LET US LIVE UP TO OUR RECORD.

Opportunity is offered the young men of Oregon by the army to spend a month at a summer camp with advantages for which many would willingly pay if "vacation" were the term used.

HOW TO PRESERVE ORDER.

The strike of the longshoremen in Portland, beginning late in April, was followed by a series of brutal attacks upon non-union workmen, which were met by the citizens sympathetic with their cause.

WINNER OF A PATRIOTIC ESSAY PRIZE.

The case of Solomon Dabinski commends itself to our notice as an example of what persistent determination will accomplish.

PORTLAND'S UNPARDONABLE SIN.

Confronted with the alternative of being deprived of all shipping orders being operating to the orient, the Columbia Pacific shipping company has been driven to yield to the board's demand that it employ union longshoremen under the closed shop policy.

MODERN CONVENIENCES.

Decidedly the answer to the problem of the high cost of living is not to be found in the suggestion of an eastern promoter that people shall dispense with all modern conveniences in their homes.

WAGE DROP AND NORMALCY.

PORTLAND, May 31.—(To the Editor.)—The Oregonian's editorial that "the nation is quickly returning to normal" and that "wage drop is a factor" also that "wage cut stiffens the market."

Stars and Starmakers.

By Leone Cass Baez. SUMMER is surely here. The agitators and little groups of reformers have renewed their annual wrangle over one-piece bathing suits for women.

Those Who Come and Go.

Tales of Folks at the Hotels. "This is the most unusual condition that I have ever known in Morrow county," observed W. H. Barratt, state highway commissioner.

Boroughs Nature Club.

More Truth Than Poetry.

By James J. Montague. ENVY. Bitterly envied the wealthy in my young and my ignorant years; I wanted so bad all the things that they had.
