Mathilde McCormick's Mother De clares Riding Master May Have Mercenary Motives.

CHICAGO, June 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—While lawyers argued over the tangled romance of Mathids McCornick, 17-year-old heiress, Judge Horner waited in vain in probate court today for the formal filling of her mother's protest against her marriage to Max Oser, Swiss rid-ing master.

The judge had ordered that the objections of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, divorced wife of Harold F. McCormick, head of the Interna-tional Harvester company, be filed with him before I P. M., the court closed without any action having been

That no decision had been reached by Mrs, McCormick regarding whether she would continue her battle to prevent the marriage, was announced by Charles S. Cutting, her attorney, and Edwin H. When Mrs. McCormick filed her petition to rastrain Mr. McCormick, as guardian, from approving the contemplated marriage she asserted that her ebjections were based on the ground that Oser was too old, being Mathilde's senior by 27 years; that he was in effect a fortune hunter without sufficient means to support a wife, and that Mathilde would loss her American citizenship by the marher American citizenship by the mar-Objections Are Heard.

Judge Horner, after hearing the ob-jections, confirmed Mr. McCormick as his daughter's guardian and an agreement was reached that no action should be taken regarding the marriage until after a further hear-ing Saturday. The judge had then demanded of Mrs. McCormick "additional grave reasons' why Mathilde should not marry Oser.

Parley Not Productive of Optimistic Statements Regarding Solution of Problem.

LONDON. June 1 .- (By the Associated Press.)—Interest in the Irish sit-uation shifted today to Ulster, where the borderiand disturbances and the Belfast outrages are more serious than ever. The conference of Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, and the Marquis of Londonderry with Pre-mier Lloyd George were not produc-tive of optimistic statements regard-ing the solution of the problem. It is understood that the question of the support to be given to northern Ireland in case of an invasion of that territory was considered and an agreement reached. The situation renains grave.

Today's cabinet meeting for considration of the Irish situation was at-tended by General the Earl of Cavan, chief of staff of the British army, and Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, the secretary for war. It is under-stood one of the chief points of dis-

Chile's attitude toward the Chilean arbitration proposal generally was re-garded as having made it necessary to formulate some new basis of dis-cussion. It was understood to be on that subject that both the Chileans and Peruvians desired to again con-sult their home government. The Chilean reply, it is said, has not yet been laid before the conference in final form, although indications of its unfavorable nature are said to have been given the Peruvians at yesterday's session. In some quarters it is suggested that when the final answer of the Santiago government is ready it may contain important counter pro-posals on which the discussions can be continued.
