

BARON ROTHSCHILD IS SUED BY GIRL

$500,000 Asked of Banker for Breach of Promise.

LOVE LETTERS ARE HELD

Marie Porquet Alleges Young Millionaire Induced Her to Come Here From France.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, July 26.—Childhood friendship brought romance, differences of fortune, race and religion intervened, and now four pounds of letters, worth perhaps $125,000 a pound, are relied upon by Marie Porquet in her $500,000 breach of promise suit against Baron James Henri De Rothschild, member of the famous family of bankers.

Announcement of the suit, made today, revealed that the young baron, he is 28, now is somewhere in France, having returned from this country, where he came not long ago to take a course in banking and finance at the American. The young woman came here last May. The object of her arrival was that the marriage might take place in this country, because the fact that the young banker is a Jew and she a Gentile had been an obstacle in France. It seems that a summons in the suit was served some time ago on the student of finance, who later returned to France.

It was reported here that he has denied that he promised to marry Miss Porquet. Her lawyers said she has letters, four pounds of them, that indicate she is well grounded in her claim. She says she was called from France by him, but that he failed to make good his promise. The young woman is sympathetic with a "heart of gold," as the proverb says. "Alas, poor youth," she sighed, "alas to think of his having to go to jail for a few dollars and for fear I should have him arrested, I would not think of such a thing."

TWO HOMES ARE BURNED

THIRD JENNINGS LODGE RES-DENCE IS SCORCHED.

Loss in Both Blazes Is Estimated to Be $10,000; Neighbors Form Bucket Brigade.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 26.—(Special.)—Two houses east of Jennings Lodge, on the Oregon City car line, were destroyed tonight, which broke out at 8:30 o'clock tonight. A third residence, owned by David Hinman, was scorched by the flames, but was not damaged materially.

The homes destroyed were those of William Berry and Mrs. Adeline Ingalls. The fire started from an overheated stove in the Berry home, and spread to the other residence, which also was destroyed. The loss to the Berry home, where all the furniture was destroyed, was estimated at $7,000. The furniture in the Ingalls home was saved, and the loss was estimated at $3,000.

Neighbors formed a bucket brigade and tried to save the buildings, but were unable to do more than save the Hinman home, even with the help of reinforcements from Oregon City and Gladstone. The amount of insurance on the buildings could not be determined. Mr. Berry was said to be sick in a hospital.

FISH MEASURE OPPOSED

Warden Expected to Enjoin Secretary of State.

SALEM, Or., July 26.—(Special.)—A suit to enjoin the secretary of state from placing on the ballot at the general election in November a proposed initiative measure sponsored by G. G. Green, of Oregon City, and having for its purpose the regulation of the state's fish hatcheries and preventing the use of wheels, traps and seines in the Columbia river, probably will be filed in the Marion county circuit court here within the next week or ten days.

This was announced by Carl D. Shoemaker, state fish warden; Chris Schmidt and P. P. Kendall, members of the state fish commission, and R. E. Clanton, director of state fish hatcheries, who passed a part of today in Salem conferring with L. H. VanWinkle, attorney-general, and other state officials.

The suit, if filed, according to Mr. Shoemaker, will allege that the proposed fishing measure initiated by Mr. Green has no place on the ballot in that the petitions contain the names of hundreds of persons who are not qualified voters of the state. Other allegations of fraud will be contained in the complaint, Mr. Shoemaker said.

17 ARGUMENTS ON FILE

WHAT CONGRESS DID AS ITS DAY'S WORK

Basic rates on wool as proposed by the finance committee adopted. Charge that newspapers and magazines defaced ballot in 1912 because of refusal to place print paper on the free list debated at length. Gooding, republican, Idaho, related his connection with a wool pool, saying he made no money from the transaction. Financial standing of the government explained from a democratic viewpoint by Overman, democrat, North Carolina.

answer to the complaint here today, probably will mean that nothing more will be done in the case before next Monday. This was announced by Judge Bingham here tonight.

Judges Bingham and Kelly, who will hear the action en banc, have expressed a desire that the case shall get under way as soon as possible so that it may be completed without interfering in any way with the November election. Attorneys interested in the proceedings said that eight weeks probably would be required to hear the case. It was said here tonight that the congressman's reply to Governor Olcott's answer is being prepared in Portland, and that it may be filed tomorrow.

In anticipation of the election contest proceedings, hearing of an action brought by the Phez company of Salem to recover approximately $300,000 from local berry growers was continued tonight until the September term of court. At the time of continuing the Phez company's case the plaintiff had completed the introduction of its testimony.

FIRE SITUATION BETTER

HERMAN CREEK BLAZE REPORTED CHECKED.

More Fire Fighters Sent to Boulder Creek District in Oregon National Forest.

T. H. Sherrard, supervisor of the Oregon national forest, who is on the scene of the Herman creek fire, reported to his local offices yesterday and said the situation at the fire is improved, but is not such as to allow him to relinquish the constant vigil which has been maintained.

"The fire is not controlled," he said, "but it is in much better shape. I do not know when I shall be able to leave it."

Men are being sent in every day from Herman creek to be paid off. The fire has been checked on almost every side and requires fewer men to guard the lines. It will continue to give trouble for some time, but is by no means raging at its former pace.

More men were sent yesterday to the fire in the Oregon forest at Boulder creek. It was thought to be in much better condition yesterday. It is burning over open lands and is difficult to fight effectively. With the augmentation in the forces, it is hoped to have it well in hand within a few days.

The first cast of Eugene at Blue river was thought to be more nearly under control yesterday. No further reports had been heard from the fighters, and lack of information was indicative of better conditions.

The outlook is gradually growing better on the coast," said C. C. Scott of the Forest Fire Patrol association yesterday. Men are constantly being paid off by the association. The depletion of forces in all sections points to much more favorable conditions for the fighters. Of course, enough men are being held to patrol the lines and keep the fires from jumping them. The fires will take some time to burn out in the centers, but will be drenched if ever a rain will come to resuscitate.

The Salmonberry river country was the only spot which reported rain. There is yet no prospect of showers throughout the state. This is the usual season for lightning storms in the forests, but none has been reported as yet.

GUN CARRIER AT LARGE

Revolver Drops Down Trousers Leg of Dance Hall Disturber.

BEWIND, Or., July 26.—A 44 caliber revolver which is responsible for a warrant for the arrest of Vern Lowell on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon rests in District Attorney A. J. Moore's desk, but the owner is by no means so definitely located, Mr. Moore said today. A charge of using profane and obscene language is also on file against Lowell and against his brother Frank.

All three charges grew out of occurrences at the dance at Roberts hall Saturday night. The three complaints being made on information furnished by L. C. Roberts. The loaded revolver, which Vern Lowell is alleged to have carried, slipped down his trouser leg and fell the floor as the owner was dancing. Roberts told the district attorney.

Mr. Parker alleges in his complaint that the fee is excessive and discriminatory and that other bus lines operating in Silverton are required to pay only $150 a year. He contends that the ordinance is illegal in that jurisdiction over for-hire cars now is vested in the public service commission.

Hearing of the case has been set for tomorrow.
