

HAT REDEEMED MALICE HELD SHORT-MINDED

Policy of Kindness and Love Declared Long-Sighted.

MORALITY IS DEFINED

Rev. Harold H. Griffith Asserts Man Should See Consequences of Today's Conduct.

"It is always a short-sighted policy to be malicious," said Rev. Harold H. Griffith yesterday to his audience of the First Christian church new worshiping in the Lincoln high school auditorium...

Inward Unwise Sentiment.

"Hatred is not only an unhappy and unwholesome sentiment—it is an unwise sentiment. It lacks foresight. It is a symptom of that disease called in pathology as myopia...

Time Gives New Viewpoint.

"Long-mindedness is the thing needed to restore amicable relations among men. It is long-minded and is kind. Love can afford to be kind because it ponders results. Time, we are told, heals many wounds. At that time alone can erase the effects of sin, but time can do this; it can give us a new viewpoint...

Acts Determine Future.

"Our views of life are to be as long as life itself. We are to think forward to the outcome of what we do and how it will end and what will be its last effect upon our character. You do not know a fortune teller to inform you of the consequences of getting drunk every Saturday night or violating the laws of chastity or outraging the processes of digestion...

CONVENTION IS DISCUSSED

Rev. Thomas Jenkins Talks About Great Task of Church.

At St. David's Episcopal church yesterday morning, Rev. Thomas Jenkins rendered a dissertation on the "General Convention at Work." He spoke of the office of the convention in connection with the great task of the church as a whole, and the matters which are scheduled to come before the body in a few days...

Stockholders in the defunct State Bank of Portland must today pay the 100 per cent assessment levied against them or face suit by the state, according to a report that less than 10 per cent of the $300,000 due as assessments against that amount of capital stock had been actually paid in or pledged by Saturday...

MANY AT REVIVAL MEETING

Protracted Services Opened by Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Jeter.

At the protracted evangelical meetings being conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Jeter, which opened yesterday at Union avenue and Multnomah street, the house was filled to capacity to hear the sermon of the morning delivered by Bishop Horace M. Du Rose, who had come here to attend the northwest annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to commence at Milton, Or., Wednesday morning...

Time Extension Unlikely.

Because this group of stockholders cling to the hope that they may wriggle out of liability under the assessment, it is not expected that many more of them will pay the $100 per share assessed against them on this final day of grace for such payments...

Payments Total $24,000.

Actual payments of assessments up until closing time on Saturday were $24,000. Several persons had, however, paid only a part of the amounts assessed against them. These and others who had definitely pledged payment at a given date will pay out of about $20,000, it was said...

Problems of Dressmaking

by Madam Richet

SALEM, Or., July 11.—My Dear Madam Richet: Will you kindly give me a recipe for chicken Spanish and one for a spice cake, using sour milk? I would also appreciate a recipe for cherry cheese. The one I have in mind is somewhat similar to cherry preserves. Thanking you very kindly, Madam Richet.

Problems of Dressmaking

by Madam Richet

SALEM, Or., Aug. 13.—Dear Madam Richet: I have a blue serge dress and black skirt I want to make over, so come to you for help. Skirt is 2 1/2 inches bottom, hem 2 1/2 inches, seam back and front, length of skirt 39 inches, has a yoke cut in front with six tucks running from back to front downward, depth of yoke, back of skirt, front 1 1/2 inches. Which would be best, to make into a skirt again or combine with something else and make into a dress? I prefer a dress unless you think goods too heavy. Serge dress around bottom 2 yards 4 inches, front all in one, back has seam down center from waist line and across waist line, sleeves one strap with pleats at elbow, turnback cuffs; a V-neck 1 1/2 inches deep in front, four different pieces of broad worked across front, 3 inches deep above waistline running down an inch below waistline, light and dark blue, gray and gold, not put on by hand; belt, 1 1/2 inches wide, goes around waist, crosses in back and fastens four inches from center front on each side. Serge fastens on left shoulder and under one arm, length in back of dress 33 inches.

ONE WHO NEEDS HELP.

One Who Needs Help, Salem, Or.: With the lower section of my neck, I have three must be combining fabric, and I am sure that you would like the canton crepe in a henna, which color will reflect a warm hue to your face. The model shown in the Butterick quarterly, page 16, No. 2843, is a clever model and will give you good lines. The collar and cuffs I would have of the henna, rather than a contrast, for in your case this would mean the black next to the face. The seven large buttons covered with the henna and centered with the French knots done in the black would add a different one. You will not require the braid trimming. Piece the blouse panel at the belt line. If the suggestion to wear white does not meet your fancy, feel free to write again as the object of this department is to give at all times the latest and best for the problems in dressmaking.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 11.—Dear Madam Richet: I would appreciate your help in planning a silk and wool heather dress for a young girl. I would like a blue and pleated skirt. I would want it open in front.
