SACRAMENTO, Cal, June 25 .- Ira Colwell, purchased last week from the Calgary club of the late Western International league, made his debut on the Mooreing lot this af-pernoon and lost to the Seals by a score of 7 to 3. The new hurler pitched winning ball except in the fourth loning when three singles, a triple, a sacrifice hit and a base on balls, put four San Francisco runs into the score sheet. The Seals collected for three more tallies, but errors figured in these. Sacramento took the morning tilt at Stockton by a score of 6 to 5, dividing the bill for the day but giving the visitors six out of seven games for the

Good Luck Telegrams.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 25 .- (Special.)—From Nome to San Diego, from the Pacific to the Rocky mountains, the west has its orbs trained on the eight sturdy sons of Wash-ington who will match skill and power with the best crews of the country at Poughkeepsie tomorrow Seattle followers of athletics thought that Ed Leader had a good crew when the boys went east, they knew it when Washington defeated Wisconsin by such a handsome mar-gin. And the folks back east have found it out themselves, judging from the favorable publicity which has been coming out of Poughkeepsie.

Saturday and Sunday many friends of the varsity oarsmen were show-ering them with good luck telegrams. Washington expects great things from the crew this season; SERIES EVENED BY BROWNS the western champions should finish one-two-three, in the opinion of most of the critics. Illinois Lad Beaten Once When Kealoha Takes First in 100-Yard Backstroke.

HONOLULU, T. H. June 25 .- (By the Associated Press.)—Johnny Weissmuller, the Illinois Athletic club's swimming marvel, last night added another world's record to the ong string he already had chalked up on his trip to Hawali, by winning the 220-yard free style in 2 minutes and 18 2-5 seconds. The former record, 2 minutes, 24 1-5 seconds, was held by Perry McGillivray of the Illinois Athletic club, Chicago.

Weissmuller swam to his fresh victory spurred on by the cheers of nobles of Medina temple of the Mystic Shrine, Chicago, who accom-panied Imperial Potentate James S. McCandiess on his trip to his Hawa-ilan home. Medina's cheers, however, lost their potency in the 100-yard backstroke event, in which Warren Kealoha, of the Hul Makani, Honolulu, beat the Chicago lad and at the same time cracked his own world record, time 1 minute 5 3-5 seconds. Kealoha's previous record had been minute 8 seconds flat.

Kealoha led in the backstroke from the start, despite Welssmul-ler's frantic efforts to catch him. Sam Kahanamoku, brother of the famous Duke, sprang a surprise in the 230 free style in which Weissmuller set a new world's mark, by taking second place from Pu Kea-loha, another Hui Mankani star and one of Hawaii's best swimmers. Still another world record went by the boards in the 50-yard women's open event, when Mariechen

Wiehselau of Honolulu covered the distance in 28 3-5 seconds, beating the premier mark heretofore held jointly by herself and Ethelda Bleibtry, by one second. Helen Moses of Honolulu won the 449 yards women's free-style junior national championship in 6 minutes

37 1-5 seconds, Mariechen Wiehse-lau did not compete in this event. The junior national high championship went to James Foley of the Hui Makani, Honolulu, while Sam surfboard race, time 30 3-5 sec breaking his own Hawaiian record of 32 flat.

To many it begins to look very much as though Kearns and his champion are unwilling to tackle anything but the "soft marks," and their sidestepping of the only man who seems capable of putting up an argument in the ring is not making a hit with the public. Just why Dempsey, who is pleased to be called a super-man, should be lagging in the matter of taking a chance the ring is causing some discus-

Naturally, the first thought re verts to the matter of physical condition. It is no secret that during his trip abroad. Dempsey turned night into day and trod the primrose path during his waking, and during a greater part of his sleep-ing hours. The vineyards of France provided all the sparkling beverage necessary, and the women were hospitable. Aside from this, Dempsey's mode of living has been, in almost every detail, exactly in opposition to everything needed for conditioning an athlete.

The question arises, are both Kearns and Dempsey fearful to take on anything but the men who are classed as second and third raters! Has the champion's flesh become soft and his muscles flabby through disuse and misuse? If so it means that his wind has been affected and his powers of recuperation dimin-
