

COOLIDGE'S VISIT HERE TO BE QUIET

Sightseeing Trips to Form
Part of Entertainment.

WILL ATTEND CHURCH

Former Mates at Amherst College
Will Greet Vice-President;
Highway to Be Viewed.

The three-day visit to Portland by Calvin Coolidge will be quiet as it is possible to make it, according to plans for entertainment announced yesterday by Wallace McCamant, whose guest the vice-president will be while in the city. Church attendance, sight-seeing trips and one public address in the municipal auditorium make up the programme.

The vice-president's party coming from San Francisco will consist of six persons, he and Mrs. Coolidge, their two sons and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stearns of Boston, Mass. Mr. Stearns is one of Mr. Coolidge's closest friends and staunchest supporters. He is the proprietor of a large dry goods store in Boston and was also a classmate at Amherst of William M. Ladd of Portland, both of them graduating from the college in 1878.

Party Due August 12.
They will arrive in Portland on the Shasta limited from San Francisco on Saturday evening, August 12. As Mr. Coolidge is very fatigued from his labors with the senate during the long summer session and is avoiding all public appearances possible, no reception has been planned to take place at the time of his arrival. Whether he stops at the home of Wallace McCamant or at some hotel, the party will go immediately there from the train.

On Sunday it is planned to take the entire party to church in the morning. They will be driven over the city and through its environs. Dinner will be taken that evening at the McCamant home and no plans have been made for the evening.

Highway to Be Viewed.
On Monday morning, August 14, a trip over the Columbia River highway will be made by the vice-president's party and a small number of Portland persons. Vice-President Coolidge and Mrs. Coolidge will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Hardy on Monday evening. Mr. Hardy and Mr. Coolidge were also classmates at Amherst.

Luncheon on Tuesday will be tendered the honor guest by the delegates to the last republican convention and the supreme court of Oregon. John L. Rand, chief justice, was chairman of the Oregon delegation to the convention. That evening the Oregon State Bar association will tender a dinner to the vice-president just before the public meeting in the auditorium.

The Amherst alumni will be in charge of this meeting and some prominent member of the organization will introduce Mr. Coolidge, who will make the only speech of his visit at that time. This meeting will be open to the public and will begin at 8 o'clock. The party will leave Portland Wednesday morning for Seattle.

RELIEF WORK PRAISED

AMERICANS LAUDED FOR ACTIVITY IN BAVARIA.

Eugene Hotel Proprietors Make Interesting Comments on Return From Abroad.

That the Americans have been doing wonderful work in their relief activities in Bavaria is the report of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Osburn of Eugene, proprietors of the Hotel Osburn of that city, who have just returned from a tour of Europe and the near east.

They said that the work of the Quaker relief in Bavaria especially came under their attention. They said that the relief workers were taking the children of school age and caring for them.

"They were very appreciative of what the Americans are doing for them, and we found no trace of resentment for the Americans played in the war," they said. "Rather we found the Bavarians interested to know what America thought of them and felt toward them."

Mr. and Mrs. Osburn visited Chateau-Thierry and Belleau Wood and the scenes of other exciting activities during the war. They reported that the districts were being rapidly rebuilt.

Belgium they reported to have recovered rapidly from the ravages of war, and Brussels has already resumed its position as a center of wealth and fashion. Mr. and Mrs. Osburn said that they found much unemployment in England and Switzerland. In Egypt they said they found considerable unrest, and in Jerusalem there was considerable agitation against the Jews.

Mr. and Mrs. Osburn were at the Imperial yesterday. They expect to return to Eugene immediately. They were absent on their trip about six months.

FAIR CARAVAN INVITED

Cocoon and Curry Counties Want Boosters to Visit Them.

Citizens of Cocoon and Curry counties are eager to have the 1922 exposition caravan visit their section. No sooner had they read of the caravan than C. W. Parker, secretary of the Marshfield chamber of commerce, wrote to Mayor Baker urging that the itinerary be lengthened to include Marshfield and neighboring towns.

We would be pleased to have you travel through Cocoon and Curry counties on this trip," wrote Secretary Parker. It would require about three extra days, he pointed out.

Mayor Baker, who is vice-chairman of the fair managing committee and in charge of the caravan trip to announce to the state that the exposition will be held, expressed fear that it may be impossible to visit these counties at this time. Inability of the business men who will make the journey to be gone for too long a period may be the precluding factor. However, it is planned to send delegations later to all sections of the state not visited by the caravan the third and fourth weeks of this month.

The Lines of Fall

Have you stopped a moment from the summer activities to give a thought to the fashions and fancies of fall?

New Fall Apparel

is arriving daily and demands attention by virtue of its smartness and beauty and its modern lines.

The frocks for fall, mostly of pricotine, Canton and serge, are cut along the simplest lines imaginable, but the more distinctive ones are invariably draped on one side. Girdles and sleeves attract the eye by their unusual charm. The suits are longer as to jacket and more distinctively tailored as to style. But the coats are gorgeous, pure and simple, and more than usually moderate in price.

Fall Dresses are $25 to $95.
Fall Suits are $52.50 to $225.
Fall Coats are $69.50 to $175.
