Reeves Bti Resourceful.

The case has its humorous aspects, for Reeves plansibility got him out of fail again yesterday after his bondsmen had returned him and had asked that their bond be cancelled.

About two months ago Reeves bought an automobile from C. L. Bons a Co. in payment for which he gave a $170e check. He drove the machine to Butte, Mont., and the sutomobile company experienced considerable difficulty in cashing the check. A warrant charging larwith your orange jersey knit I sion that a deputy from his office be allowed to accompany the man. That was the unfortunate part of it all. Reeves positively declined to be excerted by an officer. He would go out with his lawyer, find the money and turn over $2500 of it to the county but he would not do this with any "buil" along, he gave the authorities to understand Pratt was adamant in his decision not to allow Reeves to go without an official companion.

Reeves Finally Released. the b onds having been approved. He left the building with his bondsmen. About 5 o'clock he was returned to the county jail by Dr. Morrow, who asked Jailer Jackson to take charge of him again. The jailer also was asked if it would be possible to surrender the bond. He suggested that the matter be taken up in the morning.

Yesterday morning Reeves was ready wit hfurther arguments for his release, and he convinced his bondsmen that he still was a good risk. Accordingly he was released. Not long after Dr. Morrow surrendered him to the watchful care of dered him to the watchful care of John Lowe. Early in the affernoon Lowe appealed to the police for help in hunting Reeves. Later he appeared at the sheriff's office with a simiat the sheriff office with a simi-iar plea. He received the horse laugh. The county had a $2500 bond which was quite sufficient se-curity—and if the bondsmen could not produce Reeves in time for trial, why, that was a matter of concern for them, not the au-thorities.

Lowe Loses His Charge. Lows said he drove Reeves from the Northwestern National bank to the Western Union office, where a seemingly important message was filed, and back to the bank. While standing in the bank lobby, talking to a friend. Lowe declared that Reeves stepped into an ascending elevator. Though he waited at the bottom of the shaft for about two hours before notifying the police, Lowe saw no more of his charge.

Problems of Dressmaking

SALEM. Or., July 28.—Dear Madam Richet: I have read your column often and find it very interesting, so am coming to you for holp.

Would you suggest a pretty way to make over a navy blue serge dress like sample, made with a vestee 10 inches long and 4 inches wide and sibour and 4 inches wide and sibour and 4 inches wide and seawer? The skirt is 64 inches wide and has a 5-inch hem. It has a medium low waisline with a narrow belt of same material. I have the bottom of the skirt embroidered, but if the stamp of the transfer pattern can be removed would like it some other way.

Would like its some other way.

Would like to know what kind of afternoon dress to make for this fall and winter. Had thought of black canton crepe. I am 18, have brown hair, blue ayes, weigh 80 pounds and am 5 fest 2 inches tall. I have very little color.

L. M., Salem, On-Your blue . serge would seem to require little change, and that will be in the sleeves and vest; also the sash if your cleaner can promise the removal of the transfer tracings. The Fashionable Dress for August has such an attractive freck after which yours would remodal most perfectly. Please see the mentioned issue, page 19. No. 2062. The con-tracting portions will be best in the canton or crepe de chine, with the paisiey shades or in the plain henns, with the rope silk embroidry done in the same blue as your material. The sash is particularly interesting and adds much to the entire line of the dress.

For an afternoon dress which will be different and charming in combination, why not have a figured canton or crepe de chine with the sirap panels and walst trim of a very becoming shade which will, of course, harmonise with the figured material. Wear a culor which reflects color to your face. I have in mind the model shown on page 20 No. 7067. Should you care to in mind the model shown on page 100. No. 2067. Should you care to send samples of combinations I shall be more than glad to assist you in the selection. This dress is atrictly a frock for the house and those things of entertainment there given. It will be suitable for street wear next spring, but not as a fall street frock. street frock.

Outwitted by Young Man Accused of Stealing Auto.

Dr. J. W. Morrow. prominent democratic politician. and A. C. Ruby, wealthy stockman, are seeking one Albert Reeves, whose glib tongue won their confidence and wrose disappearance yesterday may cost them $1500, the amount of the bond, they put up last Saturday to insure Reeves' appearance in circuit court when his trial on a larceny charge is called.

John Lowe, negro, former chauffeur for Dr. Morrow, and who recently served a six months' jail sentence on federal conviction for bootlegging, is even more agitated about the disappearance than the bonds, they in the bonds at the time of his getaway. Lowe said yesterday that he feared suspicion would be directed toward him if he could not produce the man and that he was willing to give $200 out of his own pocket if some one would kindly put Reeves again behind the bars of the Multnoman machine to Butte, Mont., and the automobile company experienced considerable difficulty in cashing the check. A warrant charging larceny was issued against Reeves. He was arrested in Butte, the automobile recovered, and he was brought back to Portland to face the music. That was the work of enly a few days.

During his incarceration Reeves adroitly allowed the impression to become general that he was a man of hidden wealth with a secret cache somewhere in Multnomah county from which he would produce thousands of dellars if he could only get to it.

Lawyers Are Interested.

Attorneys began to flock to see him at the county jail. He had not hear able to interest a lawyer in the control of heip to you.

Twenty, Lebanon, Or.—To wear with your orange jersey knit I would have the canton or, better still, the cream jersey knit, emphroidered in the orange and black rope silks and made after the very stunning model shown in the Delineator for August, page 25, No. 2839. The style is beautiful and will be very popular this fall, as so many of the dresses and coats are following the Russian line. In your material I would have the more closely fitting collar, in the same shape, to be sure, but more "Friendly" with your neck.

Am delighted to hear that the column has been of help to you.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—John G. Wyers, county commissioner, who resides here, has requests of attorneys to have the prisoner released in their custody temporarily while he dug up his own ball money.

Martin Pratt, chief deputy in the sheriff's office, giadly acceded to all requests, but made the provision that a deputy from his office he allowed to acceding the provision that a deputy from his office he allowed to acceding the provision that a deputy from his office he allowed to acceding the provision that a deputy from his office he allowed to acceding the provision of the last 14 years, is the only other candidate here who has J. Bates, fruitgrower and good roads enthusiast, who has lived in this district for the last 14 years, is the only other candidate here who has filed for the office to date.

Cat Kills Carrier Pigeon.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 1 .-Then, out of a clear sky, apparently, came the announcement that conds had been furnished for Reeves it had fallen in a local houseyard, by Dr. Morrow and Ruby.
