

ENTRIES THAT WON FIRST PRIZES IN FESTIVAL FLORAL PARADE

VANCOUVER, B. C., WINNER

FIRE ENGINE NO. 4 HAS BEST DECORATED AUTO.

Newberg Takes First Prize for Best Decorated Entry for Cities Under 50,000.

(Continued From First Page.)

SECTION 7. Clubs, Civic Organizations and Fraternal Societies of Portland.

Class A—Best decorated civic club entry consisting of four or more cars: First prize ($100), Portland Auto Traders' association; second prize, Portland Woman's club; third prize, Campfire girls; fourth prize, United States forest service.

Class B—Best decorated civic club entry: First prize ($75), St. Johns Bachelors' club; second prize ($50), Port of Portland; third prize, Portland Ad club; fourth prize, Portland Woman's Research club; fifth prize, Lions club; sixth prize, Commercial Artists.

Class C—Best decorated fraternal society entry: First prize ($75), City View lodge, I. O. O. F.; second prize ($50), Degree of Honor Protective association; third prize, Knights of Columbus; fourth prize, Kirkpatrick council; fifth prize, Anchor council; sixth prize, Women of Woodcraft; seventh prize, United Artisans, Fram No. 121.

Class D—Best decorated patriotic society entry: First prize ($75), Marines; second prize ($50), American Legion; third prize, Disabled Veterans; fourth prize, American Legion auxiliary.

Class E—Best decorated entry from charitable organizations or hospitals: First prize ($75), Albertine Kerr nursery; second prize ($50), Salvation Army White Shield home.

SECTION 8. Privately Decorated Floats.

Class A—Best decorated privately touring car entered and decorated by individuals: First prize ($100) (900A), Mrs. Carrie Weaver; second prize ($50) (901A), Miss Helen Shank; no third.

Class B—Best decorated privately owned touring car decorated by florists: First prize ($100) (902B), Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox; no second or third.

Class C—Best decorated touring car, privately owned and decorated by individuals, the retail price of car being not more than $1500: No entries.

Class D—Best decorated privately owned roadster decorated by individuals: First prize ($100) (902D), Miss Hilda Sinnott; second prize ($50) (907D), Mrs. J. E. Stewart; no third.

Class E—Best decorated privately owned roadster decorated by florists: No entries.

Class F—Best decorated entry for cash prizes—Best automobile float decorated by florists: First prize, Mrs. H. L. Corbett; second prize, Guy W. Talbot.

SECTION 10. Automobile Dealers, Garages and Accessory Houses.

Class A—Best decorated new car entered by dealer, value over $2000: No entries.

Class B—Best decorated new car entered by dealer, value less than $2000: First prize ($75), Fields Motor Car company; second prize ($50), Dunning Motor company.

Class B—Best decorated entry by automobile accessory house: First prize ($75), P. J. Cronin company; no second award made.

Class C—Best decorated entry by public garage owner: First prize ($75), Whinnans brothers; no second award made.

SECTION 11. Industrial, Business Firms, Banks, Etc.

Class A—Best decorated entry by banks, bond houses or financial institutions: First prize ($75), United States National bank (only entry).

Class B—Best decorated entry by manufacturers: First prize ($75), Portland Livestock Exchange; second prize ($50), Hackett Digger company; third prize, Robert Payne, contractor, East Third and Madison streets; fourth prize, Spinal Abdominal Rupture Appliances company.

Class C—Best decorated entry by farmers, gardeners, granges, etc.: First prize ($75), Oregon-Japanese Growers, 268 Yamhill street (only entry).

Class D—Best decorated entry by department stores: First prize ($75), Roberts brothers (only entry).

Class E—Best decorated entry by retail merchants: First prize ($75), Victrola dealers of Portland; second prize ($50), A. G. Hawkins, 172 Couch street; third prize, Seid Back, 448 East Thirtieth street.

Class F—Best decorated entry by retail merchants, non-professionally decorated: First prize ($75), Piedmont Electric company.

SECTION 12. General Service.

Class A—Best decorated entry by general public service company: First prize ($75), Portland Railway, Light & Power company; second prize ($50), Northwestern Electric company; third prize, Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company; fourth prize, Portland Gas & Coke company; fifth prize, Southern Pacific company.

SECTION 13. Home Services.

Class A—Best decorated entry by home service companies: First prize ($75), Allyn's dye and cleaning establishment; second prize ($50),

SECTION 14. Mounted and Driving.

Class A—Best cup or organization of 24 or more members: First prize ($200), Portland Hunt club (only entry).

Class B—Best decorated horse-drawn: No entries.

Class C—Best decorated saddle horse or pony with boy or girl rider under 16: First prize ($50), Joan SECTION 15. Motorcycles and Bicycles.

Class A—Best decorated bicycle entry by bicycle club consisting of SECTION 16. Special Entry for Children.

Class A—Best decorated cart or wagon containing a child under 8 years of age and drawn by bicycle or tricycle: First prize ($25), Mrs. W. P. Jones; fourth prize ($15), Lorene Sollins; fourth prize ($10), Mildred Miller and John Sellwood; fifth prize ($5), Lawson Robertson.

1—Alameda club float, first honors among community entries. 2—Newberg's beautiful float, first for outside cities of less than 50,000 population. 3—East Side Baptist church Sunday school, winner among religious organizations. 4—Portland Chamber of Commerce, which took second sweepstakes prize of $250 and which otherwise would have been first prize in its class. 5—Rose City Park school, first prize of $75, best-decorated school entry, decorated by pupils. 6—A Harriet and maids in car. 7—Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, ribbon first prize, not competing for cash prize. 8—Little Jean Rowley on pony, first prize, $30. 9—King's Heights community center, first prize, $25.

Rowley, 424 East Thirty-eighth street, North; second prize ($25), Donald Dryer, 448 East Forty-fourth street, North; third prize ($10), Charles Baxter, 1418 Boston avenue.

Class D—Best decorated saddle horse with rider, over 16: First prize ($25), Mrs. H. Bailey, 406 Gerlinger building; second prize ($15), Norma Canani, 708 East Eighteenth street, North; third prize ($10), no entry.

Class E—Best decorated six-horse-drawn entry: First prize ($100), American Express company (only entry).

Class X—Special entry: First prize, Umatilla Indians from Pendleton.

12 or more riders under 15 years of age; prize money to go to school under which entry is made: First prize ($50), Richmond school (only entry).

Class B—Best decorated motorcycle with side car: First prize ($50), George T. Strine (only entry).

Class C—Best decorated motorcycle: First prize ($50), P. S. Sommerlade, 631 East Fifty-second street, North; second prize ($25), Herman Sharkey, 883 East Main street; third prize ($15), H. Larsen, 401 East Forty-third street South.

Class D—Best decorated bicycle: First prize ($25), Philip Hall, 751

Summitt; second prize ($15), Leda Mariner, 137 East Seventy-fifth street, North; third prize ($10), George Century, 520 East Twenty-sixth street, North.