MISS LU CALLAHAN WHO LEFT FOR MINNEAPOLIS AFTER VISITING HERE.

Waverley Country Club housed a fashionable assemblage yesterday when Mrs. A. S. Kerry received in honor of two interesting and charming visitors, Mrs. Langdon C. Henry and Mrs. Lawrence Bogle of Seattle. Between the hours of 4 and 6 a large number of society maids and matrons called to meet the complimented guests. As it was May day Mrs. Kerry had arranged for the festive message of the season to be depicted by garlands of flowers about the rooms and miniature May poles that centered the tables.

Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Bogle will give the programme at the Waverley country club this afternoon in the ballroom of the Multnomah hotel. The Macdowell club members and their invited guests are anticipating the festive gathering.

Those who presided at the tea tables yesterday were Mrs. James D. Hart, Mrs. L. C. Gilman of Seattle, Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt, Mrs. William Maguire, Mrs. Edward H. Geary, Mrs. Norman Rupp, Mrs. Reade Treland, Mrs. Logan Geary, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. George McPherson, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. E. C. Sheelin, Mrs. Charles H. Carey, Mrs. James McIndoe, Mrs. Arnold S. Rothwell, and assisting were Mrs. David Honer, Mrs. John Kollock, Mrs. Harry Hemmingshouse, Mrs. C. E. Swigert, Mrs. Donald Hemmingshouse and Miss Olive Kerry. The husbands of the matrons who assisted were guests during the tea. Mrs. Kerry will give a second tea tomorrow afternoon in the Mallory hotel. Mrs. Kerry is well known as a composer and is popular socially and Portland friends are regretting that she soon will leave the city to make her home in Seattle. Mrs. Henry is a member of a prominent family and frequently is hostess at charming social and musical affairs in the second city. While the gifted visitors are not professional musicians their talents have brought them recognition and their work is of high artistic merit and in addition they possess interesting personalities.

Prominent Albany residents were guests in Portland for the week end. Mrs. Charles F. Stewart was hostess for the group including Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Rockey Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cusick. On Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain gave a dinner party for the visitors and later were their hosts at the Irvington club formal Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were hosts at a dinner party. An afternoon affair was a luncheon at the University club.

Dr. J. E. Pederson of Seattle and his brother, Charles Pederson, motored to Portland for the week-end. With Dr. Pederson's fiancée, Miss Marie Johnston, they were entertained on Saturday at a dinner party given at Forest hall by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gieseker. Miss Lura Tamonic entertained at a supper dance in her home in Laurelhurst, honoring Miss Johnston and Dr. Pederson. Dr. Ralph Hanstrom, also of Seattle, returned yesterday with Dr. Pederson and his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. David Eccles have moved to Waverley Country club until July 1, when they will take the John Latta home at Waverley Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Noland Zane were hosts at an informal tea on Sunday in their home in East Broadway.

Mrs. Marcus Flescher and Mrs. Henry William Metzger are at Seaside for the week.

Mrs. George F. Heuser and Miss Florence Holmes, accompanied by the four little children of Ralph Knight, arrived last night from San Diego. Mrs. Mary H. Knight, mother of the children, died last week in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koshland are being congratulated on the arrival of a son, born on April 21. The baby will be named Robert Marcus Koshland. His mother was Delphine Rosenfeld, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenfeld.

Women's Activities

The Council of Jewish Women will hold its annual meeting tomorrow at 2 o'clock at the B'nai B'rith building. Officers, excepting president and vice-president, will be elected and reports of standing committees will be read. Following the business session a social hour will be enjoyed with the members of the board as hostesses.

The Woman's guild of St. David's parish will meet in the parish house Thursday at 2 o'clock. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. J. N. Graham, Mrs. A. L. DuPar, Mrs. J. G. Fox, Mrs. Jack Gibson and Mrs. P. P. Stauffer.

The Ladies Aid and Missionary Society of the Waverley Heights congregational church will hold an all-day meeting tomorrow at the church, Thirty-third street and Woodward avenue. The women will sew and do mending for the Waverley Baby home. Luncheon will be served at noon. Musical and the business meeting will follow.

An interesting event of the week will be the dancing and card party to be given by the Catholic Women's league on Friday at the Joan d'Arc home, Fourteenth street, near Jefferson.

PI Beta Phi alumnae will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in room C library for a business session.

The National League of Women Voters (Oregon branch) has invited candidates for nomination at the forthcoming primary election to address them at their open forum Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock at central library hall. Those invited to speak are C. W. McArthur, Elton Watkins, P. B. Layman, for public service commissioner; Judge W. N. Gaten, James N. Davis, J. M. Hart, Fred L. Olsen, Lewis P. Hewitt and H. M. Tomlinson, candidates for circuit judge, department No. 5. The meeting will be open to the public.

The May luncheon of the Woman's auxiliary of the Teachers' Protective association will be held Thursday at the Seward hotel at 12 o'clock. Mrs. F. W. Swanton of the Oregon Home society will speak. Mrs. Isabel Stewart will give vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Ruth Agnew. Mrs. Edgar Stevens is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Leon S. Morrison.

The Woman's guild of the Good Shepherd Episcopal church will hold an apron sale and dinner tomorrow in the parish hall. Tea will be served during the afternoon and dinner will be served from 5:30 to 8 P. M. at 50 cents a plate. A musical programme will be given during the evening. Take Williams-avenue car to Graham avenue, walk one block west.

The annual meeting of the Unitarian Alliance will be held tomorrow at 2 P. M. in the church parlors. Election of officers and reports from Kenton club will entertain Wednesday evening with a dance at the clubhouse.

The spirit of May day that prompts the Fruit and Flower mission to carry gifts and good cheer to the Multnomah farm every year, will dominate the members today and they will meet at 1 o'clock at the Day Nursery, 4th Madison street, where they will motor to the county farm, taking in the machines a number of gifts, including magazines, books, flowers, fruit and other articles. An attractive programme will be given for the pleasure of the residents of the farm. Mrs. Ernest C. Willard is president of the mission. Several prominent women are members of the board.

Mrs. George Perkins Baxter of Berkeley sailed on Saturday from New York with her niece, Miss Helen Holman, and Mrs. Harry Durbrow of San Francisco for a trip abroad. They will be gone six or eight months. Mrs. Baxter has been residing in the Oakland hotel recently. She is a social favorite here and her trip will interest her many friends here.

Mrs. Joseph D. Sternberg, Mrs. Belle Oppenheimer and Mrs. Clara Kaufman will entertain next Monday at a bridge luncheon at the Benson hotel.

Miss Maude E. Scott has come from Chicago to be with her aunt, Mrs. T. C. Taylor, who is ill.

Mrs. J. Coulson Hare, assisted by Mrs. John Hamilton and Mrs. Fred Miller, will entertain this evening with ten tables of bridge at Mrs. Hare's residence. The officers of Corinthian chapter and their husbands will make up the guest list.

Miss Louise Poulson is in Pendleton, where she is the guest of Mrs. Dan Smythe.

The fourth book, profusely illustrated with views of rose-bowered Portland homes in June, festival floats and Columbia river highway scenes, contains a special invitation to Mrs. Harding from the women of Oregon.

To speed Eric V. Hauser, president of the Rose Festival board, on his way to Washington with the official invitation which he personally will present to President and Mrs. Harding to attend the big event of June 7, 8 and 9, Mayor Baker and all members of the city council, together with a full representation of the Rose Festival board, city and county school directors and at least two score Royal Rosarians in their white uniforms will assemble at the union station at 2:30 this morning. The official invitation, which Mr. Hauser will present at the White House next Monday, will be turned over to Mr. Hauser with appropriate ceremonies, and a battery of moving-picture cameras will be on hand to film the event.

“Oh, Elsie, you were simply radiant last night at the dance. I never in my life saw you look so well. That new white party gown is a whiz. The most people mentioned you. You were a regular butterfly. Now what are you going to give me for all that nice speech? I hope I haven't made you conceited.”

“No chance, old dear. I know I looked better than usual. But just to reward you for telling me the nice things, I am going to give you some news. Jack proposed to me last night and we are all engaged and everything. Married in June. Whoop la!”

“Why, you old dear! Jack is a wonder and should make a perfect husband. I'm awfully glad for you, dear. Best wishes ever.”

“Oh, thank you, but you know, Bess, that new party gown had a lot to do with it. I know. I have been going like a frump for ages and didn't think I could afford a new dress. Jack raved all evening how well I looked. Just think, I got that dress at Cherry's for a mere song and all this happiness is the result. I paid a small sum down and finish on monthly payments. Manage this sweetly one to make such convenient arrangements for payment.”
