

SENATORS ARE MUM ON U. S. ATTORNEY

Choice of Successor for Mr. Humphreys Undecided.

ASPIRANTS HAVE 120 DAYS

Selection of New Man for Job May Be Made at Once or Deferred Until Next Fall.

With Lester W. Humphreys preparing to leave the office of United States attorney September 1, there are four months in which Senators McNary and Stanford will be bombarded with applications, petitions and protests for this, that and the other aspirant. From the best available sources of information it was said that the senators had not agreed on anyone to fill the impending vacancy.

Contenders Are Recalled.

Principal contenders a year ago, when the Oregon delegation was considering federal appointments, were George Neuman Jr., district attorney for Douglas county, and P. J. Gallagher, who has served several terms in the legislature as representative from Malheur and Harney counties. Joseph favored Neuman and that Senator Stanford was inclined toward Gallagher. The senators themselves said nothing, at least publicly, to confirm or deny this gossip.

Job Is Declined.

Senator Banks declined to have his name submitted to Senator McNary, explaining that while he is willing to serve in the legislature he has no political desires aside from that.

Walter L. Toomey Jr. had his eye on the appointment early in the game, but since then was given a commission for special work for the department by Attorney General Daugherty, a personal friend of Toomey. Whether Toomey will renew his request for the position of United States attorney is not known.

Among those who made an early application was George Leonard, member of the 1921 session of the legislature.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES.

Columbia—"In Matrimony a Failure" with Mae Murray, "Fascination." Orphans of the Storm. Majestic—Dorothy Dalton, "The Crimson Challenge." Rivoli—Wanda Hawley, "The Blue Mouse—House Peters, "The Man From Lost River." Hippodrome—"The Glorious Fool." Circles—Marie Prevost, "A Dangerous Little Demon."

destroyers are rare, but there is one of the 12-cylinder variety at the Columbia this week. "In Matrimony a Failure" may not conclusively answer that ragged question, but it does answer the question as to what really constitutes an original, snappy comedy that meritoriously prances through five reels of uproariously funny situations. Every title that was flashed was productive of laughter.

And the excellent comedy material was not entrusted to one individual. Tully Marshall can always be depended upon to register a big, then playing co-equally with him were Roy Barnes and Walter Hiers, two other noted funmakers of the film. The screening of alleged domestic bickerings at home, with rolling pins, frying pans and other little delicate instruments of sure-fire destruction to wedded bliss in evidence, and then the hypocritical sweetness of the "hooked pair" out in society, may put a temporary damper on the fun at the marriage license office, but the Columbia audience received it with a hearty laugh. It is a fifty-fifty proposition. One time the big laugh would come from the women; then the men would have their inning.

Find one if you can. It is built for laughing purposes only and it succeeds most hilariously. But it is not a bunch of husbands, who were led by a mistake to believe that they were legally married at all, and left home joyously to enjoy their freedom after years of married life—well that much looked-for freedom did not measure up to the idealization of it, and they were all willing to sneak back to the old battlefield, happy ever after. Not a bit of it! The picture is consistent. The scrappings begin all over again and just as the picture is about to begin the beginning. Even the old cop who "left the auld woman for better or worse" is seen cautiously practicing the home secret; and T. Roy Barnes, who is trouserless practically all through the picture, and who finally recovers them at the final hands them to his bride with the remark: "You might just as well take the pants. You'll wear them anyway."

Screen Gossip.

John Gilbert, who will be seen next season in the big special production, "Monte Cristo," is now appearing in "Arabian Love," a recent Fox release, booked for next week at the Blue Mouse. It is probable that Gilbert will appear in another big desert picture this year.

"Lady Fair"

the film version of Rex Beach's well-known novel, "The Net," will be next week's attraction at the Majestic theater. Betty Blythe plays the leading feminine role, "Lady Fair" is a story of the operations of a bandit society in Sicily and America.

Many movie fans wonder how Bill Hart ever came to marry. He was always notoriously shy of women. Even on locations he kept with the men.

Wally Reid is a saxophone hound. He lives in a beautiful house in Beverly Hills, Cal. But the neighbors do not complain.

Walter Hiers, whose increasing bulk is very much in evidence in recent releases, is in reality just as democratic as he appears on the screen. Jack Holt is another likable, democratic character. Jack's walk might lead one to believe that he was "a mean job," but it's only the walk.

Unlike "Foolish Wives,"

Eric von Stroheim's next production, soon to be filmed at Universal, will be completed in three or four months and held down in footage to super-feature length. Maude George, Dale Fuller and Casare Graving, who appeared in "Foolish Wives," will have important parts in the new play, which will give Mar. Philbin her big chance.

The American Legion auxiliary will entertain a community dance at the hotel Friday night, May 5. This will be the last dance of the season. A large attendance is expected.

Members of chapter C of the P. E. O. sisterhood will hold their regular meeting Friday, May 5, at the home of Mrs. J. N. Harney, 918 South Duane street. Luncheon will be served at 2 o'clock and the hostesses will be assisted by Mrs. W. W. Rogers and Mrs. W. H. Seliz. A food sale will occupy the afternoon.

Outstanding features of the meeting of the women's association of the hotel, Portland, Friday night, May 5, will be an informal talk by Dr. McElwee at 12:30 o'clock, followed by the birthday luncheon at 12:30. The business session will begin promptly at 3 o'clock and plans will be completed for a May-day party to be given the last Wednesday of this month. Also reports of the committee who are to be in charge of the banquet planned for the near future will be read.

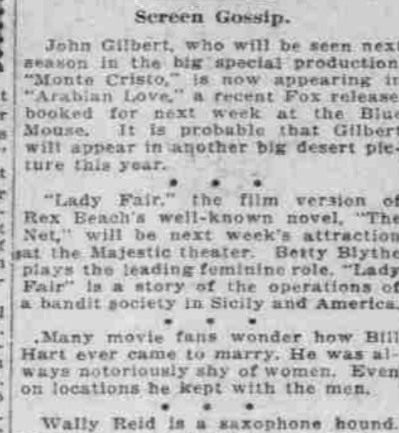

All members are urged to attend the annual meeting of the Council of Jewish Women to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the B'nai B'rith building. Reports of standing committees will be read and some new officers are to be elected. A social hour will follow and members of the board will act as hostesses.

WOMEN JURORS ARE FIRM

Courtesy of Court Declined When Judge Would Excuse Panel.

Five women drawn on a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Evans yesterday refused to accept a courtesy extended them because of their sex and decided to perform their full duty as jurors by remaining on the panel in a case in which testimony of indecent character was certain to be given.

"Indications are that this case will develop testimony of a more or less obscene character, and should the women on the jury wish to be excused from attendance the court will be glad to accommodate them," announced Judge Evans.

The five jurors looked from one to another with the determination to stick and perform their full duty as citizens drawn for jury service.

The case was that of Olga Rutenberg against Dr. William C. Thompson, in which the woman seeks damages of $10,000 for alleged betrayal.

Womens Activities

SEVERAL prominent women who are members of the Portland Fruit and Flower mission enjoyed an outing yesterday while they took sunshine and happiness to the beneficiaries of the Multnomah county farm. This was the annual May-day pilgrimage to the farm. The 400 beneficiaries received beautiful flowers, choice fruits, magazines and cards, cakes and candies with sincere appreciation and greatly enjoyed the programme. Mrs. E. C. Willard has general charge of arrangements. She was assisted by the committee including Mrs. Loyal R. Stevens, Mrs. Frederick Nithey, Mrs. E. R. Lassel, Mrs. Allen Noyes, Mrs. F. E. Grigsby, Mrs. O. B. Stubbs and Miss Louise Bickel. The programme included songs by Miss Frances Rummel of the Yalair studio; accompanist, Elsie Wank; reading, Georgianna Koder; violin solo, Elsie Uhlen of the Bacon studio, accompanied by Dorothea Schoep; dance, Mary Agnes Grigsby, Roscoe Nelson Jr., accompanied by Miss Doris Clark.

Many of the gifts were donated by friends of the society. A factor of inspiration was the donation of choice roses by a leading florist.
