SCHOOL CHILDREN TO COM-PETE FOR MEMORY RATING.

Contest at Lincoln High Tomorrov Afternoon Will Close Course of Individual Training.

The final contest of the public school music memory list course will be held at the Lincoln high school tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All the children who have passed an average of 70 in their especial school contest will be eligible to enter the final contest.

The course, which is part of the regular school music work, is composed of 50 standard musical selections, classical and popular, which are played for the children through phonograph records, throughout the school term. The children are taught to memorize the selection and know the composer. At the end of the term contests are held at the different schools and those who pass with an average of 70 per cent receive a cer-tificate of honor. This allows them to contest for the final examination, where, if they make a perfect mark, they receive a diploma.

From those who receive the highest marks at their school contests will be chosen teams of 15 who will compete with the other school teams for school honors. The winning school team will be given a grand prize. Fifteen records from the list of 50 composing the course will be played at the final contest. lyn Hunter, Ramona against Robert F.
