FUGITIVE WARRANT TRAPS DECORATOR

Portland Man Faces Embezzlement Charge.

COMPLAINANT IN CITY

W. D. Harper of Deland, Florida, Alleges J. P. Hewitt Owes Him More Than $10,000.

J. P. Hewitt, president of the hn L Stark Co., decorators, of 320 East Morrison street, was arrested yesterday by Police Detectives Mal-itand Gordon on a fugitive war-rant from Deland. Fig., where he is under indictment for the alleged embeszlement of $5500 from W. D. Harper, a business man of that city.

Following a hearing yesterday here for a Municipal Judge Ekwall, Hewlitt was released to W. P. LaRoche, ex-city attorney, who is a relative boys than those Anderegg chaps by marriage. Mr. La Roche, with Ted Lansing is appearing as attorney for thim.

the indictment.

Mr. Hewitt came to Portland about a year ago and organized the decorating company of which he is the president. His firm did much of the decoration work for the last Rose Festival.

Fine Home Purchased.

He recently purchased a magnifi-ent home at 1235 Alameda drive which is said to have cost between $15,000 and $29,000. The home is ex-pensively furnished. Mr. Hewitt is Salmon last Sunday.

Under the new ruling the trollers were placed in the same class as the operators of other gear in that fish caught legally can be delivered on Sunday during the season which will close August 25, but no delivered of salmon will be permitted after that date until September 18, when the fail season will be permitted. when the fall season will open. It is expected that as a result of this interpretation of the fishing regula-tions the case against the 13 troll-ers, which had been set for hearing August 28, will be dismissed.

Sisse Alleged Berrowed.

According to word received by the Portland police, Hewlit formerly lived in Fiorida where he promoted a chain of grocery stores and a wholesale grocery firm which was to supply the chain stores. It is alleged in the indictment that he berrowed $5500 from Mr. Harper and gave as security stock in the Hewlit Grocery company, of which he was the president, and then converted the money to bis own use and profit.

Coincident with the arrest of Mr. Hewlit it became known that the complainant, W. D. Harper, and S. A. Wood, a Florida banker, had arrived in Portland to press the charges against their ex-townsman. Mr. Weod said he would bring-civil action against Mr. Hewlit in an effort to collect more than $10,000 he alleges is owed to him.
