A record-breaking vote in The Dalles and Wasco county, with scores of democrats swearing in as republicans at the polls, avowedly for the purpose of casting their ballots for Sinnott and Olcott, were the features of the primary election here today. Balloting was light during the morn-ing hours of the election, but steadily picked up as the afternoon wore on, many precincts hoping to realize $5 per cent of the registered vote by

More than $5000 of Olcott, Williams and Sinnott money was offered here at 2 to 1 odds today, with practically no takers. County Treasurer Patterson is unopposed for re-election. Even surpassing the gubernatorial race in eastern Oregon, is the interest in the Sinnott-Gwinn contest. Sinnott backers today were predicting that their man would carry Wasco county by a majority of 2 to 1, and Hood River and Sherman counties by a safe

PUBLICAN BALLOT. Widow of Earliest Permanent American Settler of Yamhill

Alert to Public Affairs. On her 89th birthday, Mary Frances Cook, Oregon pioneer of 1852, voted yesterday in the republican primaries in Irvington precinct No. 224. Cook is the widow of Amos Cook, pioneer of 1340, earliest permanent American settler of Yamhili county "Many good men on this ballot," commented Mrs. Cook as she viewed the names and marked her choice, "and some, I think, are better than others. Although but two years ago Mrs. Cook suffered a leg fracture near the hip, the injury soon mended and yes-terday she walked firmly to and from the automobile that conveyed her to the polling place.

"And I trust," she remarked, "that my vote has done some good." Mrs. Cook came to Oregon by the in Klamath county and incomplete returns from four precincts gave the following totals: Republican, Fithian 196, Williams 146, Gwinn 198, Sinnott 228, Bean 11, Hall 54, Lee 4, Olcott 187, Patterson 26, White 194, Hoff 172, Ryan 121, Burnett 189, McCourt 193, Roctt Coburn, well-known writer of The Oregonian 132, Campbell 113, Layman 56, Thiehoff 72. Duniway, distinguished woman suf-frage leader of Oregon; her sister, Harriet Louise Scott McCord-Palmer, who lives at Tacoma, and two other sisters, Margaret Ann Scott Foarn-side, pioneer of Tillamook county, and Sarah Maria Scott Kelty, pioneer of williams Ahead in Umatilla.

Sarah Maria Scott Kelty, pioneer of Yamhill county, Mrs. Cook was born as small lead in Multnomah county, but Gram is far ahead in the other counties. Gram has overcome a presentative from the 13th district of the lightest ever recorded. At 5 counties expected that Aifred J. Smith also will receive a good vote.

YAMHILL VOTE 60 PER CENT

The heaviest primary vote in the history of the county, it is likely, unless apparently been nominated over Williams Ahead in Umatilla.

PENDLETON, Or., May 19.—(Spellal.)—Complete unofficial returns from 21 precincts outside of Pendle-outlies. Gram has overcome a presentative from the 13th district of the lightest ever recorded. At 5 counties, Gram has overcome a present lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a small lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a present lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a present lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a present lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a present lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a present lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a small lead in Multnomah of 42e and has a present lead in Multnoma

This active pioneer woman reads the daily newspapers and is keen and alert to public affairs. After her leg accident of two years ago she feared she would not walk again. "But I made up my mind." she said, "I would take the said. take things easy, for the first time in my life, and make the best of the trouble, and here I am, well again. trouble, and here I am, well again, and walking to the polls."
