REVERSING RAILROAD POLICY... If the interstate commerce commission should sustain the findings of Examiner Disque in the trans-continental rate case, it would result in all the present railroads established in constructing the long-and-short-haul clause, and its sole justification in law would be the fact that congress in the transportation act of 1920 slightly strengthened the basic anti-competitive provisions of that clause by adding the proviso that water-competitive rates must be "reasonably compensatory"—a rule which the commission says it has already formed after reading the brief of attorneys for the Portland Traffic & Transportation association, taking exception to the examiner's findings.

How to Remit—Send postage money orders, checks, money orders, etc. Local bank stamps, coin or currency are at owner's risk. Give postage address in full. Postage Rates—1 to 16 pages, 1 cent; 17 to 32 pages, 2 cents; 33 to 64 pages, 3 cents; 65 to 96 pages, 4 cents; 97 to 128 pages, 5 cents; 129 to 160 pages, 6 cents.

Chief and Unwarranted... Oregon had statewide, bone-dry prohibition before adoption of the federal amendment and before enactment of the Volstead act. By constitutional inhibition and by strict enforcement statute the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor in Oregon were ended by Oregon on its own account. The state constitutional inhibition and the enforcement statute still exist.

KEEPING THE PLEDGE... President Harding's quiet preparation to co-operate with other nations in economic reconstruction of Europe is the occasion for this taunt by the Oregonian Guard.

OLD WAYS IN EDUCATION... President Suzzalo of the University of Washington is probably right in saying that "the monotony of the old education forced inattention," as a result of which we had a selection school, but there is some question as to whether the new education is in the opposite direction in our effort to correct the mistakes of the past.

MAKING LABOR UNIONS RESPONSIBLE... When questioned about the remedy for the strike by labor unions, President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, told the Lockwood committee, investigating the New York building trades, what labor unions should do to regulate by law.

THE LISTENING POST... UNPARRAILED and unaging are many of the good deeds accomplished in Portland, and, but for a well-wishing friend, the great service that Leonard Christoforo rendered his home city would never be known.

responsibility as employers, who are incorporated and have large property holdings. The defense is made that labor contracts could not in practice be enforced when large numbers of unorganized members refused to fulfill them by striking.

ABOUT THE WAR GRABBERS... Why was it that a republican, not a democratic, congressman called Attorney-General Daugherty to account for not earlier prosecuting men guilty of fraud in war contracts? If Mr. Daugherty has been derelict, it was a fine opportunity for the democrats to score off him for campaign purposes.

WHERE LINCOLN MYTH STARTED... "I've been buying a dress for my wife as a sort of peace offering," confessed an eastern Oregon man at the Hotel Portland.

THE DOUBLE STANDARD... Aye, stone the woman—let the man go free! Draw back your garments lest perchance they touch her.

GRANT GREAT AS STATESMAN... Achievement as President Enumerated by Dr. Hendler.

DATE OF EARTHQUAKE AND FIRE... PORTLAND, May 11.—(To the Editor)—Please give the date of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, as I am trying to trace something of its importance to me.
