, will provide funds for co-operation in constructing the highway from Albany through to Cascade, with the ultimate intention of crossing the mountains to eastern Oregon.

Drain Routing Final.

No change in location of the Pacific highway will be made through the town of Drain, it was decided yesterday. The location is along B street to Cedar, which runs toward the hill to the south on a tangent. A new bridge will be constructed on Cedar street. There was some talk of making a location cutting across from the head of B street through the only campgrounds that Drain has and bridging Elk creek. The tentative location, on close study, was discarded.

Immediately after the May meeting the commission will begin work on

Many of the returns so far received, indicate a general inclination to overlook the diagram in the upper right corner of the Map, where out-of-town shareholders are represented by dots surrounding three circles labeled "State of Washington," "Oregon Outside of Portland" and "State of California."

These dots do not show on the small map used in our advertisements plain enough to count. In view of this and the fact that it has been ruled as an excusable oversight, those who have made entries up to and including this date, April 21, are extended the privilege of making another entry.

All are therefore advised to take advantage of the large map, 7x7 1/2 inches, in counting the dots, a copy of which map may be secured FREE upon request by phone, mail or in person at this office.
