Finals of Tourney at Pittsburg Is Desperate 36-Hole Battle. Gallery Ordains Victor.

OAKMONT COUNTRY CLUB, Pittsburg, Aug. 18.—(By the Associated Press.) — Four years ago a 17-year-old caddy named Eugene Sarazen sat under a tree on a golf course at Rye, N. Y., and told himself in a day dream that he was going to become king of all American professionals. That dream came true today—on the hill-capped and trench-scarred course at Oakmont. The same Gene, already open cham-The same Gene, already open champion of the United States, captured the final round of the national professional tournament from Emmet French of Youngstown, Ohio, four up and three to play, in a desperate 35-hole struggle that was nip-and-tuck through the turn of the after-

When Gene haived the 33d hole in four a record-breaking gailery swept onto the green and the youngster quickly was hoisted to the shoulders of friends. French was not forgotten. He, too was carried to the 18th hole, where victor and runner-up received the fruits of triumph. By an exhibition of sheer steadiness, the youthful Californian de-feated in straight sets Mrs. May Sutton Bundy of Los Angeles, the only American to win the British women's title at Wimbledon and an ex-American national champion.
She won the American title nearly two decades ago, when only a year older than Miss Wills is now. The score was 6-4, 6-3. The conqueror of Mrs. Bundy tomorrow will accost the supreme test of her mounting ambition. Mrs. Molla B. Mallory of ambition-Mrs. Molla B. Mallory of New York, who has sat on the na-

This victory was an unexpected one for Miss Wills. When the tour-nament opened she was conceded a chance to defeat Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup of Wilmington, Del., but her sister Californian, it was anticipated, would block the young star's hopes. Her defeat of Mrs. Bundy today was a sensation to followers of the game, for Mrs. Bundy has been recognized this season as Mrs. Mallory's closest rival.
