

RAIL SEPARATION BENEFIT DOUBTED

Two Lines' Growth Like One System, Says Sproule.

WANTS OF PUBLIC MET

Half of Century's Experience Said to Warrant Continued Operation as Single Unit.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—That the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific railroads have been under common control for half a century and that their growth has been the development of a single railroad system, separate in name only, filling a demand which a single company could not have filled, is asserted in a statement issued today by William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific company.

Growth Is of One System. "Beside all this, there is sufficient evidence that the Central Pacific and the Southern Pacific were held in common ownership as early as October, 1870. The official records prove that the two lines have been under common control and management for 50 years, or since July, 1870."

The growth has been of one system and not of two. The two companies did what one company could not do under the circumstances of the time. Each has been necessary to the other for effective service.

Public Desire Fulfilled. "The Central Pacific carried the extension into the San Joaquin valley as far as Goshen, the Southern Pacific taking up the line by carrying it southward and eastward. Everything that was done had behind it the backing of public desire, with the line through Oregon, for the development of the resources of California, Oregon and other Pacific states, resources then dormant, but with their possibilities evident."

After expressing his belief that the only question of present interest to the public is whether the public is hurt by having this development done by a single control under two corporate names instead of by a single control under a single name, President Sproule points out that the transportation act of 1920 provides that with the consent of the interstate commerce commission it shall be lawful for two or more carriers to consolidate their properties or any part thereof under conditions in harmony with the general plan of consolidation of the railroads of the country in groups.

When Al Kader arrived there was a large number of former Portland residents assembled at the ferry and their cars were waiting to take the ferry to the hotel in the city. Special attention was given to the comfort of the women of the party and the wives of the San Francisco Shriners were making every effort to see that they were properly received.

Al Kader took up his headquarters at the Terminal hotel, with the overflow members of the delegation making use of the Lincoln. San Francisco made every effort possible to supply rooms for the Shriners. One temple is housed in an old restaurant, where it is making itself at home.

All the way to San Francisco stops were made at the various towns, where crowds welcomed the members of the pilgrimage. At Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, Dunsmuir and other points the trains halted for a sufficient time to permit the Shriners to get out and obtain a breath of fresh air.

Hillah temple of Ashland had the advantage over most of the country. It arrived early Sunday and the patrol and band immediately made itself much in evidence. It paraded through the streets and helped put Oregon on the map in a manner that will not be forgotten.

Fun-making started the moment the Shrine visitors put their feet on San Francisco pavements today. "Smile, smile," commanded the uniformed marchers from Nile temple, Seattle, as the crowd fell back before them. Where no smile came in response the command was thundered again until finally the smiles broke out on all sides.

SAN FRANCISCO GIVES BIG RECEPTION TO AL KADER

Mayor Rolph Takes Mayor Baker and Speeds Away With Him to Center of Activities of Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—(Special.)—The gates of San Francisco were opened today to the members of the Mystic Shrine, who were assembling in their national convention to the members of Al Kader temple, who are assembled here 600 strong, the reception upon arrival in this city brought memories of the summer of 1920, when Portland was host to sardined.

Mayor Baker's arrival in San Francisco was greeted this morning with a general fire alarm. Mayor Rolph, with the fire chief, rushed him from the ferry to the hotel in the city. The street was lined with thousands of people who gasped at the speeding car and the fire department whistles.

Today's program for the visiting Shriners was more or less preliminary. Tomorrow the "big show" starts. Delegations arrived every few minutes and were being escorted to the members of their uniformed bodies and their bands.

MRS. ASTOR BACK HOME

COMMONS MEMBER HAILED AS "JOLLY GOOD FELLOW."

Four Hundred Guests Attend Dinner by English-Speaking Union in London.

LONDON, June 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Viscountess Astor was hailed as a "jolly good fellow" by 400 guests at a dinner given by the English speaking union to welcome home the first woman to take her seat as a member of the house of commons, after her American tour.

Mrs. Wintingham, who shares the honors of feminine representation in parliament with the Virginian, united with Lord Leg of Farnham in saying nice things about the guest of honor's work in parliament and the unofficial mission she performed recently in America.

The English speaking union is the only Anglo-American fellowship society which admits women to membership.

Viscountess Astor was attired in a tan colored gown with green girdle with two ropes of pearls around her neck. In characteristic fashion she sermonized, admonished and joked for an hour. In her peroration she alluded to the Washington conference, saying: "America had a chance to build the greatest navy in the world; she gave it up with as much grace as the greatest navy in the world gave up its long reign of the sea."

When she resumed her seat the audience to a man—and woman—stood and sang spiritedly "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

"Lady Nancy" gave an account of her American travels, prefaced by a recital of the unifying influence of Anglo-Saxon idealism, she rapped on the table as she affirmed: "I am not here to speak of England; I did that for one month in America. I have been to speak of America and I can do so with as much pride and confidence as to her greatness as I spoke of England's greatness in America."

Wednesday afternoon there will be a big swimming meet here at which Duke Kahaloanui, the noted Hawaiian, will appear. Swimmers from Los Angeles, Stockton, Portland, Seattle, Sacramento and Pasadena are to compete.

Shrine auto race fans will see a large number of drivers in a special 150-mile race at San Carlos near here Wednesday, while those who follow the water will be guests at speedboat contests and at a yacht regatta on the bay. Tomorrow night there will be a Shrine boxing show and wrestling exhibition here. Throughout the week there will be baseball games here between the San Francisco and Portland clubs of the Pacific coast baseball league.

FEDERAL EXPENSES CUT

DAWES' PRESSURE EFFECTS FURTHER REDUCTION.

Expenditures Total $3,523,136, 768 Compared With $5,138,806.937 Previous Year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Expenditures for carrying on the ordinary business of the government for the current fiscal year will be nearly $1,700,000,000 less than last year, or about $100,000,000 more than the latest estimate by Director of the Budget Dawes, treasury officials predicted today.

Expenditures of the government against ordinary receipts exclusive of the principal of the public debt for the fiscal year to date, have amounted to $3,231,847,675 compared with $5,138,806,937 for the corresponding period last year, according to the latest daily treasury statement.

Pressure by the budget bureau, officials declared, would prevent undue last minute expenditures before July 30 so that General Dawes' estimate would be more than borne out by the results for the year.
