

CITY'S SOLDIER DEAD TO BE REMEMBERED

Grand Army Plans Three-Day Memorial Programme.

MAYOR ASKS OBSERVANCE

Exercise to Begin Next Sunday and Continue Following Day, Concluding Tuesday.

An elaborate programme of ceremonies in observance of Memorial day has been prepared by A. J. Smith, post, Grand Army of the Republic, and Blackmar circle, Ladies of the G. A. R.

The observances will commence on Sunday, May 28, when the members of the post and circle will meet at the Oddfellows' hall on East Third-street at 10:45 A. M. and go from there in a body to the Baptist church, corner of Eleventh street and Tacoma avenue, to join with the congregation in Memorial day worship.

On the following day they will meet at the Sillwood schoolhouse on Umattilla avenue to participate with the students in the usual memorial exercises.

On Memorial day, Tuesday, May 30, the members of the post and circle will meet at the Oddfellows' hall at 8:45 A. M. and go to the schoolhouse where they will be joined by the pupils of the school. From there they will form a procession which will go to the Milwaukie cemetery, where the graves of the buried soldiers of all wars will be decorated.

Following the decoration of the graves a special programme will be given which includes a Memorial day address by Rev. C. S. Tammell. The order of General John A. Logan establishing Memorial day and Lincoln's Gettysburg address will also be read and there will be exercises by the school children.

Drum Corps Will Lead. The procession to the cemetery will be led by the Oddfellows' drum corps.

After the exercises at the cemetery the Ladies of the G. A. R. will strew flowers upon the waters at the foot of Spokane avenue in memory of the sailor dead.

A basket luncheon will be served at the Oddfellows' hall by the ladies at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

Display of the American flag at half mast on every building and every home in Portland on Memorial day is urged in a proclamation issued yesterday by Mayor Baker.

All stores, business houses and industrial plants are requested to remain closed on this day and the proclamation urges all persons to observe the day as the most solemn occasion in the city of Portland.

"In sacred honor to those who gave their lives to the cause of humanity during the world war," the mayor's proclamation reads, "the people of the city of Portland are urged to unite in city-wide memorial services on Memorial day, May 30, 1923.

Funeral Also Feature. Memorial day is the nation's annual date for paying respect to those who have passed on, and particularly those who have given their lives in the common cause. This year the day, in addition, marks the end of a particularly sorrowful period—the period during which those who gave their all in France have been returning in peaceful silence to their eternal resting place at home.

"On this day will be held the funeral of the last of this returning host of men, each a martyr to the great, unselfish public cause. Some 240 Portland men, the bone and sinew of Americanism, paid this supreme price in France, and to them and their loved ones who remain among us with heavy hearts, Portland owes the greatest measure of gratitude, sympathy, reverence and devotion. Let the prayers of a thankful city and a thankful nation go forth on this day and let every man, woman and child pay in reverence the debt of gratitude due to those who have returned in silence and those who are still returning.

"Every building and every home in the city of Portland should display the American flag at half mast from sunrise to sunset. All stores, business places and industries are requested to observe to the fullest degree this day as the most solemn occasion in the history of the city of Portland."

Oregon's Progress Depicted by State Exchanges.

Contractors Will Rush Work on the Coquille Road.

The Scandia company, which was awarded the contract for the Coquille road is already setting equipment on the ground and promising to rush the job to completion, says the Coos Bay Times.

The road is not to be closed to traffic, which will still do some extent, but it is an assured fact that Coquille residents will not have to wallow in the mud on this road next winter.

The contract for the section from Marshfield to Bridge, having been advertised again, will probably be let at the next meeting of the state highway commission, completing the entire road from the bay to Roseburg with the exception of a little over one mile between Marshfield and Coquille, which will also probably be let in time to be completed this fall, the route not yet having been definitely located. It is now thought, however, that the road will remain where it is, which is at least much better than the proposed route via the North Fork road.

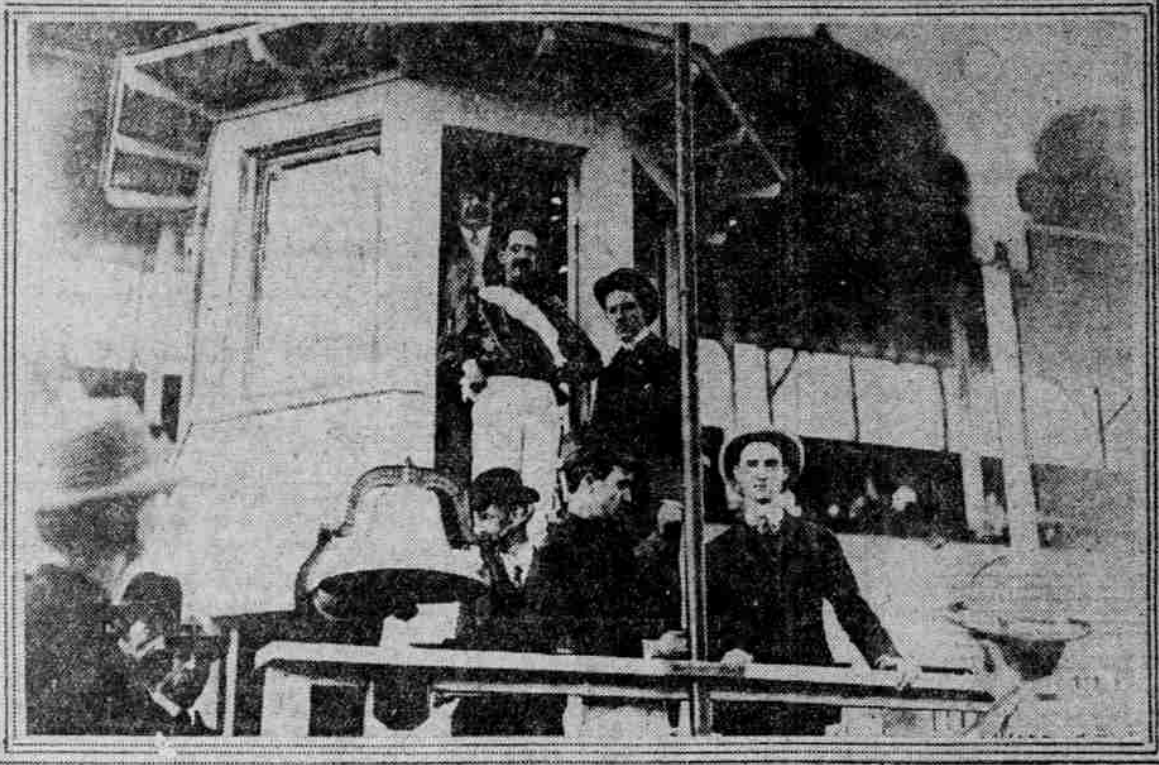

The Hillstrom Transportation company has taken the contract for the hauling on the Myrtle Point and Harborside jobs of the Scandia company, which will keep them busy for about six months. The work will cost about $10,000.

Alder Lumber in Demand. Three carloads of alder lumber have been manufactured by the Hardwood Lumber company at Sitka, Alaska. The proprietors, K. O. Thompson, Albert Alder and William Wallace, began operations six months ago and are now cutting 2000 feet a day.

The mill is located across a small arm of Sitka bay, near the Pacific Sitka mill. Most of the boards are six to ten feet long and six to ten inches wide.

A. R. Wilcox, Sitka forest examiner, visited the mill recently and was impressed with the possibilities of the alder lumber business. There is a vast amount of excellent alder stumps available at very reasonable prices. The wood makes good furniture.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

The races at Irvington track about 20 years ago, in the days when horses still predominated on the streets and most everybody used to turn out for the race meets held by Portland people? And do you remember Edgar Lazarus, the gentleman jockey, who rode his own horse, Moreno, in different races, taking plenty of cups thereby? The place where the Irvington track used to be is now marked only by a curved line of trees on one side, which used to be the course. Running races have been scarce in the state since the track has been done away with. The photograph, lent by L. H. Adams, shows Edgar Lazarus, now an architect and still a horse fan, in the garb of a jockey, standing in the judges' stand just after he had ridden Moreno to first place in a two-mile race, carrying 165 pounds. The time was 3 minutes and 44 seconds, a remarkable record. Behind Lazarus is seen A. R. Diamond, a well-remembered character who was president of the Irvington track, and in front of Lazarus is Frank Skinner, then a newspaper man from San Francisco, who judged the race. The other jockey, standing in front, is McCommon, and the others are Charlie McCarthy, Frank Leighton and Sam Jones.

mountain is reported to be open. A four-horse team came through from Astoria Monday as far as the Dixie station and returned. S. W. Woodward will start today with 400 head of cattle for their summer range on the Middle Fork and will follow the county road beyond Bridge creek. The cattle should open the road up in good shape, as it is reported that there is more snow on Bridge creek than any other part of the road between Dixie station and the Hobbs ranch.

Eccles Line Contract Let. A contract has been awarded to A. Guthrie & Co. to lay the rails and ballast on the track of the Portland, Astoria & Pacific Railroad company's line from Wilkesboro to Vernonia, a distance of approximately 32 miles. This road, which was formerly known as the Eccles line, was recently acquired by the S. P. & C. company.

The completion of this contract will finish the construction of the road as far as the east line of Clatsop county. The original charter provides for the extension of the line to Astoria, but how soon that will be done is not known, says the Seaside Signal.

Last Cattle Shipped Made. The last shipment of fed cattle from Haines, Or., has been made for this year, according to Coles & Dodd, who for several years have ranked first in number of cattle shipped to Portland and Seattle markets. The next shipments to be made from Haines will be grass cattle and it is expected shipments of this stock will not begin until a later date than usual this year on account of cold weather. During the past week or ten days Coles & Dodd have shipped 20 cars of winter fed steers from Montana points to the northwest markets, says the Haines Record.

Salem Man Returns From Seattle. Earl A. Gregg, former Salem man, for six years has resided in Seattle, has purchased a half interest in the Salem Misdland Bakery and will make Salem his home in the future, says the Capital Journal. Mr. Gregg, who was formerly assistant secretary of the Commercial club, was a charter member of the Cherrilans. In Seattle Mr. Gregg was associated with a firm of exporters and importers. In Salem he will be in partnership with a brother, Glenn H. Gregg.

Potato Growers Organize. A number of farmers in the vicinity of North Powder are planning to form a Potato Growers' association, and will plant a number of acres with "pedigreed" spuds. A car of these has been received by W. A. Hudson, who will handle the buying and selling. The growers have contracted to sell their spuds at the end of the season for from $20 to $25 per ton, says the North Powder News.

No Houses Available in Union. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. De France and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Manning and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Manning and son, of Boise, Idaho, came to Union to work on the street and at the rock crusher and are living in tents on the site of the old lumber yard above the flouring mill. No houses are available in Union and many are practically living out of doors, says the Union Republican.

North Powder Deposits Increase. The Bank of North Powder, Or., is showing another increase in deposits according to the statement published last week. This bank has the distinction of growing right along and here is more money here than in most places, says the North Powder News.

North Umpqua Road Favored. Recommendations that a road up the North Umpqua river be sponsored by the government for the purpose of increasing the value of its range and grazing lands in the Hlahee, Big Camas and Diamond lake districts will be contained in the range appraisal report being prepared by the forest service to submit to congress, according to D. C. Ingram, appraiser.

Motorists Meet Deer at Night. Motorists on the highway near Gearhart Friday night were surprised, says the Seaside, Or. Signal, when a doe and fawn appeared in the glare of the headlights of approaching cars about 11 o'clock. The animals came from the Gearhart side of the highway and disappeared in the woods.

STUDENT BENT INDICATED. Plans Show Trend of Thought of High School Pupils.

EATONVILLE, Wash., May 24.—(Special.)—The Eatonville high school is a representative institution of the present day. As such, it can be supposed that the trend of thought among the young people can be ascertained at least approximately, by what this year's graduates contemplate doing.

Out of a class of 11, three boys expect to go to college, three girls are going to attend normal schools, one girl is going to the University of Washington and one will take a business course. The remaining three are boys and will take up athletic coaching, civil engineering and business administration, respectively.

Highway Speeder Fined. HOOD RIVER, Or., May 24.—David R. Swanson, Pedleton motorist, apprehended by Traffic Officer Wood while making 45 miles an hour on the Columbia river highway, was fined $25 by Justice of the Peace Orlinank Howard G. Anderson of Newport drew $10 for improper headlights and mis- to the auto license's license plates on a motor truck.

Growers Fear River Floods. HOOD RIVER, Or., May 24.—The Columbia river, 19 feet above low water mark, is now at a standstill here. Lowland gardeners, although they are continuing to plant their crops, are expressing fear that protracted warm weather on the Columbia headwaters and on the Snake may result in inundation of their places this season.

LEADING LADY AT THE BAKER HAS INTERESTING ROLE IN FINAL PLAY.

Miss Leona Powers. An interesting role in which comedy, pathos and romance are mingled is that of Rose Mueller in "The Bubble," which is being presented as her final study for this season on the Baker theater stage by Miss Leona Powers, leading woman. This popular play by Edward Locke gives to a select Baker stock company cast some admirable opportunities, and Miss Powers makes the best of those allotted to her in bidding farewell for the summer to Baker patrons.

Selmar Jackson, leading man, has a quaint character role in his impersonation of Gustave Mueller and his dialect is a rich mantle for the comedy and the human interest the author has created. "The Bubble," last of the season's shows at the Baker, will run through the week, closing with the Saturday night performance.

Constipation Can Be Blamed For Diabetes and Bright's Disease!

And, constipation is responsible for most cases of rheumatism, hardening of the arteries, brain fog, sluggishness, headaches and many other organic disturbances! Constipation hastens old age; in fact, authorities tell you THAT 90% OF ALL HUMAN ILLNESS IS DIRECTLY TRACEABLE TO CONSTIPATION! With knowledge like that can you stand by and see yourself slipping physically; see your loved ones fall, as the prey of a preventable condition? Do not minimize the dangers of constipation because you are only "slightly" troubled. Inactivity of the eliminative passage creates toxic conditions which penetrate the intestinal walls, poisoning the blood and affecting the organs. BRAN—Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled—is nature's own positive and permanent relief from constipation. It is the most wonderful corrective food known. Bran is not a "famine," but a "roughage" that through its mineral salts and ability to absorb water—giving bulk and moisture—assists in perfect elimination. We guarantee that if Kellogg's Bran is eaten regularly—at least two table-spoonfuls daily; in chronic cases with every meal—that the sufferer will be relieved permanently! Bran is wonderful for children, for the aged, for every one! Kellogg's Bran is delicious, its nutlike flavor greatly adding to the enjoyment of eating cereals over which it has been sprinkled. Kellogg's Bran makes the tastiest of bakery batches, such as gems, raisin bread, muffins, macaroons, etc. All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

Robert G. Duncan Thanks Recall Voters

AS chairman of the Public Service Recall Committee I wish to return heartfelt thanks to the thousands who voted "YES" on the recall ballot, and at the same time compliment the people of Oregon upon their expressed determination to stand solidly for the Oregon system of popular government.

The vote on the recall clearly proves that Oregon citizens are capable of self-government. It goes further. It is notice to the world that Oregonians will not surrender their inalienable right to vote upon the taxes they pay. Above all, this great majority for the recall of unsatisfactory public servants shows that people are vigilant, and that government of, by and for the people has not perished from the earth.

Thanks for Candidates. On behalf of Messrs. McCoy and Kerrigan, the regularly nominated candidates who won such signal victories over the enemies of popular government, I wish to thank the people and again compliment their intelligence in selecting the candidates endorsed by the leaders of the recall movement.

Thanks Democrats, Too. I avail myself of this opportunity to thank the nineteen hundred democrats who voted for me for Representative in Congress. I was too busy with the recall to make a campaign. I spent but $2. I look upon the vote given me as the greatest voluntary endorsement ever given a party candidate, and I am deeply grateful. It shows nineteen hundred people reposed faith in me as a man of the people. It compensates me for the battles I have waged for human rights, and all the money I have spent and lost by opposing the predatory interests.

Sincerely and gratefully yours, ROBERT G. DUNCAN, Publisher of Duncan's Trade Register.
