

STINGING ATTACK MADE ON AMERICA

"Ill-Advised Interference" Is Resented by Tardieu.

J. P. MORGAN IN PARIS

Speech of ex-High Commissioner Coincides With Arrival of Banker to Aid in Reparations.

BY LINCOLN EYRE.
(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

PARIS, May 23.—(Special cable).—A stinging attack on the American government was launched in the chamber of deputies today by Andre Tardieu, ex-French high commissioner in the United States and now leader of the parliamentary opposition to the Poincare cabinet.

His speech coincided with the arrival of J. P. Morgan to aid in reparations commission committee of bankers who will try to insure payment of the German indemnity.

Mr. Tardieu's thesis was that Europe requires a Monroe doctrine of her own to protect herself from ill-advised American interference with her affairs. He made it clear that in his view the United States has no business intervening between victors and vanquished unless she is prepared to assume the full burden of responsibility.

This onslaught was preceded by a bitter criticism of alleged Anglo-American oil records on the part of Deputy Lacotte. He said Belgium had prevented formation of a dangerous trust, although she also admitted American intervention had fended bolshevist plans, which, if successful, would have made the soviets master of the situation.

Mr. Morgan's arrival passed practically unnoticed, so far as officialdom is concerned. The banker went at once to the Elysees and thence to the home of Colonel H. Harjes of the Morgan-Harjes company. There it was said he could make no statement prior to the meeting of the financiers' committee tomorrow. Besides Mr. Morgan, delegates of the allied powers, Germany and the neutrals will be present.

BIG LOAN OR NONE, IS STAND

Advance to Germany is Informally Discussed by World Bankers.

PARIS, May 23.—(By the Associated Press).—A big loan to Germany or none at all, appears to be the first idea with which the bankers of many nations assembling in Paris for their first meeting tomorrow are approaching their work.

Sir Robert Kindersley of England, Mr. Voessinger of Holland and Signor d'Amelis of Italy were among the bankers who looked into the offices of the allied reparations commission today in preparation for tomorrow's meeting.

Consequently the first suggestion came from an equivalent of $500,000,000 to $2,000,000,000 for immediate issue. The billion figure appears to be the favored one, but whether any loan is possible, and how much, could be decided only if the governments concerned could agree to some conditions of immense and decisive character.

FREIGHT CHARGES ARE CUT

jectable films and national censorship at the point of production, based upon a federal law, were urged by the resolution adopted at the meeting.

Approval of the Dyer anti-lynching bill, now before the senate, was expressed in a resolution adopted at the instance of the standing committee on freedom, submitted by Dr. Thomas J. B. Harris of Englewood, N. J.

Urgent need of a larger number of candidates for the ministry was asserted by the standing committee on theological seminaries. Vacancies now exist for 400 Presbyterian ministers, which were filled by drafts from other denominations to the extent of 150 the past year.

Of 300 ministers from other denominations who were given Presbyterian pulpits during the past few years, fully one-third had neither collegiate nor seminary training, the report said, adding that the annual deaths in the ministerial ranks exceed the number of students graduated.

MADDOO'S SON MARRIES

BRIDE IS DIVORCED WIFE OF ARMOUR FERGUSON.

Ramos of Wedding Heard Within Few Months of Time Woman Received Final Papers.

NEW YORK, May 23.—(Special).—Following the quiet issuing of a marriage license at the municipal building today, the principals, William G. McCadoo Jr., son of the ex-secretary of the treasury, William G. McCadoo, and Mrs. Molly Tackaberry Ferguson, who divorced her first husband, Armour Ferguson, last year, walked up to the simple little marriage altar and were married by Deputy City Clerk McCormick.

The only witnesses were Mrs. de Mohrenschildt, a sister, and Francis H. McCadoo, a brother of the bridegroom.

The wedding of Mr. McCadoo and the former Mrs. Armour Ferguson came as no surprise to their acquaintances. It was learned soon after Mrs. Ferguson received her final divorce papers from Mr. Ferguson last year that she would soon be married to the son of the ex-cabinet member. At the time the report was denied by Mrs. McCadoo and her sister.

Mrs. William G. McCadoo Jr. was Miss Molly Tackaberry of England. She met her first husband, Armour Ferguson, at an art school in Lexington avenue and their engagement was announced a few weeks later.

In obtaining his marriage license Mr. McCadoo gave his age as 27, occupation oil producer and home No. 400 Park avenue. Mrs. Ferguson gave her age as 27, birthplace London, England, and her occupation as John B. Tackaberry, well-known business man of England. Mrs. McCadoo, although a Catholic, has twice been wedded by a civil ceremony. Following the first civil marriage, a second ceremony took place at St. Ignatius Loyola's church.

BUILDING CODE DRAFTED

Final Revision Is Completed by Chamber of Commerce Committee.

Final changes were incorporated in the proposed new building code last night by the Chamber of Commerce committee which has had charge of the work of preparing an up-to-date code. The few revisions made last night were adopted after hearing and considering suggestions offered at the public hearing held in the Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives of the brick manufacturers of the city had the floor at the hearing during most of the evening. Most of the specifications changed sought by this delegation were accepted but on other points the delegation was promptly turned down. Slight changes sought by a representative of the Fire Underwriters were made.

At conclusion of the hearing it was said that the revised code will be ready for consideration of the city council a week from today. The Chamber of Commerce committee which has long been working on the code and eliminating obsolete requirements was composed of H. A. Whitney, chairman; L. R. Bailey and T. H. Williams, H. E. Plummer, city building inspector, assistant to the committee in the hearing and will draw up the code in final form for presentation to the council.

John L. Burns, who was acquitted in circuit court of the murder of J. H. Dan Casey, Burns' partner, is now in the Salem penitentiary awaiting hanging for the murder of Phillips.

Burns was indicted by the Pottawattamie grand jury about two years ago, and jumped bail of $1000, fleeing to Portland.

Similar charges faced him in United States court here. Immediately following his acquittal of murder, he was rearrested and indicted on charges of stealing from interstate commerce.

A federal court order for his release to Iowa was obtained yesterday by John Veatch, assistant United States attorney, and extradition papers were signed by Governor O'Leary. His real name is said to be "Lyle" rather than "John" Burns.

ARMY OF 133,000 FAVORED IN SENATE

Committee Revises House Bill for Report to Members.

$46,000,000 IS ADDED

Contest Expected With Representatives as Result of Increase in Personnel.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23.—Provision for a regular army of 133,000 men and 12,500 officers was made today by the senate military committee in virtually completing revision of the annual army appropriation bill.

House appropriations were increased by the senate committee about $46,000,000. A contest with the house was predicted in view of the provision on the army of 115,000 men and 11,000 officers.

Chairman Wadsworth was authorized by the committee to report the bill at once to the senate and seek an arrangement for early consideration.

Some of the democratic committee members voted against reporting the bill. Some democratic senators expressed themselves as believing the personnel authorization excessive, and said they were considering offering amendments to reduce the 133,000 figure. Some republicans also were reported to be in opposition to the bill. Although the committee provided appropriations for 133,000 men, the senate's maximum authorized personnel of 140,000. This, it was said, was to give the war department some latitude in recruiting to fill gaps caused by enlistment expirations.

As passed by the house, the bill carried appropriations of about $388,000,000. The senate increase, it was explained, was due largely to increased cost of the additional personnel and also salary increases for officers provided for under the action taken pay revision bill passed recently by both branches of congress.

In disposing of amendments to the bill the senate's committee approved the house clause providing for training of reserve officers and privates, including 10,000 reserve officers and 20,000 called men. The committee amended the house bill to cut the travel pay of reserve officers to the training camps from 8 to 4 cents a mile, and disapproved a request by the war department for an increase in the authorized training corps. Revised estimates furnished the committee by the department today, it was stated, showed that the regular army, through reduction in enlistments had been cut to about 135,000.

TWO CONCERTS PROMISED

terday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock was marred to some extent according to the complaints of many of the listening fans, by several amateur spark stations which kept breaking in on the "air" during the performance.

Six numbers were presented altogether by local artists. Miss Mildred Nichols played three excellent violin solos. Two vocal solos by Mrs. Alice Skiff Doerfler, soprano, and Martin Doerfler Jr., bass, were well received by the fans when the interference from outside stations subsided. The last number transmitted from the radio tower by the two vocalists was a duet, with Mrs. Norris Stone at the piano.

Several phonographic records from the public school memory list were also broadcast between other numbers of the program.

Today's afternoon broadcast from the Oregonian tower will include another solo programme of voice, violin and piano. The programme will begin at 3:30 and continue until 4:30 o'clock. Through the courtesy of the Seiberling-Lucas Music company the following artists will entertain the afternoon fans: Miss Loris Gratke, violinist, who has just returned from an extended period of study with Franz Kneisel of New York; Mrs. Miles D. Warren, soprano at the East Side Baptist church; Ira D. Morgan, pupil of May Dearborn Schwab and member of the Apollo club, and Mrs. Adeline Bowie Carlson, well-known pianist.

The programme follows:

1. Piano solos by Mrs. Adeline Bowie Carlson, (a) "Fantasie Impromptu" (Chopin), (b) "Liebestraum" (Liszt).

2. Vocal solos by Ira D. Morgan, (a) "The Sunshine of Your Smile"

CHILDREN OF CHARLES SCHMID FAIL TO GET HOME.

Court Holds Intention of Father Was to Give $60000 Cash in Addition to House.

Children of the late Charles D. Schmid, well-known butcher who left an estate valued at approximately $100,000, lost yesterday in their court battle to deprive Lena Mori, nurse and housekeeper, of a house and lot deeded her by Mr. Schmid before his death. The decision was handed down by Circuit Judge Skipworth of Eugene, sitting in Portland.

The woman worked for Mr. Schmid as housekeeper from 1918 until the time of his death and in consideration of her services he bequeathed her his home at 255 Ivy street and $3000 in cash. Prior to his death, he also gave her $3000.

Frank Schmid, Fred Schmid, Ruth Bryan, Sophie Elerath and Mathilda Bader, children and heirs, protested in the suit brought in the circuit court.
