Problems of Dressmaking
by Madam Richet

Madam Richet: Would appreciate a suggestion as to trimming an informal evening dress. My material is twilled silk and messaline. Is fringe still worn and if so how put on? I am slender and blonde, so can easily wear any trimming. Am enclosing sample of messaline. What color would best blend with it? Thanking you kindly, I. M. R.

I. M. R.—If you do not object to the daring combinations I would have you wear the gown as shown in the Ladies' Home Journal, summer quarterly, page 7, No. 3513. Yes, the fringe is still being worn and used on all sorts of apparel and I would here add, in some, cases, with no feeling of fitness. In the illustration you will note the lace flounce as the trim for the front of skirt. In your case have the deep silk fringe in the geranium shade, which, with your shade of deep orchid, is particularly attractive under artificial light. Sew on the fringe by hand, being careful not to pull the margain in so doing. Mount the edge of one under the bottom edge of the other.

TOURIST TRAFFIC GAINS

NORTHERN PACIFIC REPORTS INCREASED BUSINESS.

Advertising Scenic Beauties of Northwest by Railroad Pays, Believes Official.

The continuous advertising of the beauties of Oregon and the northwest by the Northern Pacific company has done much to bring thousands of tourists to this section, in the opinion of A. B. Smith, passenger traffic manager of that company, who is in Portland.

"Our summer tourist business this year has exceeded that of other years," declared Mr. Smith yesterday, "and it has all been due to the continual hammering home through proper advertising of the scenery and resources of the northwest.

"Once an easterner has visited this country and seen its wonders he goes back home and tells his neighbors. Then those neighbors see the advertising we are attempting to put out and they make up their minds to spend their vacations here. It is helping Oregon and the entire northwest district."

Mr. Smith is here for the purpose of gathering new local color for the advertising campaign his company will put on next year to bring tourists to the state.

"We try to keep in touch with the changes that are being made so that we can incorporate them in our campaign," he continued.

Mr. Smith called attention to the fact that the Northern Pacific is enlarging its equipment to take care of increasing business in the northwest, by the purchase of 1880 new cars. Most of them are for the handling of freight. One of the reasons for the increase in equipment is the fact that the crops of the northwest will demand a large number of cars.

He left by a smaller gate, drew the atention of a crowd of pickets and was soon surrounded by them. BATHING IS RESTRAINED Complaint of Scant Attire and Misconduct Prompts Action.

Bathing in the Willamette river above the Hawthorne avenue bridge is to be under surveillance of the harbor patrol force as the result of a complaint made by women canoeists, who say male swimmers are not only scantily attired but their conduct, in calling to passing pleasure craft, is objectionable.

The location complained of the most is on the east side, a short distance south of the bridge.

Harbormaster Speier yesterday gave orders for the case to be investigated and he says that as an ordinance prescribes what bathing paraphernalia is to be worn, while there are various means for dealing with objectionable conduct and rowdyism, there will be strict measures followed in checking such practices.

Household Problems
by Lilian Tinglo

PORTLAND, May 16.—Dear Miss Tingle: Kindly give at your earliest convenience a recipe for a lemon marshmallow cookie. Thanking you, T. P. C.

I HOPE the following is what you want:

Lemon marshmallow cookies—Two cups of sugar, two-thirds cup crisco or similar shortening, two eggs, seven tablespoons lemon juice, grated rind of one lemon, one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon salt, flour to make a light rolling dough. If pastry flour is not obtainable, mix a little cornstarch with ordinary flour to give a more tender mixture. Beat the shortening, sugar, lemon juice and eggs together, then add the flour sifted with the soda and salt. Roll thin, cut out and bake in a moderate oven. When nearly done put one-half marshmallow on each cookie and give reduced heat so that the marshmallow spreads just over the top. Decorate with chopped nuts or cherries or leave plain, as preferred.

Following is a recipe for scalloped corn and one for potatoes au gratin, as requested some time ago by Mrs. L. G. H.:

Scalloped corn—One can corn and liquid, one-fourth cup cream, one teaspoon each sugar and salt or more or less to taste, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, two tablespoons flour. To cover use one cup sifted bread crumbs mixed with one-fourth teaspoon salt, one or two tablespoons dry grated cheese and two tablespoons melted butter. Mix all the ingredients but the prepared crumbs, then put into a well-buttered baking dish, cover with the buttered and seasoned crumbs and bake until nicely browned on top.

Optional ingredients are a little finely chopped green peppers or pimento, or chives, or parsley or celery leaf. An egg yolk may be added if desired.

Potatoes au gratin: Put creamed potatoes in a well-buttered baking dish. A little cheese and chopped parsley may be added if desired. Cover with buttered sifted bread crumbs with about one-third their bulk dry grated cheese, seasoned with salt and, if liked, a few grains of cayenne to taste. Bake until nicely browned on top. Chopped chives or celery leaf or a very little onion juice may be added to the potatoes if desired.

Men Wanted

UNDER STRIKE CONDITIONS BEST EXPLAINED BY CHAIRMAN BEN W. HOOPER OF THE UNITED STATES RAILROAD LABOR BOARD IN HIS STATEMENT OF JULY 1ST READING AS FOLLOWS:

"In this case the conflict is not between the employer and the oppressed employes. The people of this country, through an act of congress, signed by President Wilson, established a tribunal to decide such disputes over wages and working conditions, which are submitted to it in a proper manner. It is the decision of this tribunal against which the shop crafts are striking.

"Regardless of any question of the right of the men to strike the men who take the strikers' places are merely accepting the wages and working conditions prescribed by a government tribunal and are performing a public service. They are not accepting the wages and working conditions which an employer is trying to impose. For this reason public sentiment and full government power will protect the men who remain in their positions and new men who may come in."

Adequate provisions have been made for the full protection of all new employes, the same as old employes who have remained loyally at work. Applicants should apply to the office of the superintendent at Portland (Union station), or to the assistant superintendent at Roseburg.
