

Society News

AMONG the most important social events of the summer season is the reception to be given this evening in the parlors of the Hotel Portland, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Victor Saar of Chicago. Mr. Saar, who has acquired international prominence as a composer and pianist, is in Portland to conduct a five-weeks' master class. The affair, which is to be formal and strictly invitational is being given by Mr. Saar's former pupils who now reside in Portland. Leading musicians of the city will be present.

The musical programme will consist entirely of Mr. Saar's compositions. The chief number, a sonata for piano and violin, will be given with the assistance of Miss Fosca Berlin, a well-known violinist of this city. This will be followed by a number of Mr. Saar's shorter works for the violin as well as a group of his songs which will be sung by Miss Phyllis Wolfe, local soprano. The piano part of the sonata and the accompaniments will be given by Mr. Saar.

A smart social event of yesterday was the luncheon given by Mrs. Dorothy Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. U. Carpenter at her home. The hostess spent last winter at the University of Oregon and the early part of the summer vacation period at Lake City where she attended the Chi Omega convention. This affair was given to assemble a group of Portland friends. A lavender and pink sweet center table, around which covers were placed for Mrs. Erle Hauser, Jr., Miss Suzanne Caswell, Miss Mary Helen Spalding, Miss Frances Spalding, Miss Dorothy Metachan, Miss Helen Tutthill, Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Helen Barker, Miss Harriet Waiters, Miss Virginia Pearson, Miss Effie Greene, Miss Louise McClung, Miss Delight Ingold, Miss Beatrice Hermanson, Miss Mildred Lauderdale, Miss Caroline Schott, Miss Agnes Kennedy, Miss Janet House and the hostess.

Among the guests registered at Shasta Springs hotel are: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McNeil and two daughters, Miss Merle Klock, Miss Evelyn Welland, Miss Emma Pickler, Mrs. H. Sprague, Miss Helen and Hazel Sprague of Portland.

A motor trip to Gearhart for the week-end will be enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot and daughter, Miss Jane; Miss Margaret Stacey of Piedmont, Cal.; Miss Louise Hoyt; Miss Merrill Jones of San Rafael, Cal.

Word comes from Miss Lucie Valaire that she is having a most enjoyable time in Paris and has been attending a round of dances, teas, dinners, theaters and concerts.

Mrs. Isabella Budere and Marion Raymond are house guests of Mrs. Charles Raymond at Long Beach.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry F. Echternacht and daughter Catherine of Marshfield, Wis., who are recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Reischer while on their way to Los Angeles, where Dr. Echternacht will attend the national dental association convention the latter part of this month. Dr. Echternacht and Dr. Reischer were classmates at the Northwestern University of Chicago.

MISS KATHARINE LAUDERDALE, WHO ENTERTAINED WITH HER SISTER MILDRED AT A LARGE TEA.

Mrs. W. C. Dunaway and young son Billy are spending a fortnight at Seaside, Wash. Miss Dorothy Dunaway, who has been touring Glacier and Yellowstone parks, will return to Portland next week.

The many friends of Mrs. Varnel D. C. Beach, who recently underwent an operation, will be glad to know that she is well on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Leiter have returned from a trip to the Orient. They left last Tuesday for San Francisco, where they will visit for several weeks.

Mrs. Jeannette Kennedy was hostess yesterday at an informal luncheon given for Mrs. Christopher C. Cheney of New York, who is a visitor in Portland. The affair was given at the Anne Davenport tea house. Covers were placed for Mrs. Cheney, Mrs. George Ainslie, Miss Jocelyn Betts, Miss Margaret Bates and the hostess.

Mrs. William Porter of New York City and Mrs. Frank O'Neil of Spokane, who have been visiting Mrs. Andrew Porter and her daughter, Mrs. Van Rensselaer Sternberg, departed Monday evening. They were extensively entertained during their visit here.

Mrs. Gilbert Durham has returned from Tokeland, where she has been several weeks.

Mrs. Mary Scarborough is expected to return about August 1 from an extended trip to the Hawaiian Islands and the Orient.

Miss Leslie Kerns will entertain tonight at a bridge tea Monday afternoon given for Mrs. Christopher C. Cheney of New York, who is a visitor in Portland. The affair was given at the Anne Davenport tea Knight. About 75 members of the younger set had been invited.

Ray Small, formerly of Portland, now residing in Rochester, N. Y., is in Portland visiting friends.

Art lovers will attend the exhibition of work in pictorial photography by E. Y. Ogasawara, which will be on display until next Monday in the Elks building, fifth floor.

Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman asked a number of her friends to tea yesterday at her country place.

Mrs. Holt Wilson has invited 25 guests to luncheon today for Mrs. John Forbes, who is visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gordon Forbes.

Mrs. William MacMaster will give a bridge tea Saturday afternoon, honoring Mrs. John Eben Young, who is the house guest of Mrs. Frank Hart.

Mrs. Harrison Corbett of Brookline, Mass., presided at a luncheon Wednesday in the Meier & Frank tea room.

Miss Mabel Claire of Portland is spending the summer in Portland visiting friends and relatives and will return to New York in September, when she will continue her study with Josef Lhevinne, pianist.

An extremely pleasant surprise party was given for Mrs. Bruno Mauro on her birthday, last Monday. A number of beautiful and useful gifts were received. The evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Layed Symmonds, Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Platt, Mrs. Alice Wright, Miss Vera Seligman, Mrs. E. J. Marrell, Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Carver, Bruno Carver and Vilas Holbrook. Miss Nellie Gibbons rendered a number of very pleasing musical selections.

Miss Claire Honeyman entertained Wednesday with a bridge luncheon at her home on Portland Heights for Mrs. Harold Prendergast of Marion, O., and her sister, Mrs. E. S. Harrington of St. Charles, Va. Covers were placed for the following: Mrs. William Detwiler, Mrs. W. B. Coffey, Mrs. C. Noble, Mrs. James Dea, Mrs. K. W. W. Vancouver barracks, the guests of honor and the hostess.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Abe Tichenor was hostess at an attractive luncheon at the Benson hotel, honoring Mrs. Anna Moughin of Los Angeles, who is being extensively entertained here. Tuesday evening Mrs. Moughin was the inspiration for a delightful dancing party, when Mrs. Leslie Kerns entertained at her home in Irvington.

Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons has postponed her trip to London until the spring and will remain in Portland this summer and winter, making her home at the Mallory.

Mrs. John Risley entertained yesterday with an informal tea for her house guest, Miss Emmy Lou Rose, who is being supervised in Seattle public schools. Her home is in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stout, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Chouning arrived at Hockaway July 9 for a two weeks' stay at the Lillywood cottage.

Miss Marie Driscoll left Tuesday night for a short visit to Yakima, where she will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Esther Dolienbacher.

club was editor of the newspaper called "Siltscoos Echoes." Marjorie Cram of the X club, made up of Washington freshmen, was honored by being elected the girl with the highest type of camp spirit.

Many of the high school reserves are spending the last two weeks of this month at the Rock Creek camp near Clackamas. The following girls went to Siltscoos conference, representing the Portland federation of high school reserves: Leslie Gage, Marjorie Cram, Camille Burton, Edna May Root, Eleanor Hagberg, Adelaide Harrison, Gladys Waldele, Ruth Brooks, Helen May Lockwood, Gertrude Richards and Thelma Parrish of Newberg, Theresa Correll and Leona Bryant of Hillsboro. Siltscoos lake is a very large and beautiful lake situated 77 miles from Eugene and two miles from the ocean.

The ladies of Lincoln-Garfield Women's Relief Corps will meet for sewing this morning at 10 o'clock at room 525 courthouse. The regular meeting of the corps will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Members of the Women's Aid club will meet at 12:15 today in the Tyrolese room of the Benson hotel. Frank P. Tebbetts, speaker of the day, will take up his subject, "The Value of the Service of the Better Business Bureau to the Community."

Members of the Portland Women's Research club will picnic at Peninsula park today. Luncheon will be enjoyed at noon, and all are asked to provide themselves with a basket lunch. Mrs. U. D. Maxson is in charge of the entertainment committee, which has planned some novel and interesting events.

The Iowa society will hold its annual picnic at Laurelhurst park this afternoon and evening. All former Iowans and their families are urged to attend. Coffee, cream and sugar will be provided by the organization, and a basket dinner will be in order at 6:30 o'clock.

Orpha Rebekek lodge of Montavilla will meet today at Laurelhurst park.

Al-Azar Pyramid No. 1, United Artisans, will give a picnic and skating party at the Oaks this afternoon and evening. A basket supper will be enjoyed at 6:30 o'clock. Special music, races and other contests are planned by the committee. All Eastern Star members and their friends are invited to participate.

The city chapter of the Order of Eastern Star will hold a basket picnic Saturday at Laurelhurst park. Games and races will be features of the afternoon and the picnic will be furnished by the committee. All Eastern Star members and their families are invited.

Members of Marguerite camp of the Royal Neighbors of America and their families spent yesterday a big picnic and social afternoon in Sellwood park. A basket luncheon was served at noon. A large crowd attended.

Members of Orpha Rebekek lodge of Montavilla will assemble in Laurelhurst park today for a picnic and social affair. A basket luncheon will be served at noon and a short programme has been arranged. The past grand of the order have charge of the arrangements.

So extra delicious
With fresh fruits on a hot day

No other food has such an appeal on a hot day as Kellogg's Corn Flakes! They win fickle appetites, they satisfy hungry folks! And, my, but they are delicious in their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor!

As an extra-summer taste thrill, eat Kellogg's with bananas or the luscious summer fruit now in season. Such a diet is not only ideal from a health standpoint, but it is refreshing—cooling and enjoyable beyond words.

Eat Kellogg's Corn Flakes liberally because they digest easily. Let the children have all they want. All will be better for a lighter diet—and free from headaches and sluggish drowsiness.

Kellogg's
CORN FLAKES

Insist upon Kellogg's Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

Is It Hard for You to Pack a Tasty Picnic Lunch?

A very easy way to introduce appetizing variety into the dessert without overloading the basket is to

Order a Tru-Blu

Highway Assortment of Fancy Cakes
From Your Grocer

Seven varieties of delightful cookies are neatly, closely packed in a handy, inexpensive package that keeps them perfectly fresh, easy to serve and appetizing in appearance. The package is made inexpensive in order to enable us to offer you very GENEROUS MEAS- 40c URE at

Tru-Blu Biscuit Co.—Portland
The Home of Kruse's Marshmallows and Tru-Blu Crackers.

Household Problems

by Lillian Tingle

PORTLAND, Or., June 21.—Dear Miss Tingle: Please tell me how to make strawberry tart or pies as one sees in the tea rooms just now.

SUBSCRIBER

THERE are several ways of doing this. One of the simplest is to boil the strawberry juice with an equal measure of sugar and a few drops of lemon juice until it "skins" when dropped on a cold plate, and pour while hot over the berries, which may be uncooked or just heated through, as preferred.

PORTLAND, Or., June 22.—Dear Miss Tingle: In answer to correspondents of the Sunday Oregonian, saw a letter from Mrs. M. P. in which she spoke of a book you advised her to buy entitled "Feeding the Family." Would you kindly tell me where I could obtain a copy of the book and cost of same. I enclose stamped addressed envelope for reply. Thanking you, I am yours truly, MRS. E. W. C.

The book you mention may be borrowed from the public library or may be ordered through any large bookseller. It is never possible for me to send personal replies even when a stamped envelope is enclosed.

if you want the best order—

Problems of Dressmaking

by Madam Richet

Dear Madam Richet: I am spending the month of August at the beach and would like to make myself an attractive suit and at the same time have comfort when swimming, which I do often and I am so tired of the show which accompanies most bathers and will appreciate a style which will cover me in modest line.

Four columns has been a great help in many more ways than you know and am sure that you can select a good suit for me. I am 5 feet 6, Auburn hair, rather plump and with plenty of color. Thanking you, MRS. LEE WILSON.

MRS. LEE WILSON.—For a bathing suit which will have style and give plenty of room for free sport when swimming, I can think of no better type than the one featured in the August Elite on page 40, No. 8750-D. The wash satin or poplin will make up well and have little weight. As a swimmer you will appreciate the sleeveless suit and may I congratulate you upon your modesty, which in this day of jazz and flapper seems quite obsolete.

GRANTS PASS, Or., July 11.—Dear Madam Richet: As I forgot to send my two samples in my letter, I am sending you now. I hope this will not inconvenience you any. B. R. C.

B. R. C., Grants Pass, Or.—Your materials are beautiful in color and should make most attractively. The models as suggested will be in splendid line and for your evening dress I would have the silver tone lace for the front and portion of side panels as shown in the picture having the blouse, top of panels and the under drap of the crepe de chine. The sleeve loop and the girld would be lovely in the silver ribbon, the sash, of course, having the wider width and the steeve the two or three inch. For the smock I would have the black green and raspberry combination. Evening gown, Style, page 19, No. 8607, Smock, Delmar, for August, page 25, No. 3323.

Dear Madam Richet: Have 3 1/2 yards, 45 inches wide, like enclosed sample that was given me 24 years ago. Then I thought it too nice to make up and wear in a lumber wagon or walk in the mud when I went anywhere. Now what could I use it for this fall? Am 5 feet 2 inches, weigh 115, light brown hair, gray eyes, age 52. I am grateful you read The Oregonian for your help in dressmaking problems. WEST ENDER.

West Ender, Albany, Or.—There is an old saying that runs with the result that if we wait long enough the style comes round again. And so with your material you will find yourself right up to the minute for your material has the woven design so favored. Having the patterned material the dress requires dress I would have the silver tone lace for the front and portion of side panels as shown in the picture having the blouse, top of panels and the under drap of the crepe de chine. The sleeve loop and the girld would be lovely in the silver ribbon, the sash, of course, having the wider width and the steeve the two or three inch. For the smock I would have the black green and raspberry combination. Evening gown, Style, page 19, No. 8607, Smock, Delmar, for August, page 25, No. 3323.

Record Communion Arranged.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 20.—(Special).—A record class of children will receive their first communion and another unprecedented number will receive the sacrament of confirmation at St. Mary's Catholic church here, Sunday, when Right Rev. Charles J. McGrath of Baker will be present to officiate. Nearly 100 children will participate in the event. Catholic families from all mid-Columbia points will be present.

The prestige of Oregonian wants has been attained not merely by The Oregonian's large circulation, but by the fact that all its readers are interested in Oregonian want ads.

Entire Family Killed

Parents, Two Boys and Girl Dead in Rail Crossing Crash.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 20.—Six persons were killed and one seriously injured this afternoon at Stevensville, six miles from Bridgeburg, Ont., when a Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo railroad train struck an automobile at a grade crossing. The automobile bore a Colorado license. The dead are reported to be Daniel Fritz, his wife, two sons and one daughter, and the 18-year-old son of Mrs. James Baker of Stevensville. The Fritz family lived in Colorado Springs.

ALBANY, Ga., July 20.—Eight passengers were injured, one seriously, when five coaches of the Southland limited, a Florida tourist train from Chicago, turned over at Adams station, between Smithville and Leesburg, north of here early today. The injured were brought to a local hospital. A broken rail is said to have been the cause of the accident.

SHREVEPORT, La., July 20.—Charles Troop, engineer of a Marshall, Tex., was internally injured and D. V. Evans, fireman, was slightly hurt when Texas & Pacific train No. 42, eastbound, collided with a wrecking train near Lucas, La., about 10 miles from Shreveport, last night. Three members of the wrecking crew also were slightly injured.

Let Us Show You Why

Mrs. Thomas A. Edison

Has a

Women's Activities

THE high school reserves returned from a ten-day conference at Siltscoos Lake camp Saturday night.

Forty-four girls and eleven leaders attended the conference, which is one of the state conferences being held this summer for high school girl reserves in the United States. Miss Esther A. Dayman and Miss Alice Brown were the presidents and executives of the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid" clan. Each cabin had its captain and Edna May Root of Franklin Tri-Y club was general of the camp. The conference was held at the Siltscoos camp for Oregon clubs. Mrs. L. E. Mason, chairman of the high school committee of the local Y. W. C. C., acted as hostess of the conference. The camp was divided into three classes which competed for honors of all kinds. Camille Burton of Lincoln Tri-Y club was chief of the "Kitties of the Plaid