Foreword:

Today we're going to give Portland men and young men another remarkable sale of Meier & Frank standard suits at $25. ¶ We wish it to be clearly understood that this is NOT a sale of left-overs, broken lots, oddments or goods in any way undesirable, but, on the contrary, offers a full, satisfying collection of sound, stylish, serviceable suits, three-fourths of which have been newly added FROM REGULAR STOCK. ¶ In the matter of VALUE and everything else that matters, this newest of the great series is fully the equal of its illustrious predecessors. And so:

500 Men's and Young Men's Suits

Some Regular $35 Grades
Some Regular $40 Grades

$25

Some Regular $45 Grades
Some Regular $50 Grades

WE HAVE endeavored to keep our natural enthusiasm—for this is a sale to get enthusiastic about—within bounds. We might say a great deal more in favor of these suits—and not overdo it. But we invite you to make this test: Predicate the excellences and refinements of the BETTER sorts of ready-to-put-on clothes—and check them against these we offer at twenty-five dollars!

ALL WOOL? Yes. New styles? Yes—for men and young men. Good tailoring? Yes. Plenty of patterns and colors? Write your own ticket. All sizes? Yes—for regulars, shorts and some stouts. And all one price—$25.

Oh, Yes!

Won't do to forget the shirt sale on the Main Floor. Especially the woven madras, crepes and cords at $1.85 and the newest offering of PURE SILK broadcloth, jersey, pongee, silk-and-wool, English flannel and other high-grade shirts at $3.95.

—Meier & Frank's: Main Floor.

Sale begins 9:15 A. M. Thursday in the Store for Men, Third Floor. Get here as soon as you can—but SERVICE any time. Plenty of capable salesmen.
