SPOKANE. Wash. May 19.—Statements of Charles K. McClatchy, editor of the Sacramento (Cal.) Bee, made in a newspaper interview which he gave here recently while on route home from a two years' stay in Europe, discrediting the necessity for American relief work there, are denounced as false in a reply issued by E. A. Potter, Spokane representative of the near cast relief, and published here today.
The statement, made by Charles H.
Vickery on authorization of New York officials of the relief organization, denies Mr. McClatchy's statement that American children are in greater need of relief than children
in Europe and continues:

"I have within a year visited Constantinople, Trebizond, Tiflis, Alexandenoted Erivan American where I new

LARCENY CHARGE FAILS Embezzlement Evidence Against

Broker Held Insufficient. SPOKANE, Wash., May 19. - A charge of grand larceny against Walter J. Nicholls, stock broker of this city, was dismissed today by Superior Judge Oswald, who ruled that the facts set up by the state did not constitute ambezzlement.

Jacob Conn. the complaining witness has testified that he had paid ness, has testified that he had paid 3500 for a 30-day option on shares of stock and that before he completed the transaction, Nicholls made an assignment to his creditors. The state alleges that Nicholls did not hold the stock which he had contracted to destock which he had contracted to deock which he had contracted to de-

Another charge of grand larceny filed against Nicholls was dismissed recently on motion of the prosecuting attorney after a ruling adverse to the state had been made in the case.

Railroad is Taken.

Immediate development of the timber property was held up, due to the fact that the railroad, which had been started several years ago, had been delayed. With the change of ownership the work of making a roadbed was taken up, and the line passed into the hands of the Hill interests.

The question as to the location of the big mill, which is to start the development of the huge tract, seems to have been settled and, without a doubt it will be located near or in the town of Vernonia.

A delightful affair of the week was the tea given by Mrs. M. H. Lamond at the Portland hotel Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss, Jean McLeod. FISHIN' season's open. Picnic time

When a man's "starved to death" Tillamook Cheese just hits the spot! A good thing to remember when you fix the picnic lunch. Or if he wants a sandwich to slip into his pocket, make it a generous slice of "Tillamook" between buttered bread!

"Tillamook" is the original trade-marked cheese. It is made in a little valley where herds graze all year 'round on succulent green pastures. Every single pound is stamped with the name "Tillamook". Be sure you get the genuine.
