

THREE PRIMARIES DEMAND ATTENTION

Missouri, Virginia, West Virginia Vote Tomorrow.

WILSONISM IS BIG ISSUE

Senator Reed, Stern Critic of ex-President, Has Fight for Life to Get Renomination.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—Three senatorial primaries on Tuesday are commanding the attention of political Washington.

The principal issue in Missouri appears to be Wilsonism. Senator Reed, a democrat of the old school, was one of President Wilson's sternest critics, and an ardent opponent of Mr. Wilson's pet project, the league of nations.

Reed Has Uphill Fight. Advice received in Washington from the Missouri battle ground are to the effect that Reed, stumping every corner of the state with a circuitous tour, has been conducting an uphill fight.

In West Virginia Senator Sutherland is having a hard tussle for renomination with H. C. Ogden in the republican primaries.

Miss Alice Expects to Win. Senator Swanson, one of the democratic leaders in the senate, is contesting for renomination against ex-Governor Westmoreland Davis.

OKLAHOMA FIGHT TANGLED. Democratic Race for Governor Obscures Other Contests.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—With lines being drawn on economic issues and under-surface shifts on the Ku Klux Klan question, Oklahoma has entered into final stages of one of the most intricate and tangled campaigns in the history of the state.

Interest in the outcome of the democratic race for the governor's nomination is being virtually obscured by the contests for congress and state offices in the three parties entered in the republican and socialist.

The Ku Klux Klan issue has been brought forward recently with publication of a state report to have been issued by the organization.

Other organizations have been formed to combat the Klan. The voting force of the Americans were taken and the strength of the anti-Klan forces was thrown into the voting Tuesday is problematical.

STAR OF "SALLY" DEFIES FLO ZIEGFELD'S EDICT. Film Assemblage at Marriage in Fairbanks Home is Notable. Honeymoon in California.

(Continued From First Page.) Charley developed a stiff neck, but he managed to extract quite a bit of enjoyment from the proceedings.

The wedding ceremony brought together a remarkable assemblage of screen stars.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickford plan to spend their honeymoon at Del Monte and Lake Tahoe, California, until September 1, when Mrs. Pickford plans to return east and resume her role in "Sally."

Many congratulatory telegrams were received. The wedding was originally scheduled to take place September 1, but was hastened.

Her appearance today, however, shows that he must have had some one else in mind when he made the dire prediction.

A cablegram was received from Flo Ziegfeld tonight. It read: "Much happiness."

FOLLIES DANGER GUARDING LETTERS

Whitney Epistles Declared Basis of Case.

PAPERS IN SAFE DEPOSIT

33 Documents Reported Locked Up in Chicago Under Assumed Name by Attorney.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, July 30.—Miss Evan Burrows Fontaine's presentation of what may lightly be termed "the case against Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney," might be called "the hunt for the 33 letters."

It was alleged that there are 33 letters in existence; that they were written by Mr. Whitney; and that their possession has aroused rare energy and resourcefulness.

The letters were alleged to have been written by young Whitney to Miss Fontaine in 1915 and 1920—during the several months when they are said to have been motor-ing between New York and New Haven on week-end holidays.

Letters Mostly Boyish. For the most part the missives were described as boyish effusions, profusion of deathless love, interspersed with gossip of Yale athletic and social events.

POISING ACADEMY CLOSED

Professor of Young Girl School Jailed for "Artist" Show.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service. (By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) VIENNA, July 30.—Art suffered another severe setback today when Professor Heinrich, self-styled director and founder of a New York physical culture club, was jailed and the academy opened two weeks ago to develop shapely feminine forms and impart graceful and artistic poise to young girls preparatory to stage careers was closed by the police.

While the mothers were sitting in an ante room waiting for their daughters the latter, ranging in age from 12 to 20 and wearing nothing except a blush, were kicking vertically and bending in cadence to the musical bark "one, two three." The professor explained "the girls that the gentlemen viewing the exercises from a gallery were artists selecting art or American showmen selecting tips, legs and busts calculated to thrill the tired American business men.

Yesterday plain clothes men paying 20,000 kronen—the regular admission for artists or showmen—viewed the lesson, which ended in the professor's arrest and the closing of the academy.

Girl and Brother Declared to Have Hunted Reptiles.

EUGENE, Or., July 30.—(Special.)—When David Cherm, aged 11 years, reported a short time ago that he had killed a number of rattlesnakes this year on the farm of his father, H. Cherm, in the Spencer creek valley, he was believed to be the youngest person in Lane county to tackle these poisonous reptiles.

Now comes Henry Mathews of Goshen with the story about 10-year-old Louise Kruse, living near that place, who with her brother, Max, 16, has killed 13 this summer in a pasture where they are herding between 600 and 800 turkeys.
