

Morning Oregonian

Published by The Oregonian Pub. Co., 133 South Street, Portland, Oregon. C. A. MOYER, Editor. H. B. PETER, Manager.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance. Daily, Sunday included, one year, $2.00. Daily, Sunday included, three months, $1.00.

How to Read—Send postoffice money order, express or personal check, payable to The Oregonian, 133 South Street, Portland, Ore.

A SUMMONS TO HALT ON THE WAY DOWNWARD.

In laying before congress the facts of the coal and railroad strikes and in making recommendations to deal with those facts President Harding centered attention without swerving on the one side...

LITERACY TEST FOR VOTERS.

Under the new statute giving force to the constitutional amendment adopted at the last general election...

CITIES THAT ARE NO MORE.

There is ever a quickening of the thought-currents, a stimulus to fancy, which creates chances for such stories as that of the ancient city of Colombia...

AUSTRIA'S PITIFUL PLIGHT.

Bankruptcy and seemingly impending dissolution of Austria are the subjects of the first instalment of the long series of articles...

sumption to the extreme by beating down and killing the workers by inducing and training to abandon trains in the desert...

A PARTY WITHOUT LEADERS OR AN ISSUE.

Desire to discredit the republican party in the eyes of the people is not the sole motive of democrats in calling attention to the troubles of that party...

FROM A POET OF THE OLD SCHOOL.

To the Exponents of the New. The words you use, to me, are new and strange. Their weaving comes not easy to my hand...

THE LISTENING POST.

LORD SHAW, who sits on the bench in the highest court in Great Britain and who was a recent visitor to Portland...

THOSE WHO COME AND GO.

THE popularity of the corset, which waned for a time among American women, is coming back to normal, declared B. F. Wellington of San Francisco...

BURROUGHS NATURE CLUB.

Can You Answer These Questions? 1. Why is horseradish called by that name? 2. Why do birds eat gravel, and why doesn't it hurt their insides?

THE FABRIC OF THE KATYDID.

When Robin, thrush and oriole were singing in the trees, and the katydid made not a sound, it was because of the katydid's own affair...

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

IN OTHER DAYS.

From The Oregonian, August 21, 1872. London—A dispatch from Dublin states that the British army is still in the rioting in Belfast. The city is practically under martial law.

fact gave them the right to insure that the boon should not be abused, by the further disorganization of Europe.

So lost in antiquity was the origin of the Peruvian culture, that their chief domesticated animals, the llama and the alpaca, from which they obtained fleeces for their textiles...

Another thing with us in Great Britain: No reference can be made to what goes on inside the jury booth during or after the trial.

FROM A POET OF THE OLD SCHOOL.

To the Exponents of the New. The words you use, to me, are new and strange. Their weaving comes not easy to my hand...

THE LISTENING POST.

LORD SHAW, who sits on the bench in the highest court in Great Britain and who was a recent visitor to Portland...

THOSE WHO COME AND GO.

THE popularity of the corset, which waned for a time among American women, is coming back to normal, declared B. F. Wellington of San Francisco...

BURROUGHS NATURE CLUB.

Can You Answer These Questions? 1. Why is horseradish called by that name? 2. Why do birds eat gravel, and why doesn't it hurt their insides?

THE FABRIC OF THE KATYDID.

When Robin, thrush and oriole were singing in the trees, and the katydid made not a sound, it was because of the katydid's own affair...

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

THE LISTENING POST.

LORD SHAW, who sits on the bench in the highest court in Great Britain and who was a recent visitor to Portland...

THOSE WHO COME AND GO.

THE popularity of the corset, which waned for a time among American women, is coming back to normal, declared B. F. Wellington of San Francisco...

BURROUGHS NATURE CLUB.

Can You Answer These Questions? 1. Why is horseradish called by that name? 2. Why do birds eat gravel, and why doesn't it hurt their insides?

THE FABRIC OF THE KATYDID.

When Robin, thrush and oriole were singing in the trees, and the katydid made not a sound, it was because of the katydid's own affair...

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

IN OTHER DAYS.

From The Oregonian, August 21, 1872. London—A dispatch from Dublin states that the British army is still in the rioting in Belfast. The city is practically under martial law.

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

IN OTHER DAYS.

From The Oregonian, August 21, 1872. London—A dispatch from Dublin states that the British army is still in the rioting in Belfast. The city is practically under martial law.

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO.

THE popularity of the corset, which waned for a time among American women, is coming back to normal, declared B. F. Wellington of San Francisco...

BURROUGHS NATURE CLUB.

Can You Answer These Questions? 1. Why is horseradish called by that name? 2. Why do birds eat gravel, and why doesn't it hurt their insides?

THE FABRIC OF THE KATYDID.

When Robin, thrush and oriole were singing in the trees, and the katydid made not a sound, it was because of the katydid's own affair...

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

IN OTHER DAYS.

From The Oregonian, August 21, 1872. London—A dispatch from Dublin states that the British army is still in the rioting in Belfast. The city is practically under martial law.

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

IN OTHER DAYS.

From The Oregonian, August 21, 1872. London—A dispatch from Dublin states that the British army is still in the rioting in Belfast. The city is practically under martial law.

THEY'LL LEARN BETTER THERE.

Next time they will have a plague of pacifists we're sending them to Ireland. It looks as if we'd soon be buying our coal, also, of the pacifist.

IN OTHER DAYS.

From The Oregonian, August 21, 1872. London—A dispatch from Dublin states that the British army is still in the rioting in Belfast. The city is practically under martial law.