BERLIN, May 31 .- (Special by Wireless.)-The Wirth government is in ndisputed power tonight, but only because the independent socialists came to its rescue when the people's party suddenly changed front and voted in favor of the vote of no confidence in the reichstag. This defec tion means that another crisis will come in a fortnight, as the support of the socialists is not permanent.

Yesterday the reactionary German actional party demanded a vote of lack of confidence. At the time the people's party, which speaks for the powerful industrials, stood with the the reparation commission became public the people's party turned about and today joined the reactionaries. Both now take the position that the government acted without the con-ent of the reichstag. The people's party leaders even declared Chancel-lor Wirth deliberately deceived the

The Seaview hotel at Seaview, Wash., was one of the big seaside resorts to which Portlanders went in the summer, and the accompanying photograph, taken in front of the hostelry and lent The Oregonion by E. P. Northrup, is exceedingly interesting in the group of well-known persons who were there at the time. Between the left-hand side and the first post can be seen Harry Hogue, Frank Dekum, L. M. Parrish, James Steel and F. M. Warren. In front of this group is Judge Whalley, holding his silk hat on his dog's head. The two taller boys in the front of the picture are Ed Gantenbein and Ed J. Daly, and George Ainsley, wearing a bowler hat, is standing just behind them. A little to the right of them are Walter London, Bert Towne, Mark Gill, Ashley Vantine, Ed Northrup, Sam Wasserman, T. J. Armstrong, Fred P. Smith, Dr. Templeton and J. J. Meston, and near the searce can be found than Hunterson and Ambrons Gantenbeig. enter can be found Ivan Humason and Ambrose Gantenbein.
