

COMMISSION BACKS GRUMAN AS REFEREE

Evans Fails in Effort to Dis-lodge Arbitrer.

DECISION IS UNANIMOUS

Meeting Settles Dispute as to Bout of Gorman and Sacco at Armory Tomorrow.

Ralph Gruman will continue to referee all boxing bouts under the auspices of the Portland boxing commission. This was decided at a meeting of the commission yesterday after an attempt had been made by Bobby Evans, manager of Joe Gorman, to have Gruman removed as referee.

Gorman meets Jimmy Sacco in the ten-round main event of the Portland commission show at the armory tomorrow night. Evans protested Gruman as referee for this bout on the ground that in a previous bout between Gorman and Lacey Morrow, Gruman had made Morrow a present of the decision although Gorman was entitled to a draw. Several of the commissioners went to bat for the referee, saying he never had shown partiality in making his decisions but called them as he saw them.

Evans backed at first. Matchmaker Hansen then was told to acquaint Evans with the decision of the commission. Evans would be backed and said he wouldn't let Gorman box unless another referee were appointed for the fight, or at least that two judges be named to give the verdict.

Hansen, however, wanted no time in telling Evans that when he signed Gorman to box, nothing was to be said about the referee. He told Evans, furthermore, if Gorman did not abide by the ruling of the commission that both Gorman and Evans would be barred not only in Oregon but in 27 states of the union as well. This gentle persuader brought Evans into line and the bout will go through tomorrow night as scheduled.

All the boxes on the card tomorrow night except Sacco, who is training in Seattle, are pre-arranged. Sacco will arrive from Seattle today. Sacco is the kind of boxer who gives the rugged Gorman plenty of trouble. He is fast and powerful and has a good left hand which he keeps continually showing into an opponent's face.

Sacco winner on foul. In a recent meeting between Gorman and Sacco in Seattle, Sacco won in three rounds on a foul. Gorman says that this time there will be no chance for the Beantown boy to get away on a foul and that there will be no need for referee Gruman to give a decision either way.

The rest of the card is composed of Battling Ortega and Jack Davis in the semi-windup, Freddie Williams and Mike de Pinto in a special six-round event, Red Campbell and Lem Lompski in the second four-round bout and Les Pierce and Charley Helman in the curtain raiser.

TENNIS ENTRIES ARE DUE

MULTNOMAH CLUB'S LISTS TO CLOSE TOMORROW.

Annual Spring Handicap Tournament to Get Under Way on Winged M Courts May 20.

Entries for the annual spring handicap tennis tournament of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club which starts May 20, will close tomorrow night at 6 o'clock. A. D. Norris is chairman of the committee in charge, which also includes Harry Gray and Walter A. Goss.

The Alma D. Katz trophy, first put up in 1909, may be won permanently this year, as a couple of the courts are undergoing repairs and cannot be used. Consequently play must start at the appointed time or the match forfeited, according to Chairman Norris.

Drawings will be made Thursday night. The entry list already is exceptionally large. Following are the winners of the Alma D. Katz trophy: Brandt Wickersham, 1909; Ralph Gorrell, 1910; Percy W. Lewis, 1911; Brandt Wickersham, 1912; A. D. Norris, 1913; R. M. Jones Jr., 1914; Harold Mixner, 1915; Walter A. Goss, 1916 and 1917 (no tournament in 1918); James F. Ewing, 1919; Catlin Wolfard, 1920, and A. D. Norris, 1921.

$50,000 ABOUT KAMM PRICE

John J. McGraw Is High Bidder on Seal Third Baseman.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—(Special.)—According to George A. Putnam, secretary and part owner of the San Francisco Seals, John J. McGraw of the New York Nationals is leading all bidders for the services of the San Francisco third baseman, Willie Kamm. That the price to be paid for Kamm will not be as high as the $175,000 for Jimmie O'Connell was hinted by Putnam. Four major league managers have been bidding for Kamm, according to Putnam, and the only figure announced is that of William Veck of the Cubs, who offered $55,000. Putnam and his partners were said to have turned down the bid. McGraw has bid higher and while no announcement was made the bid probably is an over $100,000.

Earlier in the season the Seal managers let it be known that Kamm was for sale to the highest bidder. Several major teams wanted Kamm last fall, but the sale of Cavener and Couch caused the Seals to retain their star third sacker.

IMBLER NINE ISSUES DEFI

Any Team Averaging Up to 140 Pounds Is Challenged.

The juvenile baseball team of Imbler, Or., has issued through the state chamber of commerce a challenge to any team in or around Portland averaging up to 140 pounds. The Imbler youngsters have been adopted by the Union county Ad club, which is attempting to arrange a schedule of five or six games here for the team. The heaviest player on the Imbler team weighs 120 pounds but most of the players are around 100 pounds. The team has challenged several school teams in Portland without results. The only stipulation that the Imbler team holds out for is that the opposing pitcher must not weigh more than 125 pounds. A financial guarantee also is desired.

Robert O. Case, secretary of the state chamber of commerce with headquarters in the Oregon building, is arranging for the tour of the team. Any team in or near Portland may book a game with the Imbler nine by getting in touch with Mr. Case.
