Emergency Ordinance to Come Before Council.

Emergency ordinances are to be presented before the city council next Wednesday to give special per-mits to four industrial enterprises. One proposes a revokable permit to the Oregon & California company to construct a spur railroad track on East Second Street, between East Davis and East Couch, and also across East Couch, East Burnside and East Ankeny streets. Another revokable permit would enable the Gardeners' and Ranchers' association to erect a loading plat-form at East Third street, between East Salmon and East Main streets. A turnout and spur track for the Portland Rallway, Light & Power company in Grand avenue at Uma-tilla avenue for use of the Oregon Sash & Door company would be au-thorized by passage of another spe-cial ordinance. A fourth would per-mit W. P. Hawley Jr. to run guy wires from his radio station on East Twenty-second street North, across nearby streets.
