Appeal Made by Dr. Anderson That "Besetting" Sin Be Given Up and Clean Lives Lived.

Fully 1500 men gathered at th united gospel crusade tabernacie yes-terday afternoon to hear Dr. George Wood Anderson deliver a sermon against sin in the human life. The men gave a rising vote for another men's meeting next Sunday afternoon.

From the beginning the men entered into the spirit of the service in much better fashion than the mixed audiences have done. Dr. Anderson also held the attention of his aud ience at all times. Many men went forward to thank him at the close of the meeting.

of the meeting.

Dr. Anderson appealed to the mento give up their "besetting sin," and to live clean lives.

"Now don't look plous about it. Before I get through preaching this afternoon I'm going to hit every one of you," he said.

The crusader in his talk touched in a general way a large number of the temptations and difficulties which a man meets in his journey from the a man meets in his journey from the cradle to the grave. He particularly attacked cigarette smoking, dishonesty and deception in the business world, dissipation, impure pictures and thoughts and the use of narcotic drugs.

The crusader's topic was "Serpent Eggs." During the sermon he compared sin to snake eggs, which a man might carry in his bosom and warm until they hatched, after which the serpents might drive their fangs into him and kill him.

"It is not necessary for a man to walk through the desert of sin spend-ing his time and energy gathering snake eggs." said the crusader in closing. "God has crowded this world too full of beautiful things for a mar to live amid the blistering sands of sorrow and remorse, with no com-panions save that which would uterly destroy. God's ways are ways f pleasantness and all his paths are peace. No agony of remorse, no rav-ings of delirium, no bitterness of despair, for the God who created you
