

BRILLIANT CONCERT IS SENT BROADCAST

Large Radio Audience Hears The Oregonian Artists.

FINE PROGRAMME GIVEN

May Dearborn Schwab, Erwyn Mutch and Ralph W. Hoyt Participate in Delightful Musicale.

One of the largest radio audiences ever assembled in the Pacific northwest, gathered around practically every receiving set known to be working in Oregon...

Applause flowed into the Oregonian office and to the artists from many stations during the concert and for an hour afterward.

High Lights of Programme. Mrs. Schwab's renditions of "Where My Caravan Has Rested" and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia"...

Selections Are Popular. Her selections were "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," "By the Waters of Minnesota," "The Morning Wind," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia"...

Organ Follows Mr. Mutch. The other selections sung by Mr. Mutch, who is head of the vocal department of the Ellison-White conservatory of music and formerly a singer of high note in the east, were "For You Alone," "Lindy Love," "Victrola," "Thank God for a Garden," and "Nobody Knows the Trouble I See."

Concert Heard Many Miles. By long distance telephone it was ascertained immediately after the concert that the concert was heard many miles.

Orchestra Next Attraction. The next regular broadcast from The Oregonian tower will be tomorrow night between 8 and 9 o'clock when the popular Portland hotel orchestra, directed and managed by George Olsen, will give another concert of popular dance music.

Another large audience was at Vancouver barracks, where a large hall was completely filled with soldiers, a troop of Boy Scouts and many citizens of the town.
