

JOHN M. MACGREGOR
WINNER AT OREGON

Portlander Elected Student
President at University.

CONTEST FOR PLACE HOT

Kenneth Youel Seems Sure to Be
New Editor of Oregon
Daily Emerald.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene,

OF, May 10.—(Special.)—John M. Macgregor of Portland, a major in business administration, was elected president of the Associated Students of the University of Oregon, at the annual students elections held today. Final count on the election was not completed at late hour last night but Macgregor had a substantial lead over his two opponents, Charles Lamb of Tillamook, and George King of Salem, who probably will finish in the order named. With more than two-thirds of the votes counted, Macgregor had 693 votes, Lamb 276, and King 145.

Kenneth Youel of Silverton was elected editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald by a substantial margin, leading a big lead throughout the balloting over his two opponents, Raymond Lawrence of Woodburn and Erroy Hoyt of Eugene. A close race for editor of the Oregonian, the student year book, was waged during the day, with Doris Sikes of Springfield maintaining a slight lead over her competitor, Velma Farnham of Sheridan.

Contest Is Hot.

The vice-presidency of the associated students was one of the most hotly contested races, with indications that Owen Callaway of Corvallis will maintain a slight lead over his competitor, Duck Sundeland of Portland. The office of secretary of the student body was contested to Margaret Jackson of Baker.

Don Zimmerman of Eugene, Arthur Larson of Eugene and either Haddon Rockey of Portland or Will Purdy of Eugene were elected senior representatives on the student council. The latter two were running neck and neck above other competitors at late hour last night, there being six candidates out for the position, three to be elected.

Oranna ex-Editor Leads.

She was editor of the Oregonian last year. As junior man on this council, Hazlan Gram was elected, having no opposition. Other positions on the student council will be filled next week by Pat Ireland of Portland and Will Purdy of Santa Barbara, Cal., Betty Price of Long Beach, Cal., Don Woodward of Portland and Ellen M. Hays of Astoria. Hattie Smith both of Portland, according to unfulfilled counts of the ballot.

Big Timber Deal Made

Western White Cedar Company
Sells 28,000,000 Feet.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—Conrad & Adelsperger put through one of the recent large timber deals in the timber industry here that has been closed here in some time, when they bought for the Western White Cedar company 28,000,000 feet of white cedar from the Coquille Mill & Turbutt company.

Cox May Have Candidate.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—Hugh McLean, postmaster of Marshfield, will oppose whoever is nominated in the first district for congress if he plans his friends have adopted succeeds. Mr. McLean's friends have sent the word abroad that if his name is written on the democratic ballot in sufficient numbers he will accept the nomination and make the race against the republican candidate. Mr. McLean and his friends realize his nomination looks more like a slaughter than anything else, yet they say strange things have happened than a democrat being elected in this overwhelmingly republican district.

Later Fete Day Urged

Postponement of Rose Festival
Favored by Mr. Hauser.

Postponement of the Rose Festival to a later date became practically a certainty yesterday when a telegram was received from Eric V. Hauser, president of the festival association, now in Washington, D. C., in which he said it seemed advisable to postpone the festival on account of weather conditions. Mr. Hauser said he thought postponement should be to some date several weeks later, which will meet today at 2 P. M. with a view to considering the matter. It is regarded as likely that the date will be changed from June 7-8 to June 21-22.

Good Roads Booster on Visit.

LEBANON, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—Colonel T. L. Kirkpatrick of Charlotte, N. C., arrived in Lebanon today and tomorrow night will be the guest of the Lebanon Commercial club at a banquet to be given in his honor at the Hotel Lebanon. He came west primarily to deliver an address before the United States Good Roads association at the Phoenix, Ariz., at the national convention there last week. One of the purposes in coming north, in addition to visiting his cousin, H. T. Kirkpatrick, ex-postmaster of Lebanon, is to see the Pacific highway and the Columbia river highway, to get ideas of highway scenery and construction to take back to the north with him.

94-Corvette Orchestra Organized.

CORVALLIS, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—Mrs. Catherine Gentle, one of the grade school teachers here, has organized a grade school orchestra of 94 pieces. Last year she had a grade school orchestra of 55 pieces. It proved so popular among the younger children that the orchestra has doubled in size, 94 of the students being selected to give a "Symphony Concert" Saturday night, May 13. It is believed here that this is the largest children's orchestra in the United States.

What's Become of

DR. J. WHITCOMB BROUGHER, one of Portland's best-known pastors, who left this city 12 years ago? Dr. Brougher went from Portland to Los Angeles to become pastor of the Temple Baptist church. He is one of the most popular ministers in California, for his forceful personality has won him a wide following of friends. It is characteristic of him that he is known in Los Angeles as the "guardian angel" of the city.

When any one of them gets into trouble, he always sends for his friend, Dr. Brougher. He is at present just recovering from a minor operation. This summer he probably will make a Chautauqua tour, as has been his custom for many years. Last summer he made an extensive and extremely successful tour, going as far east as New York and the New England states and returning by way of the middle west.

Dr. Brougher has had several calls to large eastern churches during the time he has been in Los Angeles, but since he likes the west, he always has been persuaded to remain in California. The Brougher family usually spends the summer at Gearhart, Or.

Defenses to Be Inspected.

ASTORIA, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—Fort Stevens will be visited Friday of this week by Brigadier-General Chase W. Kennedy, stationed at the presidio in San Francisco, who is the commanding officer for the artillery district which includes Fort Stevens, Oregon, and Fort Columbus and Campy, Washington. General Kennedy is making an inspection tour of coast defenses in this district and probably will inspect the guns in this section Friday and Saturday.

School District Purchases Army.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—The electors of the Powers school district have voted to purchase the army in the city. Built during the war by the home guards, the building will be added to the district properties as a gymnasium and manual training school. The purchase was taken in compliance with the requirement that standard high schools must have gymnasium buildings. The price of the building was $250.

SANITY LEAGUE KEPT OUT

COUNCIL DENIES PERMIT TO SEEK MEMBERS.

Mayor Baker Informs Representative

That State Well Satisfied
With Anti-Liquor Laws.

Request of the Sanity League of America, Inc., for permission to "circulate petitions" upon the streets of Portland was denied by unanimous vote of the city council yesterday.

The hearing was held in the city hall, and the league officers wished to circulate for the purpose of enrolling members and petitioning themselves to pay annual dues of $1. Secretary Jackson said the membership goal in this state has been set at 100,000. When Commissioner Bigelow called attention that this would mean collection of $100,000 annually for the league, Jackson replied that it will cost $125,000 to collect this.

The hearing was punctuated throughout by keen thrusts on the part of commissioners and petitioners. Debate over the matter was largely dominated by a large group of listeners, largely made up of women identified with the cause of temperance, and these applauded the vote of the council.

Inquiry by members of the council brought out the fact that the petitions the league officers wished to circulate were for the purpose of enrolling members and petitioning themselves to pay annual dues of $1. Secretary Jackson said the membership goal in this state has been set at 100,000. When Commissioner Bigelow called attention that this would mean collection of $100,000 annually for the league, Jackson replied that it will cost $125,000 to collect this.
