

CUPID IS FATIGUED BY DIVORCE CRISIS

22 Default Decrees Awarded;
Marriage Licenses Three.

NINE NEW CASES FILED

Wife Accused of Desertion and Living With Others; One Woman Writes Confession.

Dan Cupid was quite groggy last night at the close of his daily battle with Multnomah county divorce courts. Against nine new divorce cases filed in the circuit court and 22 default decrees handed warring couples the little chap could muster up but three marriage licenses. In a new suit filed Michael Hintz accused Margaret Hintz of breaking up their home and scattering their children. Since their marriage in 1904, Hintz complains that his wife twice has left him to live as the wife of other men, once as Mrs. Joe Rule of Lents and the other time as Mrs. William Wittall of Camas, Wash. Of the children, Julia, 15, is at the state school for girls, Grand Mound, Wash.; Anita, 14, with father in Wenatchee, Wash.; Minnie, 11, in a Seattle "child farm"; Mary, 15, Alice, 9, and Michael, 7, with the husband, 4529 Fifty-ninth street, Southeast, Portland. The plaintiff avers that his wife is at present an inmate of the Cedars.

Attempt to Kidnap Reported.
Telegraphic dispatches from Seattle yesterday reported that Hintz was in trouble with the authorities in that city by reason of an attempt to kidnap his daughter, Minnie, from the "child farm" where she had been placed by a King county court.

Other divorce actions filed with County Clerk Beveridge were: Paul against Alice Ruhl, Richard A. against Edna Marion David, Edith against Arthur S. Robinson, Maude M. against Wella M. Tooley, Marie L. against Alfred T. Patch, Millie against John Kentta, Theresa L. against George W. Foote and Fern against Thomas C. Nye.

A written confession by Mrs. Violet B. Goraline, admitting improper relations with other men while her husband, Walter L. Goraline, was on night duty as a clerk in the local postoffice, was offered in evidence in the court of Circuit Judge Taswell yesterday in the divorce action brought by the husband.

Savings Used on Tour.
Through an interpreter, Annie Trofimenko told Judge Taswell that her husband, W. Trofimenko, took their savings of years, amounting to about $2000, and with one son toured the continent of Europe a little over a year ago, leaving her and six other children destitute. He traveled through Russia, Germany, France and Italy, later going to Mexico and returning to Portland with the son, whom he left here and continued on his wandering way with the assertion that his wife never would see him again. It was testified. She received the decree.

Other default decrees awarded by Judge Taswell yesterday were: B. M. against Alice Richardson, Ora D. against Robert A. Burch, David L. against Edythe Billings, Joe against Grace Lothachand, Lydia against Island Brockway, Millie against Paul Olander, Peter against Esther Zucker, Carrie E. against James H. Durfee, Lulu against R. J. Strecher, Ralph against Edna M. Dinnetty, Kitty against Charles Linebarger, Kate against Walter L. Gardner, Ludwig against William D. Shoults, Mary A. against Alex Wright, Mattie against H. E. Marsh, A. B. against Kate Poldeen, Marguerite against W. J. Bennett, J. K. against G. B. Simpson, Allen against A. D. Morris and Florence against W. J. Golden.

MANY HOMES UNDER WAY
La Grande Experiences $400,000 Building Boom.

LA GRANDE, Or., May 24.—(Special.)—One of the largest home-building programmes in recent years is under way in La Grande now. The homes already under construction will cost in the neighborhood of $400,000, and many more are expected to be started within the next three months. A large number of other buildings are either being remodelled or erected and the total cost of new construction during the season probably will reach $400,000. Many of the homes are being built under the soldier loan act.
