RELAY EVENTS SATURDAY

175 EXPECTED TO COMPETE AT SEATTLE.

11 Colleges and Universities Down for Carnival on Washington Campus Track.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, April 27.—(Special).—More than 175 athletes will compete in the annual relay carnival at the University of Washington Saturday, making it the largest track event in the history of the Pacific coast.

Coach Edmundson has selected all entrants but those for the 100-yard dash, and it is fairly certain that Vic Hurley will be his man for that. Casey Anderson has been named for the 200-yard second in practice; and he and Hurley took first and second last year.

The Washington team, as chosen to date in the carnival last year, Snook is the Aggie luminary in the sprints and made Hurley extend himself to the limit to win in the century.

Coach Edmundson regards Oregon Agricultural college as his most formidable competitor. Coach Butler will have eight men at the meet who ran in the carnival last year.

ALBANY BEATS WILLAMETTE Score is 9 to 4 in College Baseball Game.

ALBANY COLLEGE, Albany, Or., April 27.—(Special).—The Albany college baseball team defeated Willamette university, 9 to 4, in a game played on the Albany campus yesterday afternoon.

A moment later Wilkinson stroked the bases when he hit to center field eluded the fielder. Bevin, who pitched the first six innings for Albany, struck out nine men, and Delaunay, who followed, fanned four in three innings.

Moving Picture News

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES. Columbia—Agnes Ayres, Jack Holt, "Dough and Eddy" Fort, Majestic—Priscilla Dean, "Wild Honey."

GLORIA SWANSON in "Under the Lash" is the current attraction at the Star theater. The picture is interesting, and it is one of the best that this capable star has done.

In "Under the Lash" Miss Swanson is seen as "the beautiful Sculiamite," with the scenes laid in the great South African veldt. There is a captivating story, with a love opposition that provides a succession of highly dramatic and emotional situations.

Madison Hamilton, popular young leading man, who has been seen in support of many famous stars, plays opposite Miss Swanson in "Under the Lash." He will be recalled in such pictures as "The Danger Mark" and "Daddy Longlegs."

Screen Gossip. Clarence Burton—whose fate it is in the pictures to be nasty mean to everything from canaries to grandmas—will next do a Swedish villain. Clarence has nearly exhausted the villainous possibilities of all races.

Agnes Ayres has started work at the Lasky studio on her new Paramount picture by Beulah Merrell, "Borderland" is the title and Paul Powell is directing.

Dorothy Dalton, who has been spending a short vacation in New York, has returned to the coast, and will begin work soon in "The Siren Call," which Irvin Willat will produce for Paramount.
